AMERICANS who have allied themselves with the insurrectionists can scarcely expect PROTECTION LONGER UNDER THE AMERICAN FLAG, and it would seem obvious that they take their own chances for committing depredations on property under a foreign flag.

I AM FIRMLY CONVINCED THAT EXCEPT FOR THE SYMPATHY, FINANCIAL SUPPORT AND ACTUAL PARTICIPATION IN CONFLICT OF AMERICANS THE INSURRECTION IN CHIHUAHUA AND SONORA COULD NOT LONG CONTINUE. ALMOST DAILY ONE READS OF THE PART TAKEN BY AMERICANS IN THAT INSURRECTION, AND THEY ARE THE ONLY KNOWN LEADERS EXCEPT MADERO.

I wonder if those individuals and other Americans who have had any SYMPATHY for or have taken any part in that INSURRECTION realize the full significance and importance of their attitude and acts.

As is pretty generally known, the line of the National Railways between Juarez and Torreon is practically out of service because of the DEPREDACTIONS COMMITTED BY MEXICAN REBELS AND AMERICAN SYMPATHIZERS.

Poverty Would Vanish if We'd All Help One Another

By FREDERICK TOWNSEND MARTIN,
New York Society Leader

MAN is the GREATEST INHABITANT on the face of the earth—the thinker, the dreamer, the builder. From clay he constructs the most mighty edifices. He catches the light and heat from the thunderbolt and from the sun. His work STAGGERS the imagination.

NOW, IF ONLY ALL OF US WOULD SERVE EACH AND IF EACH WOULD SERVE ALL NOBODY WOULD BE POOR AND POVERTY WOULD DISAPPEAR. CHARITY ALONE WILL NEVER SOLVE THE PROBLEM OF POVERTY. NO ONE WANTS TO LIVE UPON CHARITY. WHAT THE LABORING CLASSES IN THIS COUNTRY WANT IS NOT CHARITY, BUT JUSTICE.

The happiest people on the face of the earth are those who GAIN THEIR BREAD IN THE SWEAT OF THEIR BROW.

The curse that comes with riches is SUSPICION, the suspicion of one's own friends. Only recently I tried to introduce one of my friends to a man, and he asked me sharply, "What the deuce does he want to get out of me?" The only people in the world who are happy are those who forget themselves and work for their families.

Providing of Counsel For Criminals Tends to Encourage Them

By Captain H. ARNOLD, Head of the Bridgeport (Conn.)
Detective Bureau

MODERN COURT PROCEDURE, APPLYING PARTICULARLY TO THE RELATIONS OF ACCUSED AND COUNSEL BEFORE AND DURING THE FIRST PART OF A TRIAL, IS RADICALLY WRONG AND TENDS TO ENCOURAGE CRIMES OF EVERY DESCRIPTION RATHER THAN CHECK AND DECREASE THEM.

RADICAL AND SWEEPING CHANGES in this particular and also in the juvenile probation law operative in numerous states is the quickest and most efficient means of REDUCING statute violations to a minimum and IMPRESSING those criminally inclined with a wholesome RESPECT for the law and authorities.

Compel the accused person to become PERSONALLY RESPONSIBLE for his actions. Separate him from the advice and PROMPTINGS of an attorney, who is retained by him or assigned by the state and paid to find a loophole for his ESCAPE. Compel him to tell his own story, refuting the charges or explaining how it happened. Have him realize that upon his testimony depends his DISCHARGE OR CONVICTION.

If innocent he will hasten to clear himself. If guilty he will realize that the best thing to do is to tell a straight story and trust to the mercy of the court.

AGAIN APPEALS FOR PROTECTION

Settler Unable to Furnish Bond for Case Against Cattlemen.

ASK AID OF STATE OFFICIALS.

Rudolph Noetzelman of Garden County Says County Judge Refused to Issue Warrants in Assault Case Unless Excessive Bond for Costs Is Furnished.

Lincoln, May 29.—Rudolph Noetzelman of Garden county has appealed to state officials for protection from the cattlemen of that section of the state, alleging that when seeking the arrest of two of them who had assaulted him the county attorney asked him for such bond that it was impossible for him to push the matter himself.

