manager of the Majestic theatre, has materially to the artistic appearance of the theatre. Mr. Shlaes is one of those enterprising men who believes in adding to the comfort and pleasure of his patrons whenever opportunity affords.

The curtain was designed and principally executed by Plattsmouth's artest, Mr. Frank Gobelman, whose fame for skill in such work has extended to surrounding cities. The design Mr. Gobelman secured from his dealer in Omaha, having paid $5.00 for the use of the copy which he has so skillfully transferred to the canvass with brush and paint in fresco colors.

A Big Land Deal.

Silas Long, who recently sold one of his Cass county farms for $125 per acre, has purchased through the Windham Investment Co., 240 acres of fine Gage county land at a consideration of $17,200. One tract is under cultivation and the other is a hay proposition. Mr. Long is highly

From Friday's Daily. Philip Thierolf, H. A. Schneider, J. P. Falter and Bert Pollock, the building committee of the Plattsmouth Realty Company, went to Omaha this afternoon to consult the architect about the plans of the new building. About tomorrow the committee will be ready to receive bids from parties who care for the job. The building will be built as speedily as possible.

Material Begins to Arrive.

The first carload of brick for the new government bullding arrived today from Kansas and is being unloaded by McMaken & Son. The material will come along now as fast as it can be unloaded and next week the work will be commenced on the foundation.
