

Say, Folks! Next Sunday is

Easter, did you realize it?

We expect to sell a great many Easter suits this week, and we are certainly prepared to meet the demand. Our racks are hanging full of the "latest blossoms" of the suit kingdom and their beauty and attractiveness must be seen to be appreciated. Blue Serge has the call and in this sturdy fabric we show over twenty-five styles, ranging in price from the all-wool $10 one to the finest at $35. Then come beautiful tans, and browns, and grays in stripes and mixtures and diagonals. The fine pencil stripes are also favorites this season and we have them in black, blue, tan and brown grounds with white stripes, in prices $15 to $30. The graceful outlines of these suits and the magnificent tailoring that's in them are making customers for us every day. We want to show you these suits. We will not urge you to buy. Come early and take your time. If you're particular we'll take special pains with you.

Impatience.

If patience is needed in every phase of our life, in our occupation, in society and in our family circle, it is mostly needed in sickness. A cranky patient is an untold burden to his innocent surroundings. In such cases it becomes necessary to shorten the sickness as much as possible. If it is a sickness of the digestive organs, we wish to recommend to your Triner's American Elixir of Bitter Wine as a very effective remedy with quick results. It cleans out the system thoroughly and strengthens it at the same time; it creates a healthy appetite and promotes digestion. You should try it in acute and habitual constipation, flatulence, headache, nausea, vomiting, colic and cramps; it often quickly relieves rheumatic and neuralgia pains. At drug store, Jos. Triner, 1333-1339 So. Ashland ave., Chicago, Illinois.

MEET IN THE CLUB ROOMS OF PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

The Ladies' Aid society of the Presbyterian church held a most delightful meeting yesterday afternoon in the club room of the church. There was no business session held at this time, the occasion being purely of a social nature. There were a large number of the ladies and friends of the society in attendance, who enjoyed an afternoon which will long be remembered. The time was very pleasantly spent in social conversation and various other amusements. Each lady had been requested to bring something along the line of eatables for the necessary fixings for a picnic luncheon, and at a convenient hour all sat down to a most delicious luncheon, which was served in regular picnic style and which was thoroughly enjoyed in regular picnic fashion. It was a late hour when all had departed for their homes, voting the occasion one of the most enjoyable they had participated in for some time.

THE SECOND "BARGAIN DAY" IN NEBRASKA CITY

The Journal has been advocating the idea of Plattsmouth merchants putting on a "Bargain Day," but as yet no move has been made in that direction. Nebraska City had its second event of this kind last Tuesday, and the News closes a long article in commending the occasion and the merchants who "joined in the procession," as follows:

"The merchants were all well pleased with the day and expect to establish a series of these sales throughout the year and have each merchant come into the association and boost in this matter of bringing people here to trade and to make it their permanent trading place. These sales have been under the direction of the Retail Merchants' association and it is through their united efforts they have been such a success. It is therefore the duty of every retailer in this city to become a member of the association and join in the good movement for the extension of the territory from which this city draws its trade."

The Sound Sleep of Good Health.

Cannot be over-estimated and any ailment that prevents it is a menace to health. J. L. Souther, Eau Claire, Wis., says: "I have been unable to sleep soundly nights, because of pains across my back and soreness of my kidneys. My appetite was very poor and my general condition was much run down. I have been taking Foley Kidney Pills but a short time and now sleep as sound as a rock, my general condition is greatly improved, and I know that Foley Kidney Pills have cured me." For sale by Fricke & Co.

Always Glad to Meet Him.

William Foltz of Weeping Water, who has been spending the winter with his brother at South Omaha, was in the city for a few hours today and dropped in to pay the Journal a friendly visit and renew his subscription for another year. It is a pleasure to meet gentlemen like Mr. Foltz, as he is a rock-ribbed democrat, thus following in the footsteps of his father, who is now deceased, one of the grandest men Cass county ever possessed. Mr. Foltz returned to South Omaha this afternoon.

One Conductor Helped Back to Work.

