

Conserving Our Forests.

Preserve Against Waste. Protect From Fire.

By JOHN A. DIX, Leader of New York State Democrats.

WE hear occasionally that timber is getting "farther back" and more expensive, but as soon as the demand is keen the means of penetrating to the supply do not deter the lumbermen from obtaining the trees. The sawmills have deemed it important to utilize thin saws instead of converting an unwarrantable amount of good material into sawdust.

This tendency to economize in the manufacture of lumber is the suggestion that the end is in sight. Thoughtful people who are interested in forest lands as well as those who derive an income from the products of the forests are giving heed to the REFORESTING OF LANDS which have contributed to the demands of civilization.

If an economical wood preservative will add 50 per cent to the efficiency of timber the demands on the forest will be correspondingly decreased, and those who use as well as those who provide are much interested in the progress of this feature in the bureau of forestry.

We do not anticipate and practice these economies because timber has been ABUNDANT. We are, however, passing through a period of transition, and the admirable work of the bureau of forestry in co-operating with the different states to achieve results which will mark a new epoch in forestry will be to the lasting benefit of future generations.

Along with the accomplishment of reforestation we should not be unmindful of the TREMENDOUS WASTE AND PERMANENT DESTRUCTION OF THE SOIL RESULTING FROM FOREST FIRES. Concerted action must be insured for the CAREFUL WATCHING AND SUCCESSFUL PREVENTING OF FIRES IN THE FORESTS.

PRIVATE OWNERS OF TIMBERLAND SHOULD BE ENCOURAGED TO PLANT ANNUALLY AS COMPENSATION FOR THE REMOVAL OF TREES, FOR THE RESEEDING OF BURNED LANDS, AND THUS MAKE A BEGINNING TO RESTORE THE NATURAL CONDITIONS OF THE SOIL.

"Don't Marry a Girl Who Doesn't Dress In Style."

By the Rev. HERBERT S. JOHNSON of Boston.

HERE is no more potent influence for good in the modern community today than feminine fashion. Not only are the ever changing fashions of women ONE OF THE CHIEF DELIGHTS OF CIVILIZED COMMUNITIES, but it is a safe statement to make that we have today no more CONCLUSIVE KEY TO A WOMAN'S MENTAL AND MORAL DEVELOPMENT THAN THE CLOTHES SHE WEARS.

Much has been said of the high cost of living. The immense sums of money spent annually in this country on apparently useless articles of women's personal decoration are cited as arguments in favor of American extravagance, when as a matter of fact this ITEM IS ONE OF OUR SMALLEST NATIONAL EXTRAVAGANCES. A girl or woman who is self respecting WILL ALWAYS DRESS FASHIONABLY AND WELL. The hobble skirt, the peach basket hat, high heeled shoes and all the thousand and one foibles of the feminine sex are entertaining and products of good.

A GIRL WHO, ON THE OTHER HAND, DOES NOT CARE ABOUT DRESS AND LATEST FASHIONS IS NOT A NORMAL GIRL. THE YOUNG MAN WHO CONTEMPLATES MARRIAGE NOWADAYS MAY FIGHT SHY OF THE GIRL OF FASHION, BUT HE MAKES A MISTAKE. HE MAY BE A GAINER AT FIRST FINANCIALLY, BUT IN THE END HE PAYS A TERRIBLE PRICE FOR HIS SHORTSIGHTEDNESS. THE GIRL WHO IS LAX ABOUT HER PERSONAL APPEARANCE IS LAX MENTALLY AND MORALLY.

She is not made of the stuff that turns out self respecting children. She is either a visionary and as such an unreliable element in a community or she is downright LAX AND SHIFTLESS. In either case she is NOT A SAFE PROPOSITION FOR THE ORDINARY YOUNG MAN.

Home Rule For Ireland Is at Last In Sight.

By JOHN REDMOND, Irish Statesman.

THE time has come when the house of lords is to be shorn of its power. It's going to take place immediately, and that means that HOME RULE IS GUARANTEED TO THE IRISH.

THE HOME RULE THAT THE IRISH FEEL CERTAIN THEY ARE GOING TO GET WILL BE JUST WHAT GLADSTONE WISHED US TO HAVE—A GOVERNMENT SIMILAR TO THAT WHICH EVERY STATE IN THE UNITED STATES ENJOYS.

The house of lords has been opposing every bit of reform that came before it for so long that the entire English people have taken up the fight. It is not the fight of the Irish against the house of lords any more. It is the FIGHT OF THE WHOLE NATION AGAINST THE BODY. The result is that the power that this body has enjoyed for centuries is to be taken away from it. The instant that is done IRISH HOME RULE WILL BECOME AN ACCOMPLISHED FACT.

Today we have a majority of 124 votes in the house of commons, and when the obstacle of the upper house is wiped out we will have accomplished our most cherished hope.

Daughter Located.

Several weeks ago Miss Elsie, daughter of S. J. James, working in a South Omaha home, disappeared, and although a search was instituted by the police, and members of the family, no trace of her was found. She left the house without taking her hat or any clothes except those she wore. Mr. James received word Monday from his daughter, Alma, that she had found her sister in Missouri Valley, Iowa, located in a hospital and very sick. Her condition at present is improved, but the doctors had held out no hope for days of her recovery. A notice appearing in a paper stated that a fifteen-year-old girl who had been working in a restaurant at Missouri Valley was taken very sick and removed to the hospital. She refused to disclose her name, or where her parents lived. On reading the notice, Miss Alma James surmised it was her sister and went over to see. She found her, not only sick, but it seems a young man living at Missouri Valley, had become infatuated with the girl and they had been married, and now it is Mrs. Elsie Martin. Mr. James departed Tuesday morning to see his daughter.

Muchly Disappointed.

R. G. Clizbe returned home from Oklahoma last Sunday. He thought he owned a half section of land near Wagoner, but through a defective title in which some exceedingly fine work appears to have been done, he finds that another party had a deed to the same land. They concluded to divide and now each owns a quarter section and both have experience with Indian lands, whose title was vested in an Indian maiden.—Weeping Water Republican.
