MPROVING our business is is one of the things we give constant thought and labor to.

Not merely increasing the volume of our salesthat may or may not be an improvement. There's something more in business than merely making money out of it.

If we couldn't render this community a service by conducting this store we'd get out of the business.

Just now we're seiling a great many high and convertable collar overcoats from $15 to $22.50, mostly grays, tans and browns. These values are good enough to make us life long friends.

Step in some day this week, we'll treat you right; won't make you feel that you have to buy.

A quiet wedding was celebrated this morning by Rev. L. W. Gade, pastor of the Presbyterian church, at his residence on North Third street. when he united in marriage, late Senator Dolliver. Mr. Elbert Cecil Trippand and Amy Breeze Christie, both of South Omaha. The young people were accompanied by the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Christie. Hartigan will also visit Plattsmouth at the same time and view the proposed site. The state militia will use the target range as well as the United States troops, and General Hartigan will be consulted before the final selection is made. The fact that General Hartigan is a former Plattsmouth citizen leads us to hope the general will not be averse to casting his vote for this point.

Remainder of Republican State Ticket Elected by Big Majorities-Legislature Republican and Progressives Claim Control of Party Caucus.

Des Moines, Nov. 10.-It is certain now that Iowa elected all Republican state officials and that Governor Carroll will remain in office another term. The returns tabulated from practically every county in the state show that Carroll received about 12, 000 majority over Porter.

For half a day the Republicans had practically given it up, because it seemed from the early reports from the cities that the Carroll vote had been cut an immense amount. The remainder of the Republican state ticket has majorities ranging up to 50,000.
