RICHARD POISAL TAKEN TO OMAHA

Condition Grows Worse and An Operation Will be Performed

Richard Poisal was carried to the train this morning on a cot by D. C. Morgan, William Bratner, George Poisal, Jr., and Barney Bardwell. The patient was not improved any from yesterday, his pulse was 102 and only a portion of the time was he conscious. He slept some during the night, but not until quieted with a hyperdermic. In his sleep he talked almost incessantly. His father, Geo. Poisal, sr., and sister, Mrs. Chandler, and Dr. E. W. Cook accompanied Richard to the Methodist hospital, where he will undergo an operation at once. Richard signified his willingness to go to the hospital and go through the ordeal of an operation if his father said that was the thing to do.

The operation will be performed by Dr. Gifford, who is an expert on similar troubles to Richard's. Richard's condition is critical, and unless relief is had very soon, there is small chance for his recovery. The patient has only been ill since last Saturday, and up to that time had been doing odd jobs at the News-Herald office. Saturday morning he sent his smaller brother to take his place, saying that the boil on his neck was too painful for him to work. Sunday he was unable to stir around much, and Monday his symptoms began to alarm the family and the doctor was called, and his very serious condition discovered. It is hoped that Dr. Gifford's skill may result in immediate relief and save Richard's life.

Vote for W. H. Pils for representative.

Returns From Visit.

Mrs. Anna Geiser, residing on North Fourth street, who has been absent visiting relatives for the past seven weeks, returned a few days ago. Mrs. Geiser first went to Chicago, Illinois, where she visited her aunt, Mrs. Hass, and other relatives. From Chicago she returned to Missouri Valley, Iowa, and visited friends for a time, and from there she went to North Bend, Nebraska, where she visited her daughter, Mrs. Andrews, for a few days, returning to Omaha, where she spent some time with friends, then came to her home in this city. Mrs. Geiser has been one of the Journal's valued readers for several years, and has ordered this family necessity again left at her door.

Vote for M. A. Bates for representative for Otoe and Cass counties.

Will Open Pool Hall.

Mr. W. R. Taylor, who is to open a pool hall in the Coates block within a few days, has received a part of his goods and expects the balance to arrive as fast as he can place them. Mr. Taylor will open up with five tables and a lot of new furniture which he is having unloaded today. The work of setting the tables up and getting things arranged is considerable and will take some time, but Mr. Taylor hopes to be ready for the opening next Saturday.

There is little danger from a cold or from an attack of the grip except when followed by pneumonia, and this never happens when Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is used. This remedy has won its great reputation and extensive sale by its remarkable cures of colds and grip and can be relied upon with implicit confidence. For sale by F. G. Fricke & Co.

Departs For Coast.

"I do not believe there is any other medicine so good for whooping cough as Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," writes Mrs. Francis Turpin, Junction City, Oregon. This remedy is also unsurpassed for colds and croup. For sale by F. G. Fricke & Co.

Vote for C. E. Metzger for representative.

WEDDING AT BOHEMIAN CATHOLIC CHURCH TODAY

A pretty wedding occurred this morning at the Bohemian Catholic church at 10 o'clock when Rev. Vleck, pastor of the church, joined in the holy bands of wedlock, Mr. John P. Szezepaniak and Miss Helen Szezkowski. It was originally intended that Father Shine should perform the ceremony, and the bans were announced from his pulpit, but owing to the fact that Father Shine was unexpectedly called out of the city, Father Vleck kindly consented to officiate for Rev. Shine. Mr. Leo Jankowski, of Omaha, was best man and Miss Rose Thomas, of this city, was bride's maid. The solemn ring service of the Roman church was used by the officiating priest and was most impressive.

After the ceremony at the church the happy couple entered a carriage and were driven to the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Szezkowski, in South Park, where a splendid reception was held in honor of the bride.

After receiving the congratulations of the invited guests, the wedding party was conducted to the dining room where the bride's mother with able assistants served a delicious wedding dinner.

The happy young couple were the recipients of many beautiful and costly presents useful and ornamental.

The wedding festivities began last evening and will continue over today and tomorrow. Last evening a delightful dancing party was given by the bride's parents in honor of the event, and this evening a grand ball with brilliant music will crown the day.

Tomorrow the party will continue the festivities at the home of the groom's parents in Omaha.

