The Courier is in receipt of a letter from M. W. Miles, formerly of this place, but now located at Fullerton, in which he sends his best regards to Louisville friends. He says Fullerton is a fine town and that he likes his new position.

Fruit growers say that the prospects for good apple and cherry crops have not been better for years. They declare that the cold spring has retarded the development of the buds and that has safeguarded the crop so far. They point out, however, that there is danger till the middle of May from heavy freezes. If the prospects make good there will be one of the largest cherry crops in many years. Last year the crop was very light and the year previous it was a partial failure.

In our mention last week of the names of teachers elected we unintentionally omitted the name of Miss Daisy Johnson, who was re-elected for the first primary term. This is a most important position, as the starting point has much to do with the success of the scholar in the other grades. Miss Johnson is a most popular primary teacher and we are sorry to learn that she is not to remain with us, having accepted a position at Papillion at an increase of salary, since her re-election by the local school board.

Announcement.

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for the nomination of the office of sheriff, subject to the decision of the voters at the coming primary. I ask them to place me in nomination on the democratic ticket. D. C. Rhoden.
