

Winter Suits and Overcoats REDUCED!

Copyright Hart Schaffner & Marx

YOU can buy now a good suit or overcoat for a good deal less than it's worth. We are ready now to "clear the decks" for the spring business; we're starting early because we want to get through early.

We shall sell a lot of these good clothes—many HART, SCHAFFNER & MARX suits and overcoats among them, at prices which represent a big saving to you. They're fine goods, as you know—they're big value at our usual prices; and just that much bigger at these figures.

Suits and Overcoats, former price up to $15, Now..... $10.00

Suits and Overcoats, former price up to $21, Now..... $14.00

Suits and Overcoats, former price up to $30, Now..... $18.00

Suits and Overcoats, former price up to $35, Now..... $24.00

Come early and get the best selections.

The Home of Hart, Schaffner & Marx Clothes
Manhattan Shirts Stetson Hats

Special on Flannel Shirts
$1.00

See Our Windows for January "Clean Up" Prices

THE REMAINS OF MRS. LEVI PATTON LAID AT REST

From Saturday's Daily.

Mrs. Kate Patton was born in Nodaway county, Missouri, near Barnard, in the year of 1864, and came to Nebraska with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rhodes, when she was about 20 years of age. One year later she was married to Charley Jones, of Liberty precinct, and with her husband resided near Union until his death, seventeen years ago. Ten years later she was married to Mr. Levi Patton, who survives her.

There was born to Mr. and Mrs. Jones four children, namely: Mrs. Myrtle Harkens, of Omaha, James Jones, of Omaha, and John and Dick Jones, of this city. Mrs. Patton died on the 5th day of January, 1911.

She was a member of the Christian church and her funeral occurred from that church at 2 o'clock this afternoon, conducted by Rev. Radcliff, pastor of the church. The music consisted of two songs sang by Mrs. Mae Morgan and Mrs. Radcliff, entitled, "When the Role is Called Up Yonder," and "Jesus, Saviour, Pilot Me," and a solo by Mrs. Morgan, "Some Sweet Day."

Interment was made in Oak Hill cemetery. The pall-bearers were M. E. Manspeaker, Charles Martin, Oliver Osborn, Charles Cline, Charles Green and William Hellner.

The out of town relatives and friends attending the funeral were James Jones and wife, Albert Har-kins and wife, Mrs. Litha Chandler, Mrs. Dike, James Miller and wife, and George Harkins and wife, all of Omaha.

Celebrates Birthday.

Mrs. Eliza Kaufman celebrated her 58th birthday by giving a dinner to her children at her residence in this city today, and holding a family reunion. Those present were Miss Marie Kaufman, Mrs. C. A. Gauer, Mrs. Henry Inhelder, and Mrs. Louis Myers, of Cedar Creek.

Mrs. James Boardman, of Hartigan, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Grauf, departed for her home this morning, accompanied by her sister, Miss Mamy Grauf.

WARD STILL HAS ON HIS FIGHTING HARNESS

The article in last week's Courier regarding the assessor's vote of Eight Mile Grove precinct seems to have awakened the natives down at the county seat. The Courier has been quite reliably informed that the county attorney disclaims the responsibility for the change of heart on the part of the county commissioners in requesting Mr. Ward to secure affidavits from the election board stating that he really received votes at the November election. It will be remembered that the commissioners duly appointed and approved his bond and we understand issued him a certificate, and then after he had departed for home they reconsidered their action, and according to the letter from the county clerk, "on the advice of the county attorney" they asked that Ward secure affidavits from the election board of Eight Mile Grove precinct to the effect that he had received votes at the general election held on November 8, 1910. It is very amusing that the county attorney now disclaims the credit for this wise suggestion. Mr. Barr, attorney for Ward, was seen by the Courier and he states that his client was very much in earnest when he stated that he proposed filing criminal proceedings against the members of the election board for failing to report the votes cast for him at the election in question. He says he is being deprived of the office to which he claims to have been elected and feels that the board of county commissioners had no right to reconsider his appointment after approving his bond. The outcome will be watched with considerable interest by the people of this vicinity.—Louisville Courier.

Entertains For Friends.

Miss Estella Baird gave a six o'clock dinner Saturday afternoon to the members of the choir of the First Presbyterian church and their spouses. The function was in honor of, and a farewell to, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Gamble, who depart this week for Omaha to make their future residence in the metropolis.

Those present were J. W. and Mrs. Gamble, Rev. L. W. and Mrs. Gade, William and Mrs. Wurga, G. L. Farley and wife and two daughters, J. E. Douglass and wife and son, Miss Ruth Johnson, Miss Greenwald, Miss Frances Weidman, Miss Helen Chapman, Miss Verna Cole and Mr. Clarence Staats.

