DEATH AT HOSPITAL IN OMAHA

Mrs. R. C. Bailey Passes Away While on Operating Table at St. Catherine Hospital.

From Wednesday's Daily.

The Journal yesterday received the sad intelligence of the passing away of Mrs. R. C. Bailey at St. Catherine hospital in Omaha. Mr. and Mrs. Bailey reside west of Murray, and for the past three or four months she has been suffering from an ailment which seemed to baffle her attending physician. Gradually she had been declining, when it was thought best to take the suffering lady to Omaha for an operation, where the unfortunate woman passed quietly and very suddenly away while on the operating table, in the presence of her husband, Dr. Gilmore and the operating surgeon. Mrs. Bailey died yesterday about the hour of 11:30. Her life had really been despaired of for several weeks.

The deceased is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Seagraves, living south of Plattsmouth, and was born in the town of Newcastle, Durham county, England, and would have been 34 years of age on March 7, 1911. Mrs. Bailey is survived by four children—one girl and three boys—the oldest a boy of 13 years. The family have resided in the neighborhood of their present residence for eight years, where the deceased was highly respected by all her neighbors, all of whom extend their heartfelt sympathies to the bereaved husband and children.

The remains were taken to the late home of the deceased, five miles west of Murray, where the funeral will occur Friday morning at 10 o'clock, and will be under the auspices of the Royal Neighbors, of which order the deceased was a member. Interment will be made in the Horning cemetery, south of Plattsmouth, when all that was mortal of a loving wife and mother will be laid at rest in the silent tomb.

D. C. Rhoden for Sheriff.

D. C. Rhoden informs the Journal man this week that he has fully decided to enter the race for sheriff and will make an effort to secure the nomination on the democratic ticket. This decision has been made after due deliberation and consultation with a vast number of his friends over the county, all of whom have urged him to enter the race. Don Rhoden is better known in Cass county than the average citizen, and all know his many strong qualifications and no comment is necessary for his introduction to the people at this time. Should he be successful at the primary he will see you all in person in the next few months.

Injured Hand Recovering.

A. J. Toman, who had the misfortune to have the second finger of his left hand badly pinched in one of the lathes in the machine shop at the Burlington shops Saturday, is taking a week's layoff. Mr. Toman was operating the lathe when the accident happened, having had his attention called to some other part of the machinery when it occurred, and inadvertently got his finger mixed up with the lathe. He had the injured member dressed at once and the injury is healing and he will probably be able to return to work next week.

Miller-Rannard

Blanche Miller and Will W. Rannard, both of this city, were married at Omaha at high noon Wednesday in the parsonage of the Methodist Evangelical church by Rev. Turquist, the pastor. The newly wedded couple will visit in southern Nebraska and in Iowa about three weeks before returning to Randolph.

The bride is a daughter of Judge E. S. Miller and wife of this city, and has been a successful teacher in the schools of Cedar and Pierce counties. She is a modest, unassuming lady, but very capable. The groom is a young man who has met with success in farming, both for himself and with his father on the Boughn ranch. For the coming year he and his wife will settle down on a farm near Randolph, and together will follow life's pathway. That this pathway may lead always in pleasant places is the wish of their friends.—Randolph Times.

Louis Newman, from near Wabash, was in the city today looking after some business matters, and found time to call at the Journal office and enroll his name for the Journal for one year. Mr. Newman is one of the many farmers of the west part of the county who realize that the Journal is the county seat paper to receive, and our list is growing accordingly.
