FUNERAL OF THE LATE

ROBERT R. VIVIAN

Mr. Emmons and Lester Vivian, of Bayard, arrived at the Burlington station this morning on No. 6 with the remains of their father, Robert R. Vivian, who died at the residence of his son Lester, with whom Mr. Vivian, sr., had made his home for some time. The funeral took place from the station, Canon Burgess accompanying the funeral party to the cemetery, where a short service was held. The casket was opened at the station and the friends present viewed the remains of him whom they formerly knew well as a business man in this vicinity.

The deceased was born in England, coming to America with his uncle, at about the age of fourteen years and located in Wisconsin, where he was married. He came to Plattsmouth in 1868 and for a time was in business with Captain Palmer, they owning and conducting a grocery store. He left Plattsmouth in 1889, going to Bayard, where he has since resided. Mr. Vivian had been ailing for about a year, but was confined to his bed only a week before his death. He died at a good old age, being in his eighty-second year. His age at death was 81 years, 7 months and 17 days. The pall bearers were D. C. Morgan, Robert Sherwood, jr., James Sage, O. C. Dovey, C. H. Smith and W. K. Fox.

Mrs. C. R. Connor, of Shenandoah, Iowa, who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. E. O. Mullis, for a few days, departed for her home this morning, accompanied by Mrs. Mullis, who will visit Shenandoah friends for a time.

Here From Madison.

Fred and Ernest Meisinger from Madison, Nebraska, arrived in Plattsmouth yesterday evening for a few weeks' visit with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Meisinger, who are residents of this city. The young men expect to remain up to and including Christmas visiting among their relatives and friends at the old home. They report everything very prosperous in their new home, where they have lived for the past six years, removing from this county. Crops of all kinds made a pretty good average in that locality the past season, though it was very dry.

The quicker a cold is gotten rid of the less danger from pneumonia and other serious diseases. Mr. B. W. L. Hall, of Waverly, Va., says: "I firmly believe Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to be absolutely the best preparation on the market for colds. I have recommended it to my friends and they all agree with me." For sale by F. G. Fricke & Co.

Mr. Arthur R. Stander and Miss Clara Mary Metzger United in Marriage at the Home of the Bride

The elegant residence of Mrs. Mary Metzger at Cedar Creek was the scene of a beautiful home wedding yesterday afternoon when the daughter, Clara Mary, was united in marriage to Arthur R. Stander, of Louisville, Rev. Lew Wallace Gade being the officiating clergyman. At the appointed hour Miss Mamie Heil played Mendelssohn's Wedding March, the couple entering unattended, taking their places in the bay window at the end of one of the spacious parlors. Palms, ferns and gracefully falling curtain of smilax made a charming background. The bride was lovely in her pure white batiste gown with no ornaments but the shower bouquet of bride's roses and swansons, a small wreath being worn in the hair. The party stood under a large wedding bell of white and green, while Rev. Mr. Gade, using the impressive service of the Presbyterian church, made the twain one. The pianist played softly throughout the ceremony, and at the close while Lohengrin's Bridal Chorus pealed forth the family and invited guests offered hearty congratulations to the young couple, who are beginning their married life under most favorable auspices. The bride was a graduate of Plattsmouth High school and is known and loved by a large circle of friends in Plattsmouth as well as Cedar Creek, where she has lived from childhood. Mr. Stander belongs to a pioneer family in Cass county and is well known as a member of the firm of Stander Bros. at Louisville.

After all had expressed their good wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Stander the guests, numbering about sixty, were invited to the dining room to partake of a three-course dinner served from an elaborately and artistically decorated table, pink and white roses and ferns making a lovely centerpiece.

Alice Stander, Patty Mary Metzger, Lulu Heil and Emma Gauer assisted in serving.

A bounteous supply of rice went with the couple when they took their departure for Kansas City and other points in the South, expecting to be at home in Louisville after January 15th. Many beautiful presents of cut-glass, china, silver and fine linen will go with the bride to her new home, reminding her daily of the loving esteem in which she and her husband are held by the large circle of friends and relatives.