THOUGHT HE WAS IN THE CASS COUNTY JAIL

A son of Adam, who had evidently tried to drink down all the red "ink" in the city before 8 o'clock last Saturday night, loitered on the street until quite late, then being afraid to go home or too light-headed to find his way, in some mysterious manner found his way into the coal shed of James Bird, who resides on Washington avenue. Oblivious of the frosty, crisp atmosphere, the man snoozed away until about 3 o'clock a. m., when he was seized with the idea that he was confined in the county jail, and at once began to kick out the walls. When an apparatus large enough to allow him to get through had been made, the fellow escaped without his cap. The frantic fugitive ran to the home of Jacob Tritsch and awoke that worthy gentleman from his slumbers and asked for the loan of a cap and a few matches until he could find his own cap. The man disappeared with the cap and matches, and going, as if the Beatrice blood hounds were in hot pursuit.

Fine Opportunity.

Last week Mr. R. M. Schlaes made an announcement from the Majestic stage that to the young couple who would be married on his stage within the next few weeks he would furnish the license free of charge and present the bride and groom with a fine bedroom suite. This is certainly a golden opportunity for any who contemplate going into matrimony.

DR
Herman Greeder,
Graduate Veterinary Surgeon
Formerly with U. S. Department Agriculture)
Licensed by Nebraska State
Board
Calls Answered Promptly
Telephone 378 White, Plattsmouth.

BANKERS ASSIST MADISON TRUST

Ample Capital Provided to Meet
All Emergencies.

AFFILIATED WITH CARNEGIE CO

Meeting in New York That Will Prevent Possible Closing of More Institutions—Leading Financial Interests of Gotham Represented.

New York, Jan. 9.—A meeting of representatives of several large financial interests, bankers and others was held at the home of Paul D. Cravath, a lawyer, and steps were taken to prevent the closing of the Madison Trust company, the Twelfth Ward bank and the Nineteenth Ward bank, which, together with their branches, make nine banks throughout the city. Ample capital was provided to meet all emergencies to which these banks might be subjected. These institutions had former close affiliations with the Carnegie Trust company, closed Saturday as an indirect result of the operations of Joseph G. Robin, the fallen banker now in prison. Among the interests represented at the conference were J. Pierpont Morgan & Co., represented by Henry P. Davidson; New York Clearing House association, represented by A. Barton Heppburn; Lawrence Phipps, Jr., said to represent the Standard Oil company; Equitable Life Assurance society, by Paul Morton. There were also present C. H. Cheney, state superintendent of banks; Bradley Martin, Jr., president of the Nineteenth Ward bank; Walking Crockett, president of the Madison Trust company; Frank B. French, president of the Twelfth Ward bank; James G. Cannon, president of the Fourth National bank, Mr. Cravath and about a dozen others.

It was announced that a radical change will be made in the Madison Trust company, that institution being taken over by the Equitable Trust company, and that certain changes will be made in the directorate.

CAMORRO TRIAL BEGINS SOON

Thirty-Two Members of Italian Secret Society Taken to Viterbo.

Viterbo, Italy, Jan. 9.—Detachments of police and carabinieri, both heavily armed, surrounded the station here previous to the arrival of thirty-two members of the Camorra, who are to stand trial for the murder of James Cuocolo, a leading member of the band, who had incurred the vengeance of the Camorristas for alleged acts of treachery. Cuocolo's body was found on the seashore near Naples in June, 1906, and the mutilated body of his wife was discovered shortly afterwards in a house nearby.

Extraordinary precautions have been taken by the authorities to guard the prisoners and to prevent any attempt at release. They have been in close confinement for more than three years and their friends and relatives gathered at the station.

Police detachments were stationed at various points and when the train arrived from Naples there was a scene of riot and disorder. It was known that nothing would be left undone to effect a rescue and orders had been issued to put down any such attempt by whatever means necessary.

The prisoners descended from the car in groups of five, chained together. They comprised all varieties of the social scale from dandy to lazzarone. Chief among them was Enrico Alfano better known as Eddicone, head of the Camorra, who was arrested in New York in April, 1907, by Detective Patrosino. He appeared thinner and gaustier than ever.

The mob, temporarily held in check by a show of authority, broke into cries, shrieks and execrations at sight of the prisoners and attempted to break through the lines to go near them, but the carabinieri pushed them back with their guns. Intense excitement reigned and the surging mass of people threatened an attack upon the police.

The prisoners shook their manacled fists and raised their voices almost as loudly as their friends and relatives. The men were marched to prison, surrounded by heavy guards, and the crowd dispersed.

POISON IN LUNCH FATAL

Superintendent of Grain Elevator Dies as Result of Eating Strychnine.

Pittsburg, Jan. 9.—C. M. Strobacher, superintendent of a grain elevator, was taken to a hospital shortly after eating his luncheon and soon lapsed into unconsciousness. Strychnine poisoning was reported by the hospital authorities to the police and an investigation was started. At the grain elevator was found Strobacher's unfinished luncheon and between two slices of bread, part of which had been eaten, was found the poison.

Arraign Truskett on Murder Charge.

