CASE DISPOSED OF IN THE DISTRICT COURT

Judge Travis held a session of the district court this morning and disposed of some matters which were pending.

The case of Laughlin against Welton a suit over the possession of certain real estate in Greenwood, was decided in favor of the plaintiff. The litigation grew out of a tax sale certificate which covered property of Mr. Laughlin, Mr. Welton becoming the tax sale purchaser. Mr. Laughlin sought to redeem, but the defendant objected to taking the money or yielding possession of the lots. The court found the equities with Mr. Laughlin.

On the criminal side of the court, Oklahoma Vanderburg, who has been in jail awaiting a hearing for violating his parol, having pleaded guilty at the term of court last June to the charge of wife desertion, was before the court this morning asking for a renewal of the parol. Vandenberg has been a model prisoner, and while he is shut in from temptation to booze he is a good citizen. While in the jail he has painted the interior and beautified the old shack until some of our citizens find it a quiet retreat and a desirable place to rest. Judge Travis gave Oklahoma some good advice, recounting the fact that he had been able to do without stimulant for the past twenty or thirty days, and that now that it was out of his system he should not touch it again. And on condition that he go back to his family, become a sober, industrious citizen, leaving the booze drinking entirely alone, and that he write the judge a letter every week telling him what he was doing, the court would renew the parol and permit him to return to his wife. But as soon as the pledges exacted were broken he would be re-arrested and sentenced to the penitentiary.

Out of Commission.

The electric light plant at the Masonic home has been out of commission for the past two days, owing to the gas engine refusing to run for that length of time. Paint Is a Big Help.

Among the many people who are using paint quite freely this spring we notice Simon Clark as one of them. He has just added a fresh coat of paint to his residence property in the Third ward, which certainly adds greatly to the appearance of the house. Mr. Clark's son-in-law, Robert Stivers, is doing the work. There is room for many more to follow this example.

MORE ABOUT THE DE-MISE OF ROBERT GIENGER

Mr. Robert Gienger died at 3:30 Thursday morning at St. Joseph's hospital, Omaha, after a severe hemorrhage from an abscess of the brain, surviving an operation performed only a week ago last Monday. Hopes were entertained for his recovery after the operation, but he took a turn for the worse at 9 p. m. Wednesday and died, aged 45 years, 4 months and 4 days.

He was married in Plattsmouth July 12, 1893, to Miss Agatha Tucker, and resided in this city for some time. While here he was an employee of the Burlington, making many warm friends in this city. Later he moved to Omaha and then to Lincoln, where he was employed as rate clerk for the Burlington. He held that position for several years, when he removed again to Omaha, where he has been employed in the auditing department of the Union Pacific Railway company. He leaves a wife and three sons, the sons being aged 16, 12 and 8, and a baby girl 1 year and 6 months old. He also leaves three sisters and two brothers, who reside in Everett, Pennsylvania.

Funeral services were held this afternoon at 3 o'clock at Dodder's chapel, 2224 Cuming street, Omaha.

Card of Thanks.

To the kind neighbors and friends who so generously aided us during the illness and death of our beloved husband and brother, we extend our most heartfelt thanks, and especially do we thank the foundry men for the beautiful flowers and the Odd Fellows for their kindness.

Mrs. George Payne.
Mrs. Stella Grocrock (sister).

THE COMING OF THAT PEST THE DANDELION

Several thousand Lincolmites are looking forward with increasing dread to the coming of spring because with that season the dandelion will again blossom forth upon the lawn. For nearly ten years now the dandelion plague has oppressed the folks in this section. Nothing has been found that will rid the lawns of this pest, and the only remedy has been to dig and dig and then dig some more. In vain has the News pleaded with the experts out at the state farm to ferret out something that would save all this back-breaking toil, and their failure to respond, we must admit, has caused us to lose a great deal of our confidence in their ability to rise to all emergencies. They have apparently devoted their energies towards increasing crop yields, finding remedies for soil fills and helping agriculture generally, but have been heedless of the fact that we of the town help pay their salaries, and ought to get some direct benefit. What is a scientist for anyway, if he doesn't know more about such things than the common folks?—Lincoln News.

