While doing some papering at their home Tuesday, Miss Pauline Oldham fell from the ladder, slightly cutting her arm upon a broken window, at the same time quite painfully bruising her arm and shoulder.

Miss Mattie Minnear left Tuesday for Grand Island to attend the State Sunday School convention, being a delegate from the Presbyterian Sunday school, Mrs. James Longbridge accompanied her.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Holmes and Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Brown returned home yesterday evening from Vallisca, Iowa, where they went last Friday for a few days' visit. The trip was made in the automobile of Mr. Holmes and the visit was made at the home of Mrs. W. C. Brown's parents.

Mrs. V. A. Kennedy was a delegate to the Sunday school convention at Union.

J. W. Berger is in the concrete business this week, laying new walks around his house.

Mrs. William LaRue and daughter, Miss Edith, visited Mrs. LaRue's brother in Omaha Sunday.

Miss Isabella Young visited friends at Betheny and attended the commencement exercises last week.

Mrs. W. S. Smith and her father, A. M. Holmes attended the Sunday school convention at Union Friday.

Misses Elsie and Tessa Stokes and Arthur Copenhagen spent Sunday with the girls' aunt, Mrs. Miller, at Weeping Water.

T. J. McCullough went to Plattsmouth Wednesday