High Price Clover.

Winfield Swan, one of the prosperous farmers from southeast of Murray, has been hauling his clover up to the farm of Olin Cole, near Mynard, to have it hulled. This is a distance of nine miles, but it has paid him good returns. He hauled eight loads, which brought him three bushels of seed to the load, making $25 in each load, as the seed is worth about $8 50 a bushel on the market.

Murray Dancing Club.

The Murray Dancing club will give another one of their pleasant dances at the Jenkins hall in Murray on Saturday evening, March 25. ZUCKWEILER & LUTZ

MRS. MC VEY GOES TO SPRINGS FOR TREATMENT

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. McVey, residing near Nehawka, were passengers through the city yesterday afternoon en route to Burlington Junction, Mo., where Mrs. McVey goes to the sanitarium for treatment for rheumatism. She has been suffering for the past three weeks and every possible home treatment was administered without avail, and she continued to grow worse until it had become almost impossible for her to walk. Mrs. McVey has certainly experienced a great deal more than her share of sickness during the past few years, being several times in the hospital, submitting to operations, with the hope of gaining her strength, and now suffers a severe attack of inflammatory rheumatism. The many friends hope that she may soon find relief.

THROWN FROM AN AUTO NEAR MURRAY AND INJURED

On Sunday afternoon Mrs. T. W. Swan, who resides two miles north of Union, met with quite a serious accident. The family was out riding and enjoying the fine weather and were going at a fair rate of speed when one of the wheels struck a stone in the road, throwing Mrs. Swan out, and she alighted on the ground in such a manner as to injure her kneecap quite badly. At first it was thought the lady had broken a limb, and she no doubt feels grateful that the accident did not result more seriously. As it is she will probably be confined to her home for several days and perhaps weeks.

Getting Things Arranged.

A. Hast returned to Murray Tuesday evening and is again a very much busy man getting things arranged to his idea of carrying on business. He intends to close out the lines that he is long on at very low prices, and will build up the lines that he is short on, and in the future will carry one of the newest and best lines of goods ever shown in Murray. It is his intention to give the people the very best goods that can be found anywhere. He will continue to pay the highest market price for all farm produce. He is after a share of your trade, and if kind and courteous treatment, combined with the best goods for the money, will get it, we predict that he will be there with both feet.

Big Shoe Sale.

If you miss the big shoe sale that is going to be put on at the store of A. Hast, commencing on Saturday of this week, and continuing for two weeks, you will surely miss the bargains of your life. This will be the greatest cut-price shoe sale ever offered to the people of this locality. We simply have too many shoes and we are going to make the price that will move them and move them quick, so if you want the cream of the bargains come in early. When the people learn of the great values we are offering them at this sale they are going to buy and buy fast. Just think of your buying shoes from a new and up-to-date stock like this for less than one-half their value.

JOLLY EIGHT CARD CLUB DELIGHTFULLY ENTERTAINED

The cosy home of Mrs. Henry Timm on West Marble street was the scene of a very charming card party yesterday afternoon, when Mrs. Timm entertained the ladies of the Jolly Eight Card club in a most delightful manner. The principal amusement was derived from the fascinating game of high five, played in a progressive way, while sociability reigned supreme. Handsome prizes were awarded to the winners, Mrs. Jesse Warga capturing the first prize, a landscape picture, and Mrs. Will Mason carried off the second prize, a china hatpin receiver, Mrs. Warga and Mrs. Mason being sisters. Following the card games the guests enjoyed a few moments in a social way and then a dainty as well as delicious luncheon was provided by the hostess, which the ladies found delightfully appetizing and pleasant. At a late hour the guests departed for their homes, indebted to the hostess for her most kind hospitality and splendid entertainment afforded them.

Those who enjoyed this occasion were: Mesdames John Lutz, Henry Ofe, Will Mason, Jesse Warga, Nels Chrisinger, Roy Burdick, Anton Kanka, Mrs. Lake of Denver, Colo.; O. Crockery, Andy Kroehler; Misses Pearl Mumm and Paula Goos.

BIG SPECIAL SALE ON SHOES!

Commencing Saturday, March 25th, and continuing for the NEXT TWO WEEKS!

SHOES WILL GO AT LESS THAN ONE-HALF PRICE!

We have but one reason for offering special inducements to buy shoes at this time, that is after in voicing our line of goods recently purchased from Holmes & Smith, we find that we have to many shoes, and in order to reduce this line, within the next two weeks, we are making the following extremely low prices. We are not making a special sale by employing foreign ability to place it on for us, but will do so ourselves and give our patrons the benefit of that saving also:

Ladies' Shoes

$3.50 values will go at $2.45
$3.00 values will go at $2.15
$2.50 values will go at $1.69
$2.00 values will go at $1.29

Children's Shoes

One lot of Children's Shoes that have sold for from 50c to $1.35, have been placed in this sale at, your choice..... 39c

Boys and Youths Shoes

In this lot we will place values ranging in price from $1.75 to $2.50, and the early buyers will receive their choice of the lot for..... $1.43

Men's Heavy Work Shoes

One lot of Men's Heavy Work Shoes, special values from $1.50 to $2.75, your choice of the lot for..... $1.00
One lot of Men's Fine Dress Shoes, light weight, formerly sold from $3.50 to $4.00. In this lot you will find many extra values. Choice of the lot for..... $2.69

In addition to the above special lots of shoes we will place on sale a fine lot of extra value shoes at 33 1/3 off the former price of Holmes & Smith. No such reductions in fine footwear were ever offered to the people of Cass county by any firm, and we know it, but we must reduce this line, simply because we have too many shoes and nothing more. Will you buy them now and save more than 1/2 your shoe money for the next year.
