

LOCAL NEWS

From Thursday's Daily

Mrs. James Johns has been suffering this week from a severe attack of the LaGrippe.

Mr. S. S. Gooding returned to Gibson on the morning train today, where he is employed by the Burlington.

Mrs. J. W. Sage went to Omaha on the afternoon train today to visit her sister, Mrs. O. M. Streight, for a short time.

Will Heinrichson, of Geise saloon, was called to Omaha on the morning train today to look after some business matters.

Miss Akerman, of LaPlatte, was in the city and did some shopping between trains today, returning to her home on the fast mail.

Mrs. Link Denson, who has been down with an attack of erysipelas for a week, was considerably improved this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Godwin and little child departed for Council Bluffs this afternoon, where they will visit relatives for a short time.

Mr. P. E. Ruffner, who has been visiting his children at Omaha for a week, returned last evening to note how Plattsmouth is getting along.

Mrs. Andres, of Council Bluffs, who has been a guest of her daughter, Mrs. Emil Wurl, for a few days, departed for her home this morning.

Mrs. D. O. Dwyer was a passenger to Omaha on the morning train today, where she visited friends for a time.

Mrs. L. N. Cummings departed for Denver on the morning train today, where she will visit friends for a time.

Mrs. I. M. Hickson was a passenger on the morning train today, going to Lincoln, where she will spend a short time with relatives.

Itching, bleeding, protruding or blind ples yield to Doan's Ointment. Chronic cases soon relieved, finally cured. Druggists all sell it.

Mr. A. Clabaugh was a passenger to Shenandoah on the morning train today, where he went to look after the fighting plant of that city.

Mrs. Amanda Dobson, of Concordia, Kansas, who has been visiting Mrs. W. W. Wiley, near Murray, and Mrs. George Parker of this city, for three weeks, departed for her home this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Cox, of Shenandoah, Iowa, who have been paying a visit to their daughter, Mrs. J. C. McCaleb and family, for a short time, departed for their home this morning on No. 4.

August Huwaldt and bride, of Randolph, Nebraska, who have been visiting County Commissioner M. L. Frederich and family and other Cass county relatives for two weeks, departed for their home this morning.

George Porter, the Omaha Bee man, was in the city last evening, looking after the interests of his paper. Mr. Fred Rogerson, of Omaha, and Clarence Lee, of Lincoln, are in the city rustling subscribers for the Bee.

Reports from the family of H. C. McMaken this morning are cheering, he having put in a good night last night, sleeping nearly all the time, and this morning the patient was much stronger and felt much better.

Miss Josephine Murphy, of Lincoln, is at home suffering from an attack of grip.

Deputy Sheriff Manspeaker was looking after some legal matters in Elmwood yesterday.

Judge A. J. Beeson visited the metropolis and the land show this afternoon between trains.

James Hartshorn, of Havelock, was a Plattsmouth visitor today, where he was called on business.

Dr. J. B. Martin was a passenger to the metropolis this afternoon, where he was called on professional business.

Mrs. T. B. Bates was a passenger to Omaha on the afternoon train today, where she went to visit friends for a time.

Mr. P. A. Meisinger and wife went to Omaha this afternoon to visit Mrs. Meisinger's sister, Miss Steppat, at the hospital.

A. W. White, the Main street merchant, visited the metropolis this afternoon, where he went to interview the jobbers.

Dr. Albert Fricke, of Omaha, who has been visiting his parents for a few days, returned to Omaha on the afternoon train today.

Mr. D. P. Jackson, the furniture man, was called to Omaha on business this morning and also expected to drop in on the land show before returning.

V. E. Sherwood, who has been visiting his parents, Robert Sherwood, sr., and wife, for a few days, returned to his home at Grand Island this morning.

Mrs. Mike Price, who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. George Sitzman, sr., at Cedar Creek, for a few days, returned to her home in this city this morning.

Mrs. George Dovey has been in bed for several days with an attack of grip, and other members of Mr. Dovey's family, who have suffered from the same disease, are able to be up.

Charles Kinney, of Perry, Oklahoma, has accepted a position with Ed Tritsch on his farm and departed for the country this afternoon, after donning a pair of overalls, and will begin work at once.

Mr. B. J. Birdsall and wife, of Missouri Valley, Iowa, arrived today and will pay a visit to William Mendenhall for a few days.

Mr. H. Upjohn and Mr. George Holtz, of LaPlatte, were Plattsmouth visitors today, having come down to do some trading at the stores.

Demie Hiatt, manager of the Olson Photo Postal company, was an Omaha visitor on the afternoon train today, where he was called on business.

