

Murray Department.

PREPARED IN THE INTERESTS OF THE PEOPLE OF MURRAY AND VICINITY ESPECIALLY FOR THE JOURNAL READERS.

[If any of the readers of the Journal know of a social event or an item of interest in this vicinity and will mail same to this office it will appear under this heading. We want all items of interest.—Editor Journal.]

Service for Our Customers!

We aim to serve each customer alike in all business matters, and give each the best bank service.

A man with a small volume of business receives the same attention from our officers as does large depositors.

Our service means accommodation. Service in matters of consequence also means with us, service in minor dealings—in every detail.

We are always glad to talk over business matters with you, whether you are a customer or not. We are confident that our service will give you entire satisfaction.

Murray State Bank
MURRAY, NEBRASKA

Geo. E. Fitzpatrick is a new subscriber to the Journal this week.

Remember, you can pay your personal tax at the Murray State Bank.

Mrs. John Ferris and Mrs. Nicholas Friedrich were in Plattsmouth Tuesday.

Buy your rubber overshoes of Holmes & Smith, where you get good goods.

Wm. Rice was looking after some business matters in the county seat last Saturday.

You will find many good things to eat at the Christian church bazaar on Saturday, December 17.

Geo. E. Fitzpatrick was looking after some business matters in the county seat last Saturday.

Will Reynolds, of Nebraska City was visiting in Murray Sunday, the guest of Miss Minnie Guenther.

Miss Pauline Oldham has opened a studio of public speaking in Plattsmouth at the home of Mrs. Geo. Dovey.

Buy your rubber boots and shoes at Holmes & Smith's, where you will find an assortment of the best on the market.

Albert Young returned home from Plainview last Thursday, where he has been gathering corn for the past few weeks.

Tom Tilson and Lela Vallery, Arthur Copenhaver and Tessie Stokes attended the play at Plattsmouth last Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Dr. Brendel and Dr. J. O. Parr were entertained and dinner served by Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Baker, Wednesday.

Holmes & Smith have received a fine line of holiday goods which will be open for inspection in a few days. Watch for the opening day.

Arnold Holmes, who has been working in Plainview for the past few months, returns to Murray this week for a visit with his brother James.

Geo. Nickels was a passenger for Omaha on the early train Wednesday morning. He went up on the early train that passed through here late, about nine o'clock.

Mrs. James Willard, who has been in the hospital at Omaha for the past few weeks, where she underwent an operation for appendicitis, returned home Wednesday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Baker were entertained at the pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. Will Sporer last Sunday. They were treated to one of those most excellent dinners which only Mrs. Sporer knows how to prepare.

Miss Ina Hatt, of Plattsmouth, is teaching school this month in District No. 7, taking the place of Miss Rosa Munn, of Plattsmouth, who is sick with pneumonia. Miss Hatt took charge of the school on Monday morning.

W. D. Wheeler, president; W. E. Dull, vice president, and Wm. H. Puls, secretary, of the Farmers' elevator here, have been engaged for the past few days in checking up the books of the company. They have experienced a very good year, just closed under the able management of Mr. Lloyd Gopen.

Rex Young and wife were in Plattsmouth last Saturday.

Miss Verna Hatt spent Sunday with home folks in Plattsmouth.

Pay your personal tax at the Murray State Bank and save a trip to the county seat.

Steve Copenhaver and John Faris were looking after some business matters in Plattsmouth last Saturday.

You will find an excellent supper awaiting you at the Christian church bazaar on Saturday evening, December 17.

Take your dinner at the Christian church bazaar on Saturday, December 17th. There is a rare treat in store for you.

Gold Rice is suffering this week with a full sized carbuncle on his hand, and it is giving him a great deal of trouble, too.

Holmes & Smith can sell you a warm fur overcoat as cheap as you can buy one in Omaha, Plattsmouth or any other town in the west.