Noetzelman says he was on a public highway when he was assaulted. He charges that the assault was made by Arthur Marshall and William Dodds and their hired men and that their wives took an initial part in the fray. Mr. Noetzelman says he was driving some cattle along the road on May 16 and when he passed the homes of Marshall and Dodds dogs were set on the animals and two or three hours' delay was caused in gathering the animals together. The cattle were taken to Llewellyn to be dipped. On the return trip the next day, Noetzelman says, he was pulled from his horse by Dodds and Marshall and their hired men and was beaten with clubs and that he was cared for by another settler and that he remained in bed until May 22, when he went to Oskosh, the county seat, to swear out a warrant for the arrest of Dodds and Marshall. He writes that County Attorney Williams was willing to push the case, but that County Judge Gumaer declined to issue warrants unless bond for costs was furnished. Mr. Noetzelman has a family of six children to care for and he says he is a poor man and being unable to furnish bond for costs the county judge refused to issue warrants. He now asks protection from the state.

MARKER FOR OREGON TRAIL

D. A. R. Places Monster Boulder at Its Beginning at Nebraska City.

Nebraska City, Neb., May 29.—The Daughters of the American Revolution of this city, having secured permission from the city council to erect a monument at the corner of Fifth street, went out in the country and selected a monster boulder, the kind that is to be found in this part of the state. It will be removed to this city and placed on a heavy cement base and marked with a large bronze tablet showing the spot to be the starting point of the overland California trail for those who went west in the early days of 1848 and later years. This spot was near the old block house, which marked the spot for years and in which the settlers took shelter from the Indians in the early days.

It is proposed to drag through the center of York county a road twenty-four miles long, also a road through the center east and west twenty-four miles long. These roads will be maintained by the automobile owners of York county.

ANOTHER FINE PRODUCTION

The Wonderful Success Achieved
to be Added to Next Week.

Following the determined and commendable policy of presenting only the very latest and highest class of plays, the Lloyd Ingraham Stock company will make an appeal for patronage the coming week which to the true lover of the very best type of dress will be irresistible.

In staging at the Gayety theater in Omaha during the week starting Sunday afternoon, Bertha Galland's recent starring vehicle, "The Return of Eve," the management will be offering a dramatic work that has never been seen in Omaha. Miss Galland presented the play in all the larger cities in the Shubert theaters and attained no small measure of success. It is of unusual construction and its theme is one rarely handled by dramatists—in fact, when Mr. Ingraham read the play for the first time he was so impressed with it that he stated in no mistaken terms that were this the regular season instead of the summer season, he would expect the play to enjoy as long and as profitable a run as did "The Devil" three seasons ago.

To the romantically inclined it will be a pleasure to know that the two "leads" of the company, Mr. Pollard and Miss Fischer, are cast for roles that call for the best there is in them, the parts being Adam and Eve respectively. There will be matinees Sunday, Thursday and Saturday and a holiday matinee on Tuesday afternoon. Decoration day. Following is the interesting story of this remarkable play:

Eli Tupper, an eccentric millionaire, has left a portion of his fortune to carry out a theory that man, if allowed to return to his primitive state, would live longer, be happier and finally found a race almost god-like in their strength of brain and sinew. His will provides that two orphaned infants be taken by old Winters, an old servant, and brought up in a forest of 10,000 acres, shut out from the sight of human eye until they reach their majority, when they are to be taken and set down in New York society under the future tutelage of Mrs. Tupper-Bellamy, where the final test of the theory is to be made.

