W. E. Dull has purchased three lots of Nick Klannens, for which he paid $800.00, and will erect a new residence thereon and move to town.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Contryman left Tuesday of last week for Colorado, where they will spend several weeks at Denver, Manitou and Colorado Springs.

John Vallery and wife, of Denver, Mrs. Vallery, Mrs. Miner, Mr. and Mrs. Will Streight, of Plattsmouth, were the guests of J. R. Vallery and family, Sunday.

Louise Vallery was a passenger for South Omaha Monday, where she will be a guest at the home of P. Sheehy for the week and take in the Ar-Sar-Ben festivities.

J. W. Edmunds bought this week the 120-acre farm of Frank Wiles, two miles south of Plattsmouth, for which he paid $87½ per acre, which is considered only a fair price.

T. J. Bodeker, of Wausau, came in Saturday for a few days' visit with relatives and old neighbors and friends, and will return home on Thursday. Mr. Bodeker is well pleased with Wausau and surrounding country.

Wm. Scott, the genial agent of the M. P., is taking his vacation, and is out in the western part of the state hunting and trapping. Will McDaniel is holding down the office in Scott's absence, and he knows the trick by which it is done.

William Spocer has bought the 80 acre farm of Mrs. James Allison, for which he paid $162½ an acre. Mr. Spocer owns the far adjoining, and while this is considered a big price, it is worth more to him than anyone else. Mrs. Allison will remove to Oklahoma.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Smith were in Omaha Wednesday to meet Mr. Smith's sister, Mrs. Clarence Fletcher and husband, of Ong, Nebraska, who are coming to pay them a visit. They remained in Omaha until after the electrical parade, and returned with their visitors on the midnight train. Mrs. Fletcher has visited her brother here on several occasions, and is quite well known.

Mr. and Mrs. Latta donated a fine sink, drawing board and cupboard toward furnishing the Presbyterian kitchen.

The K. N. R. will give a bazaar at Kenosha Christian church Saturday evening, October 29th. A cordial welcome to all.

F. J. Lillie, of near Murray, was a Plattsmouth visitor Tuesday, and while there had his subscription marked up to June 7, 1912. Good boy.

The Harvest Home dinner and supper at the Presbyterian church Friday was a success in every way, netting the Missionary society over $25.00.

Mrs. O. A. Davis and Mrs. S. O. Pitman and Dick Pitman went to Omaha Wednesday morning to spend the day and take in the electrical parade in the evening.

H. L. Oldham visited his sister, Mrs. Dora Moore, at Plattsmouth, Sunday and Monday. Their brother, Good, came in from Beaver City for a few days' visit with them.

Arthur Copenhaver and Miss Tessie Stokes and George Nickels and Miss Trude Long were Omaha visitors Wednesday, and remained to see the electrical parade at night.

Mr. and Mrs. Nick Klaurens moved to their new home on the James Chalfant farm, southeast of Murray, this week. Society circles regret the departure of this excellent family.

Mrs. J. W. Edwards was called to Shenandoah, Iowa, Monday, on account of the serious illness of her brother, Mr. P. Ferguson. At last accounts Mr. Ferguson was in a dangerous condition.

Misses Fay Oldham and Isabella Young made their customary journey to Plattsmouth Wednesday morning, where they are studying music under Miss Kittie Cummins. The young ladies continued their journey to Omaha to see the electrical parade.

There is a manufacturing enterprise of which many of the residents of the vicinity know but little about. Wm. Scott, agent for the M. P., has invented a hide stretcher, used for stretching all kinds of fur pelts. And it is amazing the demand for these stretchers all over the west. We expect to see "Scotty" rated with the trusts ere many years.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Baird, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Crabill, Rev. and Mrs. Gade, Prof. Gamble and Mrs. Gamble, Dr. and Mrs. Cummins, all of Plattsmouth, came down in their autos Friday evening to attend the Harvest Home supper at the Presbyterian church.

A Pleasant Event.

There was a very pleasant evening spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Vallery Saturday, October 1st, when Mrs. Vallery invited the "Helping Hand" Bible class of the Christian Sunday school to be present.

