FRIENDS SURPRISE MR. CHAS. PERRY

Occasion of His Thirty-first Birthday Observed by Friends.

Last Friday occurred the 31st birthday anniversary of Chas. Perry, and in the evening a large number of friends assembled at his home to assist him in remembering the day. At about 8:30 o'clock the crowd walked in, unannounced, and succeeded in completely surprising both Mr. and Mrs. Perry, who soon recovered and made the guests welcome.

The perfectly delightful evening passed all too quickly with games and social conversation. Misses Oldham and Perry each gave some choice readings which were much appreciated. At the proper hour a two-course luncheon, which had been prepared by the ladies, added greatly to the pleasures of the evening. A fine rocking chair was presented to Mr. Perry as a token of remembrance.

It was late when the guests departed, regretting that this is the last event of this kind in which they may participate at the Perry home, as Mr. Perry with his family expects to soon move to the farm which they recently purchased, near Malcolm, but wishing them many happy birthdays in their new home.

Those present were: Mrs. S. G. Ueland, of Arlington; Mrs. Maud Buell, of Omaha; Mr. and Mrs. Ivy McCrory, of Murdock; Mrs. Ma Cole, Mrs. Addie Stokes, Mrs. Joe Cook, Mrs. S. O. Cole; Messrs. and Messdames Albert Wheeler, Chas. Long, Joe Wiles, Earl Cole, Will Richardson, O. A. Davis, Glenn Perry, J. F. Brendel, Frank Marler, S. A. Barker, C. D. Spangler, Ran Winford, Sam Pitman, Verner Perry, Roy Howard, Ray Davis, Lloyd Gopen, Oscar Gopen, Ed. Beins and Charles Perry; Misses Pauline Oldham, Nell Cook, Nancie Perry, Margaret Spangler, Villa Gopen, Elsie Gopen, Bessie Brendel, Mae Barker, Glenna Barker, Edith Beins, Edna Perry, Edna McCrory, Lila McCrory, Gertrude Cole, Hazel Davis, Marie Davis; Messrs. Francis Cook, Oliver Gopen, Chas. Edwards, Lee Cole, Roy Cole, Albert Young, Will Seybolt, Virgil Perry, Russell Perry, Owen Perry, Everett Spangler and Maurice McCrory.

John Scheel and wife and two children, of South Bend, were in the city today looking after business matters. Mr. Scheel is one of the valued friends of the Journal, and a successful farmer and stock raiser, and a gentleman whom it is a pleasure to meet.

GRANT BLUNT IS DECLARED GUILTY

So Says the Jury After Nearly
Two Days in Taking Evidence.

The case of the state against Grant Blunt was concluded yesterday afternoon, having dragged along for a day and a half in getting the evidence for and against the state's case. The jury was out about one hour when it brought in a verdict for the state and against the prisoner. The accused was charged with grand larceny and not with burglary, the information alleging that the value of the goods stolen was "thirty-five dollars and upwards." When the verdict was read, after the jury had filed in to the box, after its deliberations, the verdict was opened by the clerk and handed to the court, who glanced over it and observed that the jury had found the value of the goods to be $120.00, or thereabouts, which value had not been proven. Judge Travis then sent the jury back and instructed them to find the value of the property as charged in the information. This was the work of but a short time when a verdict of guilty was returned into court and the jury discharged until nine o'clock this morning.

The verdict meets the approval of all who heard the evidence, as the accused has an unsavory reputation, having just prior to returning to Plattsmouth, completed a term in the military prison for desertion from the army. His career as a criminal began early, and before he arrived at the age qualifying him for the penitentiary, he was sent to the reform school for delinquencies the law could not wink at.

The defendant will have the usual three days to file a motion for a new trial, before sentence will be passed on him.

FOR CONSTIPATION

Here Are the Facts We Want
You to Prove at Our Risk.

The active medicinal ingredients of Rexall Orderlies, which are odorless, tasteless and colorless, is an entirely new discovery. Combined with other extremely valuable ingredients, it forms a perfect bowel regulator, intestinal invigorator and strengthener. Rexall Orderlies are eaten like candy and are notable for their agreeableness to the palate and gentleness of action. They do not cause griping or any disagreeable effect or inconvenience.

Unlike other preparations for a like purpose, they do not create a habit, but instead they overcome the cause of habit acquired through the use of ordinary laxatives, cathartics and harsh physic, and permanently remove the cause of constipation or irregular bowel action.

We will refund your money without argument if they do not do as we say they will. Two sizes, 25c. and 10c. Sold only at our store—The Rexall Store, F. F. Fricke & Co., Union Block.

Funeral of Mrs. Holmes.

From Wednesday's Daily. The funeral of Mrs. Marietta Holmes, whose death was mentioned in the Journal last evening, occurred today at 1:30 from the First Presbyterian church of this city, of which Mrs. Holmes was for many years a member.

The funeral service was conducted by Rev. L. W. Gade, pastor of the church, and was very simple and impressive, no music whatever entered into the service, and Rev. Gade spoke from the words of Christ to his disciples, Where I am, there ye may be also. The remarks of Rev. Gade were commendatory of the Christian life of the deceased, and were full of comfort to the bereaved children present, the speaker paying a high tribute to her traits of noble character. The large congregation assembled in the church to take a last look at one beloved and highly esteemed.

