MRS. EVA REESE SURPRISED ON HER BIRTHDAY

Mrs. Eva Reese was made the recipient of a more than pleasant surprise last evening by a number of her neighbors and friends. When the ghostly figures flitted in on her, Mrs. Reese was, both, completely surprised and frightened and at first did not recognize any of her guests, as they were all dressed in sheets and pillow cases. But Mrs. Reese soon recovered and proceeded to entertain the invaders in her usual happy manner. The occasion of this most enjoyable masquerade surprise was the birthday anniversary of Mrs. Reese and the neighbors and friends, who had assembled at her home on last evening, celebrated the event in a manner which will long be remembered.

Mrs. Reese was given two chances at guessing whom the ghostly figures might be and succeeded in guessing all but two out of the twenty-five. The time was then very pleasantly spent in various amusements, such as cards, music and the like, there being several games of cards played. The invaders had come well armed with baskets filled with good things to eat and during the evening a delicious luncheon was prepared, and which, at a convenient hour, was served in two courses. At a late hour and after wishing Mrs. Reese many more such happy anniversaries, the invaders withdrew their forces, reporting a royal good time.

NEXT PRODUCTION AT THE PARMELE

"Shadowed by Three" an interesting and up-to-date production January 10th.

W. F. Mann, the well-known Chicago play producer, has been the first theatrical manager to actively cooperate with John D. Rockefeller, Jr., Attorney Waymen and the Law and Order League for the suppression of the nefarious white slave traffic. Mr. Mann has just launched in his latest production, "Shadowed by Three," a terrific arraignment against police debauchery and civic graft as it is related to the exploiting of the underworld of our great American cities, and of Chicago in particular. The plot of "Shadowed by Three" is limned against the background of the notorious McCann trial which so recently caused an upheaval in the Chicago police department and whose very mention causes the city hall gang to turn blue round the gills. Indeed the Inspector McCann of the play might be truthfully said to be a sketch from life of the downfallen McCann. The play pictures this Tsar of the noisome underworld in a wonderfully vivid fashion. He is seen in his headquarters office, receiving tribute from vice queens and rackets, yet doing all he can to undermine the commonwealth and debauch it. Then by a single turn in the scales of fate, he is toppled over from his throne, even as McCann of Chicago was, and left a broken, helpless, pitiful wreck of his former self. Contrasted to this archmaster of the ice is told the story of a winsome, innocent girl, who to save her family from impending disgrace, leaves home and ventures her way alone amid devious paths of Chicago's byways. How through her own inherent goodness and good sense, and through the skill and courage of her lover, a New York detective, she is saved from a fate of shame and is the ultimate cause of McCann's downfall. It is told in bold, stirring episodes and racy dialogue. Though "Shadowed by Three" is frankly melodramatic in many of its scenes, and realistic to the last degree, it is intensely human and closes with a picture of human happiness and hope. The very grimness of some of the scenes of the play give to them a certain unconscious humor which in no way however, lessens the ultimate dramatic effect but rather heightens it through its fidelity to human nature.

Mr. Mann will present "Shadowed by Three" with the original cast and production as seen during Chicago run of the play.

Look At Texas Lands.

W. E. Rosencrans, of this city, Sid James, Albert Wallinger, Jim Schankner, all of Elmwood, and Henry Hirz, of Plattsmouth, went to Pacific Junction Tuesday morning on Johnson's special, where they took their departure for Palfurrias, Texas, to make an inspection of soil and climate with a view of investing in Texas real estate.

Land values in that locality have steadily grown in price and Mr. Rosencrans is having no trouble in selling to the parties sufficiently interested to go and take a look at the soil. The party going down this time have the money, and we have no doubt but they will find a profitable field for investment.

THE HOME OF SATISFACTION

TESTED AND PROVEN

There is a Heap of Solace In Being Able to Depend Upon a Well Earned Reputation

For months Plattsmouth readers have seen the constant expression of praise for Doan's Kidney Pills, and read about the good work they have done in this locality. Not another remedy ever produced such convincing proof of merit.

Mrs. John Sharp, Third and Dyke streets, Plattsmouth, Neb., says:—For a long time I had trouble from my back and kidneys. There were terrible pains in the small of my back, often extending into my hips and limbs and though I doctored and tried various medicines, I was not relieved. About a year ago I procured Doan's Kidney Pills from Gering & Co's drug store and in a short time they brought me entire relief. This remedy has my highest endorsement." (Statement given June 9, 1906.)

On December 29, 1908, Mrs. Sharp said: "I gladly confirm my former endorsement of Doan's Kidney Pills. I still think highly of this remedy, knowing that it is a splendid one in cases of kidney trouble."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo,

New York, sole agents for the United States.

H. I. Sage Visits His Brother.

He had the misfortune to get a piece of steel in his eye some weeks ago while engaged at his work of boiler making at the Burlington shops in his home town.

Mr. Sage was formerly a citizen of Plattsmouth and learned his trade in the Plattsmouth shops.

Foley's Kidney Remedy—An Appreciation.

L. McConnell, Catherine St., Elmira, N. Y., writes: "I wish to express my appreciation of the great good I derived from Foley's Kidney Remedy, which I used for a bad case of kidney trouble. Five bottles did the work most effectively and proved to me beyond doubt it is the most reliable kidney medicine I have ever taken." Sold by F. G. Fricke & Co.

George Pick, of Cedar Creek, came down on No. 4 this morning and transacted business with Plattsmouth merchants.