Mrs. Stanfield Ralston, who has been visiting with home folks for the past few days, departed yesterday morning for her home in Kansas City, Missouri.

Mr. H. C. Brinkman, who has been down with the grip for two weeks, is able to be about and expects to resume his duties at the Burlington shops next week.

Mrs. C. W. Forbes and five children are suffering from a seige of the whooping cough, the ailment is severe enough when it attacks the children, but usually very aggravated in adults.

Mrs. George Sitzman, sr., and son George, were Plattsmouth visitors this morning, having come down to the county seat from their home at Cedar Creek, to attend to some business matters at the court house.

W. C. Ramsey, of Omaha, arrived today to look after some business matters in the county court.

Giles Roman arrived this morning from the west, and will visit the home folks for a short time.

Joe Havrec and wife, of Omaha, who have been visiting Mrs. John Skomal for a few days, returned to their home this morning.

Mr. M. W. Thomas, who has been down with the grip for two weeks, was able to be on the street last evening for the first time since his sickness began.

Mr. L. W. Teegarden, of Weeping Water, arrived in the city last evening, transacted business at the treasurer's office and departed for his home today.

Mr. E. H. A. Van Sittert, of Des Moines, Iowa, called on John Bauer & Son with his line of stoves last evening, departing for Iowa territory this morning on No. 6.

Mr. J. F. Wehrbein and wife and Mr. W. H. Wehrbein were Omaha travelers this morning. The Messrs. Wehrbein having a shipment of cattle on the South Omaha market today which they went to look after.

Mr. Charles Countryman, one of the leading farmers of west of Murray, drove up to the county seat last evening and met his brother, who came in on No. 2.

Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Boldt, of Plainview, Nebraska, who have been visiting Mrs. Boldt's parents, Councilman A. and Mrs. Kurtz, of this city, departed for their home this morning.

Messrs. H. M. Soennichsen, mortgagee; Will Jones, auctioneer, and A. L. Tidd, attorney, took a ride to the country this morning for the purpose of attending the sale of Will Becker's personal property.

Chas. Edwards, of Nemaha county, was in the city a few days this week, visiting with his brother-in-law, Will Rainey and family. Mr. Rainey and Mr. Edwards made a trip over to Elmwood yesterday to look after the latter's farm interests near that place.

Mr. Bauman, of New York, stopped off at Plattsmouth this morning as he was en route to California, to be the guest of Mrs. T. E. Parmele and the George Dovey home for the day. Mr. Bauman had met Misses Alice and Ethel Dovey in New York frequently and brought messages to their parents.

Mrs. A. Snyder and little son, LeRoy, who were called here on account of the illness and death of Mrs. Snyder's father, Judge A. N. Sullivan, departed for Omaha this afternoon, expecting to leave for their home at Dallas, South Dakota, in a few days.

Julius A. Pliz, president, and W. T. Adams, secretary of the Mynard Commercial club, and also holding the same position in the Alfalfa Meal Mill company of that thriving village, were called to Omaha this afternoon to inspect the land show, and to make arrangements to hold it in Mynard next year.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Curyea (at this writing) expect to leave Thursday, January 26, 1911, for an extended visit in the west. They will stop en route at Denver, Salt Lake City and other points of interest and spend most of their time in California, coming home by way of Spokane, Washington. Miss Belle Curyea will reside in their home during their absence.

The Alvo school was awarded a premium on school work sent to the Nebraska State Teachers' Association. The exhibit comprised a variety of work and compared very favorably with the work done by other schools in the state. Alvo should be proud of this recognition by the judges, when considering the fact that only $250 was the apportionment for several thousand exhibits.

The Ladies' Aid society of the M. E. church met Tuesday at Mrs. Chas. Kirkpatrick's and in the evening went en masse to the home of Mrs. Geo. Curyea, completely surprising her. They spent a very pleasant evening with her and wished her a very pleasant journey on the trip Mr. and Mrs. Curyea contemplate taking soon through the west and northwest.

The pupils who have thus far earned a certificate of perfect attendance for four successive months in the eighth grade are LaVerne Stone and Clarence Bucknell. In the 7th grade, Alma Godbey and Mary Ingwerson. In the 5th grade, Flossie Jordan. In the 4th, Hazel Foreman and May Ingwerson. In the 3rd, Lois Jordan. In the 2nd, Grace Kitzel and Mildred Godbey.

ALVO NEWS

Harold Nickel is on the sick list. Miss Luella Stout has tonsillitis. Mrs. Carl Johnson has been quite sick.

H. S. Ough was a Lincoln visitor Sunday. Mrs. E. M. Stone is slowly gaining strength.

Wm. Kitzel was a Lincoln visitor Tuesday. James Jordan was in Omaha on business Monday.