The first act finds Adam and Eve grown to their majority and ready to be taken to New York to carry out the final experiment. The second act shows the future Eve makes in society, which Eve, in her innocence, is much in love with. Adam, with his man's mind, immediately sees through the shallow veneer which covers that society and tries to prevail upon Eve to return to Eden at once before the world and its evil way claim her for its own. She refuses and remains, while Adam and Old Winters return sadly to their Eveless Eden. In the third act Eve herself has the veil lifted and sees the emptiness of the life she has chosen. She finds the men soft-handed and shallow; the women hypocritical and mean; and the dowager, Mrs. Tupper-Bellamy, whom she has learned to love, she finds to be only anxious to get the money the old millionaire willed her for her chaperonage. Eve denounces them all and returns to Eden, there presuming to live her years as she began them, with Adam and Old

Winters, the only beings that to her ring pure and true. The play will be cast as below:

A PLUCKY LADY WHO KNOWS HOW TO HANDLE A HORSE

A Runaway and Injury Averted by Presence of Mind and Courage.

From Saturday's Daily.

A very exciting runaway occurred on Sixth street this morning, but owing to the nerve and presence of mind of the lady who handled the reins no one was injured and no damage resulted.

A lady, who refused to give her name, was driving a fractious bay hitched to a buggy, when, from an unaccountable reason, the horse made a dash north on Sixth street and was going at a rapid gallop when the hill was reached. The lady driver seemed to be pulling him in with all her strength, but the horse kept right on up the hill, drawing the buggy and occupant by the lines.

Before the top of the hill was reached the plucky driver had the horse under control and turned him about and drove back to town, taking the horse to the Schmidtman harness shop, where she had the harness slightly repaired, and procured a more secure bit. The driver said her horse was not frightened, but just set out to run.

TORNADO KILLS TWO IN ILLINOIS

Storm Strikes Peking and Causes Great Damage to Property.

ROOFS BLOWN FROM HOUSES.

Tornado Follows River and Residence Part of City Escapes—Wire Communication Is Demolished—Twenty Injured When Grandstand Falls.

Peoria, Ill., May 29.—A tornado struck Peking, ten miles south of this city, killing two people and causing property damage that will amount to thousands. The dead are two boys, Clyde Sakers and Frank Woolley.

The storm came from the southwest. The pumping station on the opposite bank of the Illinois river was first to feel the effects of the storm and was completely destroyed. The storm then jumped across the river and the plants of the Boley Ice company were completely destroyed.

Trees were uprooted, roofs blown from houses and plate glass windows smashed in the business section of Peking. The storm followed the river and the residence part of the city escaped. Wire communication of all kinds is completely demolished.

GRANDSTAND COLLAPSES

High Wind Topples It Over Upon Crowd of Players Seeking Refuge.

Granite City, Ill., May 29.—Twenty spectators at a baseball game were more or less seriously injured when the grandstand collapsed under a heavy wind.

Sidney Mangus, twenty-two years of age, of Granite City was the most seriously injured, receiving a broken leg and internal hurts. It is said he will die. Twelve of the twenty persons injured were baseball players.

Most of the spectators fled at the approach of the storm. The grandstand was picked up bodily by the storm and hurled upon a crowd of players, who huddled behind it, seeking refuge from a bombardment of hail.

Storm Strikes St. Louis.

St. Louis, May 29.—A storm which almost attained the dimensions of a tornado in parts of this city wrought considerable damage to residences and in the parks. A physician, Dr. J. J. Meredith, who sought shelter under a tree during the height of the storm in the west end, was denuded by a bolt of lightning, though he was unhurt.

TOBACCO CASE RULING READY

Decision by United States Supreme Court Is Expected Today.

Washington, May 29.—The United States supreme court is expected to hand down today a decision in the tobacco trust case favorable to the government.

In the judgment of officials of the department of justice, this decision is forecasted by the action of the court in the Standard Oil case. It is expected the court will make clearer its views as to what it meant by "unreasonable" restraint of trade and "rule of reason."

It has been reported for some days that the court reached its decision with respect to the tobacco trust at the time it decided the Standard Oil case, but deemed it expedient not to hand down the two decisions at once. It realized it was writing into law a policy which would give rise to some question, and that it would be wise to interpret that policy in a subsequent opinion.

Cherokee, Ia., May 29.—As a result of friction between the families of James and Peter McIntosh, prominent farmers living near here, James shot his brother twice. One bullet passed through Peter's neck and the other penetrated his breast. Members of the two families bound the assailant with ropes and he was brought here and lodged in jail. The wounded man is in a dangerous condition.