Many games were played, but the one which proved most interesting was charades. Dainty refreshments were served and at a late hour they left, after thanking Mr. and Mrs. Vallery for the good time had. Those present were:

Misses Isabella Young, Edith Lareue, Loretta Carroll, Esther Ray, Oglia Winford, Villa Gapen, Bessie Brendell, Leola Vallery, Margie Vallery, Ruth Thomason, Anna Snyder, Mildred Snyder, Vera Yardly, Willa Moore; Messrs. Be sure and hear Mrs. Mellinger at the Christian church Saturday evening. Good music will be rendered by the young people of the church.

Farewell Surprise.

A few friends of Mr. and Mrs. Nick Klaurens gathered at their home last Wednesday evening for a farewell surprise. Various games were played and enjoyed by all. A dainty lunch was served during the evening. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Carroll and Loretta and Mrs. B. Berger, Mr. and Mrs. R. Young, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Spangler, Margaret and Everett; Mr. and Mrs. James Brown, Mrs. John Campbell, Mrs. Wm. Henricks, of Plainview; Mrs. B. F. Brendell, Mrs. J. F. Brendell, Mrs. Burdick, of Nehawka; Louisa and Ella Virgin, Mr. Virgin, sr., and Mr. and Mrs. Klaurens.

Obituary.

Sunday, at 2 p. m., at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Wheeler, the grand parents, was held the funeral services of little Mary Grace, aged 6 years, 1 month, 20 days, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Batterson. She died at 7 o'clock Saturday morning at her home at Nebraska City, after an illness of only three days. She was taken with a severe attack of biliousness, when she was seized with convulsions and died in a few moments. Little Mary Grace was a very bright little girl and loved by all. She visited in this city a number of times with her grand parents and made many friends.

The funeral services were conducted by Elder P. A. Field, of the Seventh Day Adventist church, of Omaha, assisted by the Rev. Hill, of the Christian church at Murray.

Special music was rendered by the choir from Liberty Chapel. The pall bearers were the aunts and uncles of their beloved little Mary. They were Lillian Wheeler, Marie Wheeler, Joe Wheeler and Albert Wheeler.

MRS. T. W. VALLERY PASSES MILESTONE

A Large Number of Friends Assist Her in Remembering the Event.

Mrs. T. W. Vallery was fifty years old last Saturday, and the event was most joyfully and pleasantly remembered by herself and family and many of her friends. The Vallery home is situated three miles northwest of Murray, and some time before the dinner hour the participants in the celebration began to arrive, and a happy throng it was by the time they all got there. After dinner was over (and, oh, my, what a sumptuous repast it was) the balance of the day was spent in pleasantries of various kinds, and when the parting hour came, it was with much regret, as the event was one that will be long remembered, not only by the hostess but by all present. On leaving everyone did so with the wish that Mrs. Vallery might live to enjoy many more such events, and that she will live to attain a ripe old age.

Those who were present to assist Mrs. Vallery in this memorable event were: Mesdames T. W. Vallery, Thomason, Rusterholtz, Rummel, Molly Vallery, Snyder, Wiles, Steve Beckman, Henry Long, Frank Young, Bert Satchell, Glen Rhoden, D. C. Rhoden, Georgia Creamer, Jessie Smith, Wheeler, Geo. Rhoden, Frank Rhoden, Alex Rhoden, Glen Vallery, Joe Cook, B. F. Brendell, J. F. Brendell, Albert Wheeler, Mrs. Meek Davis, Chas. Tilson; Misses Bessie Brendell, Isabelle Young, Tessie Stokes and Lena Davis.

BEEFSTEAK DINNER AT THE HOME OF PROF. ASCH

The members of the Birthday club chartered a carryall Saturday at noon and drove to the pretty home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Asch, near Murray. The occasion of this was the birthday anniversary of Miss Dora Fricke, a member of the club. Just before they reached the Asch home, the entire company covered their faces with masks and turned their coats inside out, consequently when they made their appearance they were not recognized by the host and hostess at first. However, they were invited into the house and some time was spent in finding out whom they might be, some not being recognized until their masks had been removed.