The pall bearers were George Tartsch, George Weldman, D. C. Morgan, Bert Pollock, B. A. McElwain and C. A. Marshall.

Among the out of town relatives attending the funeral were D. Hiatt and daughter, Miss Lovy, Stephen Hiatt and Mrs. Reuben Hiatt, all of Sidney, Iowa.

I. S. White, of Murray; I. S. Holmes and wife, Samuel Hinkle and wife, Walter Holmes and Gus Hyers, of Havelock, were also present.

Mrs. Agnew and her daughter, Miss Majorie, who have visited Mrs. Agnew's mother, Mrs. C. H. Parmele, and other relatives in Plattsmouth and vicinity for a time, departed for their home at Los Angeles, California, this afternoon.

REMINISCENCES OF PIONEER CITIZEN OF MILLS COUNTY

William Burger Relates Some Interesting Facts About Life Along the Oregon Trail in Early Days.

William Burger, who was here last week visiting his brother, A. H. Burger of Glenwood, and his sister, Mrs. Thomas Young, of Hastings, told the Tribune man some interesting facts about his life. He was an early day resident of Mills county, and came here with his parents from Missouri in 1849, when he was five years old.

In 1860, when a lad only 16 years of age, he joined the great throng of emigrants who were pouring across the plains into Colorado and other western states, where rich discoveries of gold and silver were constantly being made. For six months he was a teamster in Uncle Sam's regular army in Colorado, and, during the early part of the civil war, he freighted across the plains between Omaha and Denver.

Mr. Burger can relate many interesting incidents of those days. He became acquainted with many of the famous scouts, soldiers and plainsmen of that period. He was in several lively skirmishes with the Indians, and for a period of two years during the latter part of the war was compelled to return to Mills county and wait until the Indians quieted down enough so that it would be safe to return to his family.

For the past 45 years Mr. Burger has lived in Hall county, not far from Grand Island, Neb. He has a large ranch near Doniphan, and is the owner of the largest general merchandise store in that thriving little city. He is one of the early day pioneers in that region. He has seen the country develop from a vast region of prairie grass to finely improved and modernly equipped farms. The automobile and rural mail wagon now operate where once the Indians and the buffalo roamed at will.

Mr. Burger, for a half dozen years before the advent of the railroad, kept a stage station, inn and general store at his ranch. All his supplies were hauled from Plattsmouth, 160 miles distant. Some idea may be had of the extent of his business at that time when it is known that he had a stable that would hold 300 horses.

The famous Oregon trail, which followed along the south side of the Platte river and through a portion of his land, was a great highway along which thousands of teams passed. This quite naturally brought him much trade and enabled him to build up a big business.

Speaking of the Oregon trail, Mr. Burger says he can still see evidences of its existence on his land after more than 40 years of non-use. It was a great pathway across the plains. In places it would be a half mile in width, then at other points it would narrow down to 50 or 100 yards.

This trail was traversed for a score of years before the coming of the railroad. The tramping that it received from the thousands of emigrant trains and heavy freight wagons, hauled as they were by long lines of oxen or mules, churned the soil into dust. Wind storms would carry this dust away, leaving irregular ditches and depressions and removing the valuable top soil.

Mr. Burger says that it has taken years to get this land back to its original fertility, and he has had to use great quantities of fertilizer to restore the strength of the soil. He has heretofore been able to trace the old trail through his land not only by the depression that it made but by the scantier crops it produced.—Glenwood Tribune.

IT GROWS HAIR

A Medicine That Does Not Cost
Anything Unless It Cures.

Marvelous as it may seem, Rexall "93" Hair Tonic has grown hair on heads that were once bald. Of course, in none of these cases were the hair roots dead, nor had the scalp taken on a glazed, shiny appearance.

Rexall "93" Hair Tonic acts scientifically, destroying the germs which are usually responsible for baldness. It penetrates to the roots of the hair, stimulating and nourishing them. It is a most pleasant toilet necessity, is delicately perfumed, and will not gum or permanently stain the hair.

We want you to get a bottle of Rexall "93" Hair Tonic and use it as directed. If it does not relieve scalp irritation, remove dandruff, prevent the hair from falling out and promote an increased growth of hair, and in every way give entire satisfaction, simply come back and tell us, and without question or formality we will hand back to you every penny you paid us for it. Two sizes, 50c. and $1.00. Sold only at our store—The Rexall Store, F. F. Fricke & Co., Union Block.

Want Voting Place Changed.

Residents on sections 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11 and 17, in Greenwood Precinct, filed a petition with the county commissioners prior to their meeting of yesterday, asking that their polling place be changed from Alvo to Greenwood. The petition was laid over until some later date.

The commissioners also received a communication from the First National Bank of Elmwood asking leave to withdraw their present depository bond and file a new one, and raise the interest rate paid by the bank for county money, from 2 to 2½ per cent. An order was made to allow the old bond to be withdrawn when a new bond was filed and approved, and increasing the rate of interest on county funds.