Select your Christmas presents at the bazaar on Saturday, December 17. You will also find a delicious oyster stew in waiting for you in the evening.

W. H. McDaniels is looking after M. P. business at Fort Crook this week, and W. A. Scott is at home holding down the old job at the station here.

Jesse L. Pell, residing near Union, has been quite sick for the past week, suffering with a severe attack of flux. He has been quite sick, but is some better at this time.

The gentleman's bazaar held at Loughridge's hall last Thursday evening was a grand success. We understand that our excellent friend Lee Oldham carried off first prize.

H. C. Long and wife and daughter, Miss Gertrude, were in Plattsmouth Thursday of this week. The Journal acknowledges a pleasant call from Mr. Long, while the ladies were doing some shopping.

Ralph Opp, from near Nehawka, has been spending the week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Boedeker, south of Murray. While Mr. Opp's home is near Nehawka, he has been working in Lincoln for some time.

Ed. Vought, of Shenandoah, the mighty hog doctor, has been in this locality for the past few days curing all the sick hogs, and we understand that he is doing the work, too. There is lots of cholera here, and Mr. Vought seems to be the man that can check it.

Dr. W. D. Parr, whose home is in Kohomo, Indiana, and Bishop of the M. E. church, is in Murray this week visiting relatives. Mr. Parr is a cousin of Mr. and Mrs. Dr. B. F. Brendel and Mrs. A. L. Baker. The doctor has been in this state several times in the past few years, holding dedication services in numerous cities, but this is his first visit to Murray. He dedicated a leading church at Lincoln a short time ago, and will conduct dedication services at Lexington on next Sunday. We were indeed pleased to meet the Dr. and found him a most pleasant gentleman in every particular.

Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Davis and Miss Stover were Omaha visitors Tuesday.

Glen Rhoden has been numbered with the sick for the past few days.

Mrs. Wm. Brown spent a few days this week with her sister at Council Bluffs.

Mr. and Mrs. James Holmes and Mrs. A. L. Baker autoted to Plattsmouth Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Philpot were over from Weeping Water last Saturday to attend the dance.

Miss Cle Applegate, of Plattsmouth, was the guest of Mrs. G. H. Gilmore last Saturday and Sunday.

Wm. Miller, the horse and mule buyer, from Hamburg, Iowa, has been in this locality for the past few days.

Wm. Bustler, an old time soldier of this community, visited Lee Oldham and other old time friends here last week.

Grandma Root has been about the same for the past ten days, her very serious condition does not change for the better as hoped for.

Miss Anna Mack, of Nehawka, and Miss Eleanor Carpenter, of Wyoming, Nebraska, were the guests of Mrs. Wm. Brown last Saturday and Sunday.

Pauline Oldham went to Mynard, Wednesday night, to coach a home talent play that the young people of that place will give the 16th of December.

M. G. Churchill and Kelly Rhoden have all the rabbit hunting they want for the present. They are always successful in getting their share of the game, but this year they are not worth it. The boys say the rabbit is poor game this year.

Christmas Goods Arriving.

The store of Holmes & Smith will sure be the proper place to buy your Christmas goods this year. They are very busy this week making all arrangements to accommodate their many patrons. They have goods and will have them properly displayed this week, which line consists of a very high class assortment of all kinds of gift goods, such as fancy china, hand-painted goods, plaques of all kinds, books, a world of toys for the little folks, their usual high class line of furnishings, dress goods, fancy articles and novelties. We will not undertake to tell you of the many things they have, but we are requested to extend you a most welcome invitation to call and see them for yourself. You will surely find the line one of the nicest ever displayed in Murray.

A Pleasant Afternoon.

Mrs. Sam Pitman entertained a number of lady friends Wednesday afternoon in honor of Miss Jaycie Stover, of Corydon, Indiana. A most pleasant time was enjoyed by all in attendance.

