FUNERAL OF ONE WHO MET DEATH IN WRECK

George Freer, Expressman, Who Was Killed in the Burlington Wreck Monday Morning.

From Wednesday's Daily.

The funeral of George Freer, one of the unfortunate messengers to be killed in the collision near Indianola, Neb., Monday morning, and an old-time Plattsmouth man, was held at St. Luke's church this morning at 11 o'clock. Rev. W. H. Bayley, rector of St. Paul's, rector of St. John's and chaplain of Clarkson hospital at Omaha had charge of the service at the church and spoke of the resurrection of the body, and Canon Burgess officiated at the grave. The service was a very impressive one. Interment was made in Oak Hill cemetery. The pallbearers were: George Langdon of Kearney, Neb.; Fred McCauley, Fred Morgan, William Clement, Joe McMaken and Frank Buttery.

The deceased was born in Lyons, Iowa, March 4, 1874, and was a little past 40 years of age. When quite a small child his parents removed to Plattsmouth and George was reared here, attending the public schools and had many warm friends in this city. He became a railroad employee when quite young, perhaps about 15 years of age, when he began as a messenger boy. His first run as an express messenger for the Adams Express company was from Pacific Junction to Concordia, Kansas. Afterward he was a messenger on No. 5 and 12 for a number of years. For a time he was the local agent of the Adams Express company at this place.

A few years ago he was married to Miss Samuels of Wymore, and after his marriage made Plattsmouth his home for some time, and about six years ago removed to Omaha, where he has since resided. For almost eighteen years he has had the run from Pacific Junction to Denver on 5 and 12. He was a charter member of Platt Council of the Knights and Ladies of Security, in which order he had his membership when his life was snuffed out while in the line of his duty Monday on No. 12 en route from Denver east. He leaves surviving him his wife and one sister, Mrs. Una Richter of Canton, South Dakota.

Those from out-of-town who attended the funeral were: Mr. and Mrs. Herman Richter of Canton, South Dakota; Mrs. Mitchell of Denver, Miss Kempian of Omaha, Rev. W. H. Bayley of Omaha, of whose church Mr. Freer was a member; Mr. and Mrs. Samuel of Wymore and Mrs. Freer of Omaha.

Masonic Parlors Dedicated.

From Monday's Daily.

Canon Burgess conducted services at the Masonic home parlors yesterday afternoon, this being the first service since the parlors have been overhauled and repainted and repapered. Some fine anthems were rendered by St. Luke's choir, and an excellent feeling pervaded the service. The members of the home are to be congratulated on the beauty and home-like appearance of their parlors since being touched up by the artists.

BAD ROADS DID IT.

A farmer old, so we've been told,
With a team of horses strong,
Drove down the road with a heavy load
While singing his merry song.
But his mirth in song was not so long,
For his horses gave a leap,
As he ran amuck in the mud he stuck
Clear up to his ankles deep.
Bad roads did it!

And a wheelman gay went out one day
For a joyful morning spin.
With the weather bright his heart was light
As he left the country inn.
But he went not far when he left a jar
Which started his trouble and cares.
He was laid up ill, while the doctor's bill
Came in with the one for repairs.
Bad roads did it!

In an automobile of wood and steel
A millionaire prim and neat
Went out for a ride by the river's side
In style that was hard to beat.
But, alas, he found that the broken ground
And the ruts and the holes so great
Had smashed a wheel of his automobile—
What he said we cannot relate.
Bad roads did it!

But we're glad to say there shines a ray
Of hope that will right this wrong,
When in every state they will legislate
To help the good roads along.
So the man with his wheel or automobile
Will never again get blue,
And the farmer with smiles will travel for miles
On a road that is fit to use.
Good roads will do it!

THE PRESBYTERIAN BOYS PAID DEBT YESTERDAY

By Furnishing the Methodist Sunday School With Fine Picnic Dinner and Outing.

A month or so ago the boys of the Presbyterian and M. E. Sunday schools agreed to play some ball and they also agreed that the losing side would treat the winners to a picnic, this picnic to be given a few days after the contest had been closed.

The first game resulted in a victory for the Presbyterian boys, but in the second game the boys of the Methodist Sunday school won. In playing off the tie the Methodist boys succeeded in winning again, and consequently were entitled to the treat, the picnic. The Presbyterian boys immediately got busy, planned and arranged for this picnic. A very appropriate place was selected, it being the ball park on Chicago avenue, and furthermore, it was decided to hold the picnic yesterday.

Early in the morning the boys, chaperoned by Mr. Pierson of the Methodist Sunday school, wended their way to the ball park for the purpose of having an all-day outing and to make good their agreement. The boys spent the greater portion of the day in playing ball, all sorts of sports, puns and pranks which boys like to indulge in, and various games, but the principal amusement was derived from an endless number of games of the popular game of ball.

At the noon hour a fine picnic dinner was spread on the green beneath the spreading oak tree, and after having eat and eat and eat until they could not eat any more, the boys concluded that they had thoroughly relished this picnic dinner and they say that it was a dandy. The remainder of the afternoon was spent in playing some more ball, and then all dispersed. The Methodist boys report the Presbyterian boys know how to get up a picnic dinner, even if they don't know how to beat the Methodist boys playing ball.