A. I. Bird drove to Elmwood on business, Tuesday. Elton Snoko and family had an attack of grip this week.

The Ingwerson children have had a seige of the plnk-eye. Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Jordan were Elmwood visitors Saturday.

Mrs. Walter Hardknoek was in Lincoln Monday and Tuesday. Mrs. S. A. Rosenow and son Verl were Lincoln visitors Saturday.

Ed Clotfelter and family moved to Fremont, Nebraska, last week. Dr. L. Muir was in Lincoln Wednesday and Thursday on business.

Robert Donnelly, of Lincoln, visited J. A. Shaffer between trains Sunday. C. R. Jordan has been kept indoors with sore eyes for the past several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Curyea spent Wednesday with Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Curyea.

Mr. and Mrs. Peterson, of Havelock, visited with Mrs. Peterson's folks Sunday. Mrs. Emma Cashmer and her father visited at Elton Snoko's, near Eagle, Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Curyea took dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Curyea last Sunday. Stanton Dreamer and Paul Johnson have returned to school after having had an attack of grip.

J. H. Stroemer and his father, Jno. Stroemer, returned from their visit to Omaha Saturday morning. Mrs. Chas. Clotfelter, who was taken to the hospital at Lincoln last Friday, is reported getting along nicely.

Mrs. Will Casey, who has been quite seriously ill, is convalescent. A doctor from South Omaha, Nebraska, is attending her.

Joe Bird went to Lincoln Tuesday morning to accompany his wife home, she having been in the hospital there for some time. They returned on No. 14 Tuesday. Mrs. Bird's condition is much improved.

Mrs. Jno. Staples, of Falls City, came in Monday to care for her daughter, Mrs. C. H. Fuller, who has been quite sick since Thursday, January 19th.

Mr. and Mrs. Foreman, jr., went to Valparaiso, Nebraska, Saturday, returning Tuesday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Orris Foreman and Byron Foreman came home with them for a visit.

Mr. Fuller, who came from Bellevue, Kansas, is agent for the Rock Island at this place, having taken Mr. Braun's place, Wednesday, January 18th. Mr. Braun will remain as an operator for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Foreman, sr., entertained Sunday in honor of Mrs. Foreman's aunt, Mrs. Marie Her and sons Roy and Earl, who are here from Osceola, Iowa. They left Wednesday for a visit in Lincoln, after which they will return home.

Miss Irene Nickel, who has been ill in a hospital at Lincoln for some time, died with a lung affection, Thursday, January 19, 1911. The remains were brought to Alvo that p. m. and laid to rest in the Elmwood cemetery Saturday. The bereaved relatives have the sincere sympathy of many friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Curyea (at this writing) expect to leave Thursday, January 26, 1911, for an extended visit in the west. They will stop en route at Denver, Salt Lake City and other points of interest and spend most of their time in California, coming home by way of Spokane, Washington. Miss Belle Curyea will reside in their home during their absence.

The Alvo school was awarded a premium on school work sent to the Nebraska State Teachers' Association. The exhibit comprised a variety of work and compared very favorably with the work done by other schools in the state. Alvo should be proud of this recognition by the judges, when considering the fact that only $250 was the apportionment for several thousand exhibits.

The Ladies' Aid society of the M. E. church met Tuesday at Mrs. Chas. Kirkpatrick's and in the evening went en masse to the home of Mrs. Geo. Curyea, completely surprising her. They spent a very pleasant evening with her and wished her a very pleasant journey on the trip Mr. and Mrs. Curyea contemplate taking soon through the west and northwest.

The pupils who have thus far earned a certificate of perfect attendance for four successive months in the eighth grade are LaVerne Stone and Clarence Bucknell. In the 7th grade, Alma Godbey and Mary Ingwerson. In the 5th grade, Flossie Jordan. In the 4th, Hazel Foreman and May Ingwerson. In the 3rd, Lois Jordan. In the 2nd, Grace Kitzel and Mildred Godbey.

PUBLIC AUCTION.
We, the undersigned, will sell at Public Auction at the old Atwood farm, four and one-half miles south-east of Plattsmouth, near the Missouri river, at the big island, on the following property, to-wit:

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 14, 1911

Fourteen Head of Horses.
One pair black mares, ten years old, weight 3,000 pounds, with foal. Pair bay mares, 7 years old, weight 2,800.

Pair bay coach colts, 3 years old. Sorrel colt, coming 3 years old, weight 1,400.