Mr. Wilford Adams is his name, and he writes: "I was confined to my bed with chronic rheumatism and used two bottles of Foley's Kidney Remedy with good effect. REPRESENTATIVES FROM THREE STATES OF WOODMEN OF THE WORLD MEET

Over Two Hundred Delegates in Attendance and Hastings Treats Them Royally—W. B. Rishel Represents Local Camp.

Mr. W. B. Rishel returned this morning from Hastings, where he attended, as a delegate, the biennial convention of the Woodmen of the World, which met in that city for a two days' session last Tuesday. Mayor C. L. Miles of Hastings made the speech of welcome, which was responded to by Rev. T. D. Davis of Tecumseh. Mr. Rishel has warm words of praise for the hospitality of the people of Hastings, and says the delegates were given the best the city had to bestow. The following reference to the convention affairs in the Hastings Daily Tribune of Wednesday, April 12: The Woodmen of the World closed their head camp convention for Jurisdiction A this morning after selecting Hot Springs, S. D., as the place for the next biennial meeting.

Although a number of towns were talked of among the delegates as the place for the next meeting the contest was really between Fremont and Hot Springs and the South Dakota town won in a walk. On account of the fact that the membership of this jurisdiction is larger in Nebraska than in either of the other two states many of the delegates at first favored holding the convention in some Nebraska town. The opposition to Hot Springs, however, soon broke down when a delegate from that town got the floor. He convinced his hearers that Hot Springs stands ready to extend its warmest hospitality to the Woodmen and that it will not only do its best to entertain the delegates during their stay there, but will give to the camp the sum of $600 to reimburse Nebraska members for additional transportation. The order has lately enjoyed excellent growth in the Dakotas and it was deemed wise on this account to place the convention at Hot Springs.

Following the election of officers yesterday the camp adopted resolutions making certain recommendations to the sovereign camp. Resolutions were adopted thanking Hastings for the hospitality displayed.

The automobile ride yesterday afternoon was the feature of the city's efforts to the entertainment of the visitors. The tour was originally planned for this afternoon, but at noon yesterday it was changed to 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon. That accounted for the failure to supply a sufficient number of machines to accommodate all who were ready to make the trip, it being impossible to communicate with the requisite number of car owners in the short time intervening. The tour was through various parts of the city and to Ingleside.

The Woodmen of the World is a Nebraska institution, founded in Omaha in 1891. It now has 563,187 members in good standing. The headquarters building, now being erected in Omaha, will be the finest building in Nebraska.

Over 200 Woodmen attended the banquet last night, which was served by Yager.

The next convention will be held on the second Tuesday in April, 1913.

SERIOUSLY BURNED HANDS WHILE APPLYING ALCOHOL

Mr. John Buck, who resides with his daughter, Mrs. Ed Gansmeyer, came to the city this morning to have his injured hands dressed again today. Some days ago Mr. Buck had his hands badly burned while having alcohol applied for rheumatism. Mr. Buck was holding his hands over a warm stove while the alcohol was being applied, when some of the liquid flowed on the heated iron, blazing up and catching and igniting the alcohol on the patient's hands. His left hand was badly burned. The hands of his daughter, Mrs. Jacob Hild, who was assisting Mr. Buck at the time, were slightly burned also. Mr. Buck's injuries were dressed as soon as a physician could be called, and he has suffered considerably from his burns since. Dick Maybee, of near Weeping Water drove in with Mr. Buck this morning from the farm and brought him to the doctor's office.

Good results always follow the use of Foley Kidney Pills. They give prompt relief in all cases of kidney and bladder disorders. Try them. For sale by Fricke & Co.

Mr. Herman Streetweiser was an Omaha passenger on the morning train today, where he was called on business.

"What's Butter Worth?"

By means of local Bell Telephone service, the value of farm products has increased two-fold. When prices are high, farm produce can be sold, and when low, the farmer's wife can wait for an advance before she sells.

Local Bell Service keeps the farmer's wife in close touch with the social life of the community, and the long distance lines permit her to visit with her friends and relatives in distant towns.