An excellent two-course luncheon was served. Those present were Mesdames T. J. Brendel, Jas. Holmes, Charles Spangler, Rex Young, D. C. Rhoden, Glen Perry, G. W. Boedeker, Lloyd Gopen, Jas. Loughridge, O. A. Davis, Addie Stokes and Misses Isabelle Young, Pauline and Fay Oldham.

Christmas Bazaar.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Christian church are working like beavers this week making preparations for the annual bazaar to be held at the church in Murray on Saturday, December 17. They are making a large number of fancy articles also many useful and necessary articles of the household, such as quilts, pillow cases and the like. They will also conduct a genuine market, also give dinner and supper and an oyster supper in the evening. This promises to be a most pleasant occasion, and the ladies should be given the hearty support of all.

Will Celebrate Golden Wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Worley, of Elmwood, will celebrate their golden wedding at their home in Elmwood, Saturday evening, the 10th inst. Mrs. Worley was formerly Miss Chalfant, of Liberty precinct, in this county. Col. H. C. McMaken is in receipt of an announcement of the celebration, he having been a guest at the wedding fifty years ago. Col. McMaken will attend and enjoy the incidents of half a century ago.

Murray Real Estate.

I have a number of choice pieces of Murray property for sale. See me if you wish to purchase.
A. L. Baker.

Suffering From Apendicitis.

Dr. G. H. Gilmore, the prominent and well known Murray physician, is suffering with a severe attack of appendicitis this week, being taken ill on Monday, and was confined to his bed a day or two, when on Tuesday evening he was called down near Avoca to see a patient, returning home very late that night, at which time his suffering was very great, continuing through the night, and Wednesday morning Dr. T. P. Livingston was called from Plattsmouth to see him, at which time he was found to be a very sick man. At this time the doctor was unable to go to the hospital, but will be taken to Omaha for an operation just as soon as his strength and condition will permit. This is the second attack Dr. Gilmore has experienced within the past few years. We are informed that his condition today remains about the same, and while there are no serious results anticipated, he is very sick and suffers a great deal.

Ladies' Bazaar a Success.

The bazaar given by the Ladies' Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church at the Loughridge hall on last Saturday was a grand success in every particular, and socially it was a most pleasant affair and financially it was all that could be expected. The proceeds amounting to $175. The hall was most beautifully arranged in decorations and numerous booths erected where the goods of the society were placed on sale. The attendance was very large, during the entire day and evening. The numerous booths were certainly most tastefully arranged and under the management of the ladies as follows: The fancy work booth was in charge of Mrs. A. V. Kennedy and Mrs. D. C. Rhoden, while at the market was found Mrs. Sam Pitman and Mrs. O. A. Davis. The dressing sack and apron booth was under the management of Mrs. W. S. Smith, Mrs. Jas. Loughridge and Mrs. O. V. Virgin, and the candy booth, Mrs. James Holmes and Mrs. G. H. Gilmore. The men's booth was presided over by Misses Margie Walker and Fay Oldham, and Miss Pauline Oldham dished out the many good things to eat at the lunch counter, where all kinds of lunches and oysters were served. T. B. Smith drew the fine pig donated by Lee Oldham. The handsome doll was drawn by Uncle Sam Latta. The doll was given to the one guessing the nearest to the weight of the doll, and although there were several tied the guess of Uncle Sam, he proved the winner in the end. The president had offered a premium for the little folks, for the one making the prettiest piece of fancy work, and this prize was won by Miss Francis Truman. The ladies are surely to be congratulated upon the success of the 1910 bazaar.

Attention!

If you wish to purchase Adeline Plantation Land, Louisiana, where every acre produces 35 tons of sugar can to the acre and corn runs at from 60 to 90 bushels, take the Payne Special from Omaha on December 20th, January 3d and 17th. Fare for the round trip only 32.50 sleeping car berths, meals, etc., without expense to you. For further particulars write or call on Associate Agents, the

Windham Investment Co.,
Plattsmouth, Neb.

Jacob Deitz Here.