The contracting parties have a large circle of friends in Plattsmouth and Omaha, who wish them a successful voyage through life.

The bride is the daughter of one of Plattsmouth's old time citizens, Mr. Szezkowski having resided here for more than twenty years. His daughter, the bride, now Mrs. Szezepaniak, was educated in the schools of our city, having graduated at St. John's Academy. Mr. Szezepaniak is a rising young street car conductor of Omaha, and highly respected in his community and stands high with his company and with his associates in the metropolis. The Journal joins with the many friends of this happy couple in extending congratulations and best wishes for their future prosperity.

The Omaha friends attending the wedding were George Sudyaka, wife and family; Louis Domanski, wife and family; Leo Szezepaniak and wife and family, brother of the groom, and Albert Szezepaniak, father of the groom. In all there were about fifty invited guests.

Next Tuesday is election.

NEW STORY OF ILL-FATED MAINE

Spanish Fanatic Destroyed Battleship, Says Colonel Brady.

REPORT MADE TO PRESIDENT.

Was Member of Board of Officers Sent to Cuba—Electrician Employed in Morro Castle Alleged to Have Exploded Submarine Mine.

Kansas City, Nov. 2.—That Jose Zavaldo, a Spanish electrician, working in Morro castle, and probably a fanatic, was responsible for the destruction of the battleship Maine, was the statement made here by Colonel Joseph E. Brady.

Colonel Brady says he was one of a committee of four men who investigated the explosion and reported their findings to President McKinley.

"Of course I did not see this man turn on the switch which set free the powerful mines that caused the disaster," said the colonel, "but the evidence in the case pointed directly to his guilt. Three other army officers, whose names I do not care to give, and myself, reported to the president that in our belief Zavaldo was responsible. He was later executed upon the command of General Blanco. None, however, was ever to learn for what reason."

Colonel Brady, in an address at St. George's church here, discussed the Maine disaster and attributed it to a submarine mine explosion. His statement brought forth denials from Washington, among other things being that no military board had been appointed to investigate the case. Colonel Brady explained that the board never convened to make its report, but reported individually to the president. Colonel Brady was quoted as saying in his address that Cubans were responsible for the disaster. He denied that he made such a statement. Colonel Brady is a brother of Rev. Cyrus Townsend Brady, rector of St. George's church and author.

Auto and Wrecked Buggy in Court.

New York, Nov. 3.—The doors of the supreme court room were taken down and a big sixty-horsepower automobile, the front badly battered and bent, was pushed inside. A wrecked buggy was next carried through the door and when these two unusual exhibits had been placed in front of the bench, the trial of Edward Rosenheimer, for the murder of Miss Grace Hough, was resumed. It is charged that Rosenheimer, a wealthy needle manufacturer, ran down Miss Hough with the machine as she was driving along Pelham parkway Aug. 18.

Lord Morley Resigns Post.

London, Nov. 3.—It is said that Viscount Morley has resigned the office of secretary of state for India and the fact he declines information on the subject is accepted as confirmation of the report of his retirement.

PLATTSMOUTH YOUNG PEOPLE ARE MARRIED

Henry Timm, of the Goos Hotel, and Miss Anna O'Neill, of Plattsmouth, were quietly married at Nebraska City Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock, at the residence of the bride's sister, Mrs. Thomas Kastner. The marriage ceremony was performed by Dr. F. M. Sisson, of the First Methodist church of that city, and was witnessed by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Kastner and by Mr. Kastner's brother, James Kastner. The bride and groom returned to Plattsmouth last evening and will make their home at the Plattsmouth hotel.

Both of the contracting parties are popular Plattsmouth young people, the groom being the step-son of Mr. Peter Goos, proprietor of the Hotel Plattsmouth, and an industrious, honorable young gentleman, who has resided in this city most of his life. He learned the blacksmith trade in the Burlington shops, but the smoke and other disagreeable features of the trade were too much for Mr. Timm's health and he embarked in other business. He was two years in the west, since which he has been with his step-father, Mr. Goos. The bride is the accomplished daughter of W. A. O'Neill, of this city, and has a large circle of young friends with whom she is popular. The Journal joins the many friends of this happy young couple in wishing them long life and a prosperous future.

Nutzman all appear in the bulletin sent out by that organization, as being in favor of county option. Be sure and vote for W. B. Banning, M. A. Bates, C. E. Metzger and W. H. Pils.
