Birthday Celebration.

On last Monday evening a four-horse load of merry-makers journeyed out to the pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Brendel to assist Jeff in celebrating his birthday. When the crowd arrived Mrs. Brendel had supper prepared for them, and the way the "good eats" vanished was truly wonderful. After supper five tables of progressive high five were framed up and the merry visitors sure had a good time up to a very late hour. When the homeward taking hour arrived all departed wishing Jeff and his good wife many more such happy occasions. Those indebted to Mr. and Mrs. Brendel for their hospitality were: Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. James Holmes, Mr. and Mrs. Torrence Flemming, Mr. and Mrs. S. O. Pitman, Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Alva Long, Misses Bessie Brendel, Lela Vallery, Pauline Oldham, Margie Walker, Messrs. Tom Tilson, Albert Young and Will Seybolt. Alva Young and O. A. Davis composed the transportation company that conveyed the merry party to the scene of pleasure.

A Fine Sale.

R. A. Wilkinson, the auctioneer from Dunbar, was here Thursday, to cry the John Mills sale. At Avoca the other day Mr. Wilkinson sold at a sale thirteen head of horses, two of which were yearlings and one a suckling colt, for $2,111. One of the teams brought $535. We doubt if there is a more successful auctioneer in this part of the state than Mr. Wilkinson.—Nemaha Co. Herald.

All That Glitters is Not Gold.

Geo. Rhoden's sale was held Wednesday. The day was an ideal one, and the crowd was very large, and the property brought good prices. It is a cold day when Bob Wilkinson does not get the top price for the goods at a public sale. The only objection that we heard made to the sales conducted by Mr. Wilkinson this season is that side partner that he has taken up with, that hooked-nose "guy" with the trunk filled with cheap dress goods, that Mr. Wilkinson has been selling at the close of the regular sale. If the goods that this individual carries around are worth the money it looks as though he could find an easier market than traveling around the country offering them to the highest bidder at public sales. Remember, good people, all that glitters is not gold, and that all such goods as these may not be what they seem. We are informed that he sold about $150 worth at this sale, and we would suggest that should they prove cheap and shoddy, return them to the man you purchased them from, as you would the home man. Mr. Wilkinson will not make you good, so hunt up the dip face gentleman from Oskosh, he is all right.

Registered Bulls for Sale.

I have for sale three registered Shorthorn bulls. Also, seed wheat and oats for sale.

FUNERAL OF JOHN HARVEY JOHNSON SUNDAY

John Harvey Johnson, the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Austin A. Johnson, was born June 6th, 1895, and was taken from this world by death from pneumonia on last Thursday, February 2, 1911. Harvey was born on his father's farm, five miles south of Plattsmouth, and was a bright and ambitious boy, always trying to be and look on the good and bright side of everything. For several years prior and up to the time of his death he was attending school in Murray, working in the ninth grade, and was making his home with his aunt and uncle, and was a good and faithful church worker.

The young man was in the best of health within a week before his death, and was seriously ill but a few days. His sudden death was a severe shock to his father and only sister, Mrs. Chas. Manners, who at the time of his death was too ill to attend the funeral; also his uncle and aunt and the vast number of friends in and near Murray, where the lad was so known.

Harvey's mother died about seven years ago, and for three years after he made his home with his sister, Mrs. Manners, and during the school term for the past four years he has made his home with his uncle and aunt in Murray.

The funeral services were held from the Christian church in Murray on Sunday, February 5th, at eleven o'clock a. m., conducted by Rev. Williams, pastor of the church, and the remains laid to rest in the Young cemetery. Harvey was a very popular young man, possessing a great many friends, as was truly demonstrated by the large gathering who attended the last sad rites of their little friend. The pall bearers were selected from his schoolmates and were as follows: Walter Jenkins, Jake Minnear, Everett Thomason, Vance Todd, Vance Burton and Warren Leonard. The honorary members being chosen from the young girls of his class, and were Olga Minford, Hannah Hansen, Clara Copenhaver, Edith LaRue, Della Adams and Marie Davis.

The death of Harvey leaves but two members of a family of nine, six children and the mother have gone before him, and the surviving father and sister have the sympathy of the entire community, in this, another hour of darkness and sorrow.

There was a large number of relatives and friends from out of town in attendance at the funeral.

Card of Thanks.

We take this method of extending our sincere thanks to the neighbors and friends for the many kindnesses bestowed upon us in the recent sickness and death of our dear son, brother and nephew.

A. A. Austin, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Manners, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Berger.

Has Teeth Repaired.

Roy McDonald, the Pacific Junction switchman, returned to Plattsmouth this morning to have some dental repairs on his teeth, which he had the misfortune to smash up in making a coupling in the P. J. yards recently. Roy had his pipe in his mouth when making the connection, and in some way got the coupling pin fast in his glove and was jerked by the engine several ways for Sunday, striking the frozen ground on his pipe, throwing his weight on his teeth. It will take considerable over a hundred dollars of Roy's wealth to put his teeth back in condition to masticate his food as good as before the accident.

Dr. Gilmore Returns Home.

Dr. G. H. Gilmore, who has been in Chicago for the past three weeks receiving a post-graduate course at the Chicago University, returned to his home in Murray last Saturday evening, and will resume charge of his practice this week. We are informed that the doctor returns home feeling strong and well from his recent operation, and in excellent condition to attend his large practice.

Home From Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Walker returned home from their southern trip Monday evening. They report a very pleasant trip and the climate in that country has been ideal at this season of the year. They are both enjoying good health, and their three weeks' vacation was a great benefit to them.

Fight.

Very few people are as fortunate as not to be compelled to fight at some period of their life for their existence or comfort, and still scarcer are those who never had to fight sickness. While we have to be ready to fight at any moment, it is evident that we must preserve our health and strength and our energy and confidence. Should we notice some indisposition and weakness, loss of appetite and of energy, we must seek help. We recommend you to try Triner's American Elixir of Bitter Wine, a remedy made of pure red wine and medicinal herbs. It will clean out the digestive canal and at the same time strengthen it. In diseases of the stomach, the liver and the bowels it brings a quick and decided relief. It will purify the blood and give strength to muscles and nerves. At drug stores. Jos. Triner, 1333-1339 South Ashland avenue, Chicago, Ill.

Chas. Engelkemeler, of near Weeping Water, was in the city yesterday on business, and while here called at Journal headquarters and renewed for the Old Reliable for another year. Mr. Engelkemeler is a brother of Mr. Fred Engelkemeler, of this city, and is one of the thrifty German farmers of Cass county.