Jacob J. Deitz, of Burr, Nebraska, and wife, are visiting relatives in Plattsmouth and vicinity, including Mr. Deitz' brother-in-law, Mr. R. W. Toogood and family and Mrs. Deitz' uncle, Mr. William Melsinger, and family. Mr. Deitz formerly resided in Plattsmouth and worked in the Burlington shops. Mr. Deitz has been farming near Burr for the past five years.

Horse Shoeing.

John Durman desires to inform those who need his services that he has opened a shop at the Ora Dawson place for shoeing horses. Satisfaction assured.

We have some very fine toilet sets for Christmas presents. Come in and select them before they are all sold.
Edw. Rynott & Co.,
Suc. to Gering & Co.

CASTORIA
For Infants and Children.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of Dr. J. C. Watson

MAKING SURE of your ACCOMMODATIONS

When you go away for a social or business trip, there are scores of matters to look after in a hurry, and good-byes to say.

When you need to get things accomplished quickly and satisfactorily in your own town or hundreds of miles away use the Local and Long Distance Bell Telephone Lines.

- Nebraska Telephone - Company

C. L. CLARK, Local Manager.

To Open Saturday.

Edward Rynott & Company will, next Saturday open up a fine line of confectionary goods and cigars in the Egenberger building, on Fifth street, one door north of Cook's barber shop. The room is being tastefully painted and frescoed by artists Thomas and Reibel and will be a nobby store when ready for occupancy. Rynott & Co. will keep here an up-to-date line of school supplies, writing material and the like.

The location for the line to be carried is ideal, being centrally located, almost opposite the Bank of Cass county in the business district of the city. A large stock of Christmas candies have been ordered for the opening, and also a large stock of the best the market affords.

We have the most full and complete line of holiday goods ever handled in Plattsmouth. Come in and get a nice present at the right price.

Edw. Rynott & Co.,
Suc. to Gering & Co.

Lora Davis Improving.

Anton Peterson, who went to Colorado City last week to see Lora Davis, returned last evening. Mr. Davis is at the hospital at Colorado Springs, and when Mr. Peterson left his bedside Mr. Davis was considerably better. His sickness was from erysipelas in his face, and had gotten quite well advanced before medical skill got the disease under control. Mr. Davis' many friends here hope for his speedy recovery.

A Distinguished Visitor.

Hon. L. A. Beltzer, of Osceola, Nebraska, was in the city a few hours today, and gave the Journal a pleasant call. Mr. Beltzer is a candidate for sergeant-at-arms of the incoming house of representatives, and we hope he will be successful in his aspiration. He is a life-long democrat and has resided in Nebraska thirty-eight years. He was sergeant-at-arms of the house in the session of 1897, and a resolution was passed unanimously extending him a vote of thanks for the faithful manner in which he performed the duties of the position. He is a good man for the place and we hope he will be elected.

Discount! Discount!! Discount!!!

On all kodaks and supplies. All new and up-to-date, and you can get anything in our entire stock from now until Christmas. Come in and get the children a kodak.

Edw. Rynott & Co.,
Suc. to Gering & Co.

Wood For Sale.

One hundred loads of wood, cut into stove length, for sale. Also, a lot of hedge posts and corn crib posts for sale.

Murray, Neb.

Dr. Newell, Dentist.

Murray every Tuesday from 8 a. m., to 5 p. m. All kinds of first class dental work. Satisfaction guaranteed.

Our Christmas Goods

Have About All Arrived

and a great many of them are lined out ready for your inspection. Remember first choice is best, so be wise and come early:

Hat Pin Holders	Shaving Paper Pads
Pin Cushions	Hair Receivers
Toilet Sets	Rattle Boxes
Necktie Holders	Jewel Cases
Hand Mirrors	Music Rolls
	Post Card Albums

and many other fancy nick-nacks. None of these are expensive. You will be surprised at the 25, 35 and 50c articles.

E. G. Dovey & Son