Miss Pearl Owens, the pleasant little lady clerk in the J. E. Mason confectionery store, resumed her duties this morning. Miss Owens met with an accident a few days ago by getting her finger severely mashed in the jams of a closing door, which necessitated her taking a few days' absence from the store.

THE GREATEST GASOLINE SAVER IN THE WORLD!

Saves you from $60.00 to $300.00 and more in gasoline every year you run a Chopie Gasoline Engine

This is what you can do with a Chopie, and get more power on half and even less gasoline as compared with engines of other makes.

Now you are paying 17c for your gasoline. Here are the results that can be obtained through the use of a Chopie engine—its real money in your pocket:

2½ h. p. saves ¼ gals. gasoline or per day . . . 21c	300 days saves $63.00
4 h. p. saves 2¼ gals. gasoline or per day . . . 38c	300 days saves $114.00
6 h. p. saves 3½ gals. gasoline or per day . . . 59c	300 days saves $177.00
10 h. p. saves 6 gals. gasoline or per day . . . $1.02	300 days saves $306.00

These statements are not based on hot air, but are based upon actual facts which are backed by absolute guarantee of the manufacturer. What could be fairer?

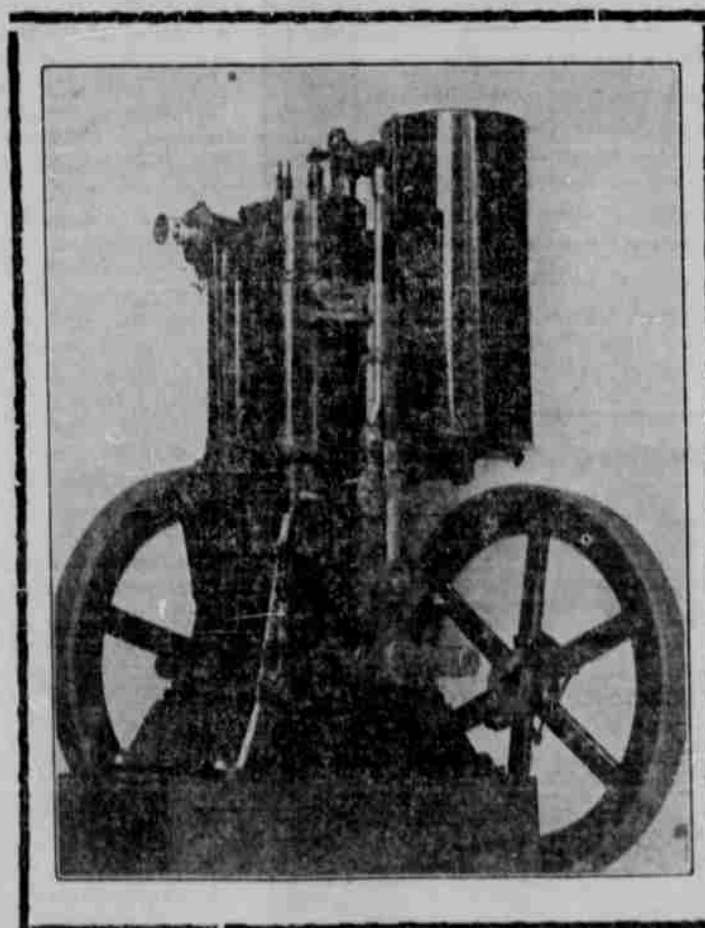

Figure out the above table and when you have the result you can easily see how long it will take you to save the price of a Chopie engine—so that it will really be a present to you.

The Chopie engines are all constructed of the best material obtainable and built by the best workmanship to be secured. The cylinder of the Chopie are chilled, thus making cutting or scoring impossible. A chilled cylinder will outwear three or four ordinary cylinders, because other cylinders will not stand up under the test to which they are put.

The Chopie is manufactured in Plattsmouth. This alone means much. Should a casting break you are not bothered with wiring some foreign firm to hurry the desired parts, and perhaps wait five or six days for their arrival—as is usually the case. Visit the factory, see for yourself. Investigate and place your order NOW.