Black colt, coming 2 years old, weight 1,200.
One black mare colt, 9 months old. One black horse colt, 8 months old. One Shetland pony, 5 years old. One bay mare, weight 1,200 lbs., with foal.

Ninety Head of Hogs.
Fifty brood sows, all bred. Balance will average from 100 to 150 pounds and are in good thrifty condition. These hogs are all good stuff, being bred up to high standard.

Implements.
One disc, nearly new. One Deering mower, nearly new. One tongueless cultivator. One lister. One three-section harrow. One stirring plow. One hay rake. One three-horse sulky plow. One riding cultivator. One stump cultivator. One spring wagon, one top buggy. Two lumber wagons. Three sets of double harness. One light set of double harness. One grindstone. One hand corn sheller. Ten tons of bright alfalfa hay. Some household goods, chickens, and numerous other articles.

Terms of Sale.
All sums of $10 and under, cash in hand; over $10, a credit of twelve months will be given, the purchaser giving good bankable paper bearing interest at eight per cent from date. No property to leave the premises until settled for. Sale will commence at 10:00 o'clock a. m., sharp.

Harvey & Falter, Rob't Wilkinson, Auctioneer.

R. N. of A. No. 5389 Grand Ball
There will be a grand mask ball given by the Royal Neighbors of America No. 5389, February the 14th, at Coates' hall. Good music and a general good time for all. There will be four prizes given. The committee in charge of this evening's entertainment are putting forth every effort toward making this one of the grandest balls of the season. Everybody cordially invited to attend.

We beg to acknowledge that we did not know about the dance to be given by the Eagles on the 18th, but have met their committee and made satisfactory arrangements with them and so we will not conflict with their dance, which is to be given on the 18th. So come, everybody and enjoy the evening and have a general good time. The price of admission is: Ladies 25 cents, gentlemen 50 cents; spectators 25 cents.

1-25-11. By Order of Committee.

Highly Appreciated.
Henry Kammann, living four miles west of Avoca, came in last evening to look after some matters at the court house. Mr. Kammann is one of the hustling young farmers in the vicinity of Avoca, and while here called and renewed his subscription to the Journal. He says the Journal is a great favorite of the people in the neighborhood of Avoca and that it is looked for twice-a-week with intense interest. We are glad to know that the Old Reliable is so highly appreciated. It has always been our policy to lead and never follow in getting out a paper that is well worth the subscription.

China Ware Bargains.
If you are looking for genuine china ware bargains, it will pay you to read the advertisement in another part of this paper of H. M. Soennichsen, and then call at his store on next Saturday and see for yourself the handsome pieces of ware that are being sold for the very low price of 10 and 15 cents each. It is not often that you find the value in the goods that is in this line for the price. Call and see the line and be convinced; they are not going to last long at this price.

Moves Back To Plattsmouth.
James Glenn, of south of Pacific Junction, is moving from the farm and will take up his residence in this city. Mr. Glenn resided in Plattsmouth some time ago, and moved to the farm a year or so ago.

Girl wanted at once at the Riley hotel. 11-9-11

KENYON TAKES LEAD IN IOWA

Seven Garst Men Divide Votes Between Funk and Kenyon.

YOUNG DROPS TO THIRD PLACE

Representative Lounsberry Gets Petition From State Center Asking Deadlock Be Broken—Score of Prominent Politicians Sign.

Des Moines, Jan. 26.—The Iowa legislature balloted for United States senator as follows:

Kenyon, 35; Funk, 34; Young, 33; Garst, 1; Porter (Dem.), 52. Absent, 3.

Seven of the Iowa legislators who have been voting for Warren Garst for United States senator deserted him and threw their strength to W. S. Kenyon and A. B. Funk. This placed Kenyon in the lead, with thirty-five votes; Funk second, with thirty-four, and Lafayette Young dropped to third, with thirty-three. Garst retained one vote. Seventy-eight votes were necessary to elect.

An immediate settlement of the senatorial question in the legislature is the cry of Republicans at State Center, Ia., in a petition signed by a score of prominent Republicans of State Center and presented in the house by Representative H. C. Lounsberry of Marshall county, the impatient constituents of Mr. Lounsberry ask that he devote his efforts toward effecting a close to the senatorial deadlock. They believe that the Republican members of the legislature can agree on a worthy successor to Senator Dolliver and urge immediate action.

Fire Marshal Bill Submitted.
In a bill introduced by Senator Chapman providing for a state fire marshal, the requirement is made that all schools in Iowa must have fire drill once a month.

A petition from 150 citizens of Wright county asking the legislature to act favorably on the bill in the house providing for short courses was presented by Representative Brown. The Wright county voters urge a liberal appropriation for the extension of the benefits of the agricultural short courses in Iowa. They believe that the plan brings to the agricultural interests of Iowa the greatest development along educational lines.