"I had been troubled with constipation for two years and tried all of the best physicians in Bristol, Tenn., and they could do nothing for me," writes Thos. E. Williams, Middleboro, Ky. "Two packages of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets cured me." For sale by F. G. Fricke & Co.

Departs for Canada.

Miss Manota Perry drove in from her home this morning, bringing her brother, Mr. John Perry to the Burlington station to take the train for his home, in Alberta, Canada. Miss Perry accompanied her brother as far as Omaha, where she had some business matters to look after. Her father, Mr. Peter Perry, is improving nicely and is able to come to the table for his meals.

John S. Vallery was in the city today looking after some business matters and while here he gave the Journal a pleasant call. Johnny was recently married to one of Cass county's fair daughters, and he thought that in order to keep peace in the household he would be compelled to have this great household necessity visit them twice-a-week, and accordingly became a patron of the Journal.

Abbott for County Superintendent.

Since Mr. King has been appointed to the School for the Blind it is now suggested that the county commissioners appoint Mr. Abbott to the office of county superintendent when the vacancy in the office occurs. The qualifications for this office require that the holder have a first-grade teacher's certificate. There are very few men in the county holding one of these certificates. Mr. Abbott is well known as a school man and his appointment to the county office would give general satisfaction we believe.

It is said that a number of women hold these certificates, but it is also said that the board of commissioners is against appointing a woman to the office.—Nebraska City Press.

Mr. Abbott will prove a worthy successor of Prof. King, and the county commissioners will do a good day's work in appointing him.

More "Suckers" Going.

The crop of "suckers" who go to Texas, seems to be as great this winter as ever. All over the country the papers are calling attention of the postal officials to the misleading advertising that is being done by the land agents of that state, who insist in taking a lot of people down from the north and selling them land that would not raise sage brush, let alone a crop of anything. All of this land is sold at fancy prices when it has no more value than a sand bar in the Missouri river, just prior to high water. It seems strange that the people will be lured off in this manner and be parted from their money so easy, when they can find people who have been victimized all about them and daily coming back from that country broke.—Nebraska City News.

Falls on Stairs.

Miss Lulu Ames, one of the state's witnesses, in descending the stairs from the court room last evening shortly after five o'clock in some manner tripped and fell when about half way down the second flight from the court room. For some time it was thought the young lady was seriously injured, but she rallied within a few minutes and was able to walk to her dwelling.

Z. Alden departed for Omaha the afternoon train today, and from Omaha they expected to take the Rock Island for Kingfisher, Oklahoma.

Mr. Peter Clarence, of Union, and James Lewis, of the same village, arrived this morning to give testimony on the part of the defendant in the Clarence trial.

The Truancy Law.

If the truancy law is a good thing, why is it not more thoroughly enforced? We have observed a number of boys at various times loafing around town, when we knew their parents thought they were at school. A boy cannot expect to do any good at study by going to school one day and staying away the next. There are some who do this and they are pretty good-sized boys, too. Almost young men. They know they are not doing right, and this being the case, the truant officer should get right after them and take them right into the school room. The law should be enforced, and vigorously, too, and the officer should make no difference as to whom the boys belong to either. If parents want their boys to go to school, the truant officer should see that they attend regularly.

When you have a cold get a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It will soon fix you up all right and will ward off any tendency toward pneumonia. This remedy contains no opium or other narcotic and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. Sold by F. G. Fricke & Co.

Mr. Nemetz' candy kitchen is kept busy now keeping his show cases filled up with Christmas candies. It is quite a treat to watch him make a batch of material into the different styles and forms. He uses about twenty-five pounds of sugar at a time and when running full time makes up fourteen or fifteen batches per day.

His chocolates have gained a reputation for purity and flavor equal if not superior to the Omaha brands.

When your feet are wet and cold, and your body chilled through and through from exposure, take a big dose of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, bathe your feet in hot water before going to bed, and you are almost certain to ward off a severe cold. For sale by F. G. Fricke & Co.

Mr. Peter Clarence, of Union, and James Lewis, of the same village, arrived this morning to give testimony on the part of the defendant in the Clarence trial.
