

LAND THAT WILL MAKE YOU RICH!

The greatest combination of industrialism and farming, now rapidly developing, is to be found along the Burlington Route in the vicinity of

Sheridan, Wyoming,
Hardin and Billings, Montana, and in the Big Horn Basin,

where large, deeded, alfalfa ranches that have made millionaires of the owners, are being divided into small farms, and where Government irrigated homesteads and Carey Act Lands are available.

A WONDERFULLY RICH COUNTRY:—You can get hold of an irrigated farm within a radius of a few miles of excellent coal, natural gas, illuminating oil, building materials, fast growing towns that will have varied industries.

PERSONALLY CONDUCTED EXCURSIONS:—On the first and third Tuesdays I personally conduct landseekers' excursions to see these lands.

A VERY SINGULAR AND TRUE COINCIDENCE

A special from Washington, Pennsylvania, under date of December 2d, relates a singular coincidence in the lives of two elderly ladies of that vicinity who died there that day. The Mrs. T. M. Patterson named in the dispatches was a relative of our townsmen T. M. and Rae Patterson, and it was for her husband that Mr. T. M. Patterson of this city was named. The special says Mrs. T. M. Patterson, eighty-three years of age, and Mrs. Elizabeth L. Mountz, eighty-five years of age, who have been close companions since girlhood, died that night at almost the same hour. They had resided within three miles of each other all their lives, and the immediate cause of their deaths was the result of similar injuries received three years ago. On the same day both fell and fractured the right hip, and both have been bed ridden since that time. Both were acquainted with the other's injury, and almost daily made inquiries as to the other's condition. Messages and little gifts were exchanged on holidays and both died the same night ignorant of each other's death.

They Are Good to Jap.

Evidently some of the people along the route which Jap Young traverses every day, except Sunday, are awful good to him. And they ought to be, for Jap is good to them and they realize the fact in many ways. Recently Albert Wetenkamp presented Mr. Young with a supply of meat and Charley Jean gave him a big load of cobs, and Jap feels very thankful to them. The mail route man has a hard job on his hands in the winter season, and Mr. Young gets the mail to his patrons if it can possibly be gotten to them, and such gifts as above mentioned are highly appreciated, and make the route man feel that life is worth living.

Surprised on Her Birthday. Miss Abbie Brown was agreeably surprised yesterday, by a large number of her girl friends arriving at her home unannounced. Miss Abbie's little friends had learned that her birthday was approaching and planned to celebrate the event with her and kept their plans a profound secret from her. Promptly at 4 o'clock p. m. the little Misses with well filled lunch baskets arrived at

Miss Abbie's dwelling. A joyous time was had from four to six p. m., and the young ladies were most royally entertained at games and with music, instrumental and vocal. Lunch was served which added materially to the substantial enjoyment of the occasion. At six o'clock the party dispersed wishing Miss Abbie a hundred more returns of the day as happy as this one. Those present were Catherine Shrack, Katherine Gorder, Thelma and Opal Denson, Mabel, Vera and Abbie Brown, and Katie Whitaker.

Mrs. Hanks, wife of the former Burlington sub-storekeeper, departed last evening for Galesburg, Illinois, where she will visit her daughter and other relatives during the winter, when she will join her husband at Spokane, Washington.