After the masks had been removed, a social time was enjoyed which made the time pass all too rapidly. At early candle light the ladies were invited to the dining room, where a delicious beefsteak dinner was served and which the ladies found delightfully appetizing and pleasant. It is needless to say aught about the dinner as it had been prepared by Mrs. Asch and was prepared as the hostess, only, knows how. Other dainty dishes had been prepared and were most temptingly served and, also, thoroughly relished. Whenever invited to the Asch home, the ladies always expect a fine time and expectations were fully realized in the entertainment afforded them Saturday afternoon. The ladies returned to their homes in the evening about nine o'clock.

Those in attendance were: Mesdames Ben Elson, of Los Angeles, Calif.; Edith Donelan, Will Clement, Anna Britt, Henry Harold, C. G. Fricke, James Donnelly; Misses Mia and Barbara Gerling, Maude Mason, Verna Leonard, Julia Herman and Dora Fricke.

POPULAR PEOPLE UNITED FOR LIFE

Mr. John Vallery and Miss Margaret Livingstone Married at Nebraska City.

For some time this community has been on the lookout for something in the matrimonial line to happen, and Wednesday morning the prospective bride and groom, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Brendell, might have been observed wending their way to the depot to take the train for Nebraska City, where the young couple were married. By whom the ceremony was performed, we did not learn. They returned on the evening train, and when stepping off, they were met with a shower of rice. The happy couple are Mr. John Vallery and Miss Margaret Livingstone.

The bride and groom are both popular young people, and were reared in Cass county. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Livingstone, and a young lady of fine accomplishments and charming manners. The groom is a young man of excellent qualities, and a son of Jacob Vallery, one of the wealthy and most prosperous farmers and stockmen in Cass county, and very popular among all who know him. Their marital career will no doubt be a happy and prosperous one, as they belong to two among the best families of the community in which they were reared.

We understand they will make their home upon one of the farms of the groom's father. They have a large circle of friends who will join the Journal in extending congratulations and with the hope as down the pathway of Time they glide the same may be strewn with the sweetest and choicest flowers.

Reaching the Top

In any calling of life, demands a vigorous body and a keen brain. Without health there is no success. But Electric Bitters is the greatest Health Builder the world has ever known. It compels perfect action of stomach, liver, kidneys, bowels, purifies and enriches the blood, tones and invigorates the whole system and enables you to stand the wear and tear of your daily work. "After months of suffering from Kidney Trouble," writes W. M. Sherman, of Cushing, Mo., "three bottles of Electric Bitters made me feel like a new man." 50c at F. G. Fricke & Co's.

John Campbell, of Murray, was in the city on business yesterday afternoon.

HON. M. A. BATES

MY PLATFORM.

I stand firmly on the democratic platform.

I am against county option, because it is simply a stepping-stone to statewide prohibition.

I favor the present Slocumb law and its strict enforcement.

I am pledged to vote for the people's choice for United States senator.

I am in favor of the initiative and referendum.

I am in favor of good roads, and will favor an amendment to the present road law that will lead to better roads.

I ask that my republican opponent state to the voters of Otoe and Cass where he stands on these questions.

I respectfully solicit the votes of all who agree with me upon these questions.

Depart for Idaho.

H. R. Neitzel and wife and children departed this afternoon for Boise, Idaho, via Omaha. Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Guthman accompanied them to Omaha, to see them off. Mr. Neitzel shipped a carload of furniture to Boise some time ago and will be absent from this country for a year or more. He has left Mr. Henry Guthman in charge of the Murdock bank, and will take his time in the disposition of some important business at Boise.

"The Wolf" Tonight.

Those who fail to go to the Parmeletheatre tonight will fail to witness one of the best plays ever rendered in this city. "The Wolf" will also be played by one of the best companies that ever visited Plattsmouth, every member of which is a professional actor, and you can bet your bottom dollar that "The Wolf" will be properly presented. The house should be well filled. Be sure and be there early in order to secure a good seat.