Hoyt Submits Bank Stock Bill.
Senator Hoyt introduced a bill in the senate relative to the assessment of bank stock, which is of vast importance to the banking interests of the state. It repeals the old law and substitutes for it a provision that all shares of stock in all banks must be assessed to the individual stockholders, and that in fixing the value of stocks the assessor shall take into account "the capital, surplus and undivided earnings, and the annual dividends paid, but in no case shall such assessment be lower than the book value of said stock, as shown by the capital stock, surplus and undivided earnings."

PLAN AID FOR FIRE VICTIMS
Neighbors Near Northwood Raise Fund for Widow and Children.

Northwood, Ia., Jan. 26.—A movement has been started among the farmers and people of the small towns in the vicinity of the home of the late J. P. Janzen to raise funds for the unfortunate wife and three children, survivors of a family of eight from a fire which burned their home. The family was not in good circumstances and the recent disaster has rendered them absolutely dependent.

FIRE IN MINE UNCHECKED
Shaft Near Eoone May Never Be Operated Again.

Fraser, Ia., Jan. 26.—The seals on the Fraser mine were broken open by a state mine inspector, but the fire seemed to be worse than when first sealed up. The seal on the shaft was also broken open and the smoke poured forth in continuous volume. The mine was again sealed as quickly as possible. It is doubtful, so say some of the miners, if the mine will ever again be operated.

Gives Skin to Save Life of Boy.
Marshalltown, Ia., Jan. 26.—As the result of his older brother throwing a lighted match at him five weeks ago, from which terrible burns were received about the left arm and shoulder when his clothing caught fire, seven-year-old George Wiggins, son of a poor widow here, submitted to a skin grafting operation at the hospital. The boy's aunt, Miss Bruce F. Wickham, a laundress, furnished the live skin which was placed on the boy's arm and shoulder, twelve square inches of cuticle being removed from Miss Wickham's thighs.

Millionaire to Tax Property.
Burlington, Ia., Jan. 26.—The city of Burlington has employed a millionaire to assess its realty values, at a stipend of $250 per day. The millionaire is Horace Rand, banker and head of the Rand Lumber company, son-in-law of the late Senator J. H. Gear. Mr. Rand volunteered to assist in the work and while the law allows him $250 per day, he will accept no pay.

JOINT SERVICE!

Bell Telephone and Western Union Telegraph

Every Bell Telephone a Telegraph Station
(EFFECTIVE FEBRUARY 1, 1911)

Subscriber's Station!

If you are a subscriber to the Bell Telephone System and wish to send a telegram, a night letter or a cablegram, use your telephone.

Say "Telegram" to the operator and you will be connected with the Western Union office, from which your message will be sent by telegraph and charged in your monthly account.

At night, on Sundays or holidays, when the local telegraph office may be closed, you will be connected with an open Western Union office WITHOUT ADDITIONAL CHARGE.

Public Stations!

You may also send Telegrams and Cablegrams from our Public Pay Stations. The arrangements vary at different classes of stations, but as rapidly as possible we shall equip them with full directions.

Nebraska Telephone Company

ENTERTAINED THE JOLLY EIGHT CLUB YESTERDAY

Miss Pearl Mumm entertained the "Jolly Eight Card Club" in a most enjoyable manner yesterday afternoon. In spite of the disagreeable and inclement weather all the members of the club were present to participate in the splendid entertainment afforded them on this occasion. The afternoon was devoted to cards, there being seven games played. Mrs. Wm. Heinrichsen captured the first prize, a landscape etching, while Mrs. Jesse Warga carried off the booby prize, an egg beater. After the prizes had been given, a short business session was held, at which time the following officers were elected: Mrs. Lena Kanka, president; Mrs. C. R. Burdick, secretary, and Mrs. Jesse Warga, treasurer. The remainder of the afternoon was spent in social conversation, music and the like and at a convenient hour a dainty, as well as delicious luncheon, consisting of sandwiches, salads, cake and coffee, was most temptingly served and to which all did ample justice. At early candlelight the guests dispersed, indebted to the hosts for the delightful afternoon spent.

Those who enjoyed Miss Mumm's hospitality on this occasion were Mesdames Waddick, Chrisinger, Kanka, Timms; Misses Pearl Mumm, Paula Goos and Olga Sattler.

For LaGrippe, Coughs and Stuffy Colds.

Take Foley's Honey and Tar. It gives quick relief and expels the cold from your system. It contains no opiates, is safe and sure. Sold by F. G. Fricke & Co.