Caney, Kan., Jan. 9.—A. O. Truskett, who shot and killed J. D. S. Neely, a prominent oil man, in the Palace hotel here Saturday, was arraigned before Justice of the Peace Lynn on a charge of murder in the first degree. He was released on $25,000 bond and will be given a preliminary hearing next month.

COMMISSIONS GAME WARDENS

Governor Aldrich Puts Chief Deputy Miller on Job.

Lincoln, Jan. 9.—The new deputy game wardens were given their commissions by Governor Aldrich and have taken charge of the office. Henry N. Miller of Nance becomes chief deputy, to succeed Dan Gellius of Omaha, appointed head house bookkeeper, and his two assistants will be Isaac King of Superior and Reuben W. Byers of Havelock. The game wardens are expected to go to work immediately, but have the pleasant prospect of drawing no pay until April 1. Under the law they are paid for only nine months of the year and as the appropriation has already run out and another will not take effect until April 1, their three months without pay will begin right away.

CORPORATIONS FILE

Claims Aggregating Thousand Dollars Against State.

Lincoln, Jan. 9.—Nebraska corporations have filed claims with the secretary of state for more than $1,000 in all for alleged overcharges in corporation taxes. When the law first went into effect in 1909 it was interpreted to mean that a tax should be collected on the authorized capital stock of each company, but a later ruling decreed that the basis of the tax should be the amount of capital stock actually paid up. Some of the corporations had already paid in the larger amounts and now want a refund.

SON SHOTS FATHER THROUGH ACCIDENT

Fatality Results When Youth Hands Over Loaded Shotgun.

Fullerton, Neb., Jan. 9.—Upon the farm of T. J. Cissna, four miles west of Fullerton, the fourteen-year-old son shot and killed the father. The two had gone into a draw to shoot rabbits, the boy having a rifle and the father a hammerless shotgun. Mr. Cissna, wishing to use the rifle, exchanged with the boy. Later he returned the rifle, and just as the boy was about to hand his father the shotgun it went off, the shot passing through Mr. Cissna's arm and entering his left side.

The frightened boy ran to the nearest neighbor for help and soon the wounded man was carried to the house and medical assistance called, but before Dr. Johnson arrived he was dead.

Mr. Cissna and the boy were the only persons upon the farm at the time of the accident, as Mrs. Cissna is visiting relatives in Council Bluffs, Ia., and the older son was attending the Fullerton high school. Mrs. Cissna has been notified of the accident and will probably remain in Council Bluffs, as the body will be taken today to Iowa for interment, accompanied by Sam and J. W. Cissna, brothers of the deceased, both of whom are residents of Fullerton.

Mr. Cissna was forty-five years of age and was a prosperous farmer, well known in this vicinity, as well as in Walnut, Ia., his previous home.

Third Death From Accident.

Morrill, Neb., Jan. 9.—As the result of an explosion of a dynamite cartridge at Wheatland, Wyo., last Friday Harry Townsend, son of William Townsend, a contractor living near there, was badly injured and died as a result of the injuries. His brother was injured in the same accident, but not fatally. This is the third death as a result of the accident.

WOMAN RESCUES CHILDREN

Mrs. J. L. Boyd of Welsey Carries Little Ones From Blazing House.

Sioux Falls, S. D., Jan. 9.—The heroism of Mrs. J. L. Boyd, who, with her husband, lives at Welsey, saved her two infant children from certain death when the Boyd home caught fire. Mr. Boyd is a mail carrier and was absent at the time. Mrs. Boyd had completed some work at the barn when she discovered that the house was on fire. Smoke was pouring from the windows and a glance within showed the building to be a blazing furnace inside. But this did not deter the mother from rushing into the burning structure to the rescue of her children, one aged nine months and the other two years. Fortunately the children were found together, but they were unconscious when carried from the building by the mother. One of the children was badly burned about the face and hands, but will recover.

MEET NEXT AT OMAHA

Frank Gooding Elected President of Wool Growers' Association.

Portland, Ore., Jan. 9.—Omaha won the next meeting of the National Wool Growers' association after one of the most energetic contests witnessed on the floor of the convention during the half century since the association was founded. Frank R. Gooding, former governor of Idaho, was elected president of the association to succeed his brother, Fred Gooding, who has been president for three years.

Nebraska Poultry Show.

Lincoln, Jan. 9.—The Nebraska State Poultry association will hold its twenty-sixth annual poultry exhibition and institution as usual on the third week in January, 16 to 20. At this meeting there will be some fine lectures.

WASHING

is not a hard job if you use the right kind of a Machine.

The White Washer is a washer having balance wheel mounted on ball bearings; has adjustable lever and foot pedal.

This same washer is made in a power washer with power wringer attached, to be used with any kind of power. Every hand power machine is guaranteed for two years, and belt power machines are guaranteed for five years. No risk in buying these kind of machines.

JOHN BAUER'S,

PLATTSMOUTH,

NEBRASKA