NOTICE OF PROPOSITION TO VOTE

SPECIAL TAX.

The electors of the County of Cass, in the State of Nebraska, will take notice that at the general election to be held on the 8th day of November, A. D. 1910, the proposition of levying a special tax of 2 1/2 mills on the full valuation on all taxable property of Cass County for the purpose of building a county jail will be submitted to a vote of the people. The proposition is set forth in the following resolution, to-wit:

BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of County Commissioners of the County of Cass and the State of Nebraska, in regular adjourned session assembled this 4th day of October, A. D. 1910, that for the purpose of obtaining authority by a vote of the electors of Cass County, Nebraska, to levy and collect a special tax on all taxable property in said county for the purpose of building a county jail at the city of Plattsmouth, in said county and state, the question and proposition of levying and collecting a special tax for said purpose be submitted to the legal voters of Cass County in the State of Nebraska, at the general election to be held November 8th A. D. 1910.

That said question and proposition so to be submitted is in words and figures as follows:

Shall the Board of County Commissioners of Cass County, Nebraska, or other person or persons, charged by law with the levying of taxes for said county, for the time being, in order to the annual taxes, cause to be levied a special tax of 2 1/2 mills on the full valuation on all taxable property of said county for the purpose of building a county jail at the City of Plattsmouth, Cass County, Nebraska, taking such action as the requirements of the law and the provisions of the statutes in such cases made and provided, and the interests of said county and public may demand, said special tax to be levied and collected one year and one year only.

PROVIDED That said special tax of 2 1/2 mills be levied at the time of making the regular levy of general taxes to be used in 1911, and be entered upon the tax lists for that year, and collected in the same manner as other taxes; and that proceedings shall commence for the erection of the said jail as soon after the authority is obtained from the said electors as is possible under the law and provisions of the statutes in such cases made and provided, and be continued without unnecessary delay until the same shall be completed.

That said question and proposition above set forth shall be submitted to a vote of the legal voters of said county in the following form and manner, that is to say, the form of the ballots to be used at such election in favor of said question and proposition shall be as follows:

"I vote for the levy and collection of a special tax for the purpose of building a county jail."

And the form of the ballots to be used at such election against said question and proposition shall be as follows:

"I vote against the levy and collection of a special tax for the purpose of building a county jail."

C. R. Jordan,
Chairman Board of County Commissioners.

Attest:
D. C. Morgan, County Clerk.

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT.

The following proposed amendment to the constitution of the State of Nebraska, as hereinafter set forth in full, is submitted to the electors of the State of Nebraska, to be voted upon at the general election to be held Tuesday, November 8th, A. D. 1910.

A JOINT RESOLUTION to amend Section one (1) of Article seven of the Constitution of the State of Nebraska.

Be it Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Nebraska:

Section 1. (Who are electors.) Every male citizen of the United States, of the age of twenty-one years, who shall have been a resident of this state six months next preceding the election and the electors of the state for the term provided by law be an elector; provided, That persons of foreign birth who shall have declared their intention to become citizens conformably to the laws of the United States and are voting at the taking effect of this amendment, may continue to exercise the right of suffrage until such time as they may have resided in the United States five years after which they shall take full citizenship papers to be taken to vote at any succeeding election.

Section 2. (Ballots.) That at the general election nineteen hundred and ten (1910) there shall be submitted to the electors of the state for their approval or rejection the foregoing proposed amendment to the constitution relating to the right of suffrage. At such election, on the ballot of each elector voting for or against said proposed amendment, shall be written or printed the words: "For proposed amendment to the constitution relating to the right of suffrage," and "Against said proposed amendment to the constitution relating to the right of suffrage."

Section 3. (Adoption.) If such an amendment be approved by a majority of all electors voting at such election, said amendment shall constitute section one (1) of article seven of the constitution of the State of Nebraska.

Approved April 1, 1909.
J. George C. Junkin, Secretary of State, of the State of Nebraska do hereby certify that the foregoing proposed amendment to the Constitution of the State of Nebraska is a true and correct copy of the original enrolled and engrossed bill, as passed by the thirty-first session of the legislature of the State of Nebraska, as appears from said original bill on file in this office, and that said proposed amendment is submitted to the qualified voters of the State of Nebraska for their adoption or rejection at the general election to be held on Tuesday, the 8th day of November, A. D. 1910.

In Testimony Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the great seal of the State of Nebraska, Done at Lincoln this 29th day of July, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Nine Hundred and Ten, and of the Independence of the United States the One Hundred and Thirty-fifth, and of this State the Forty-fourth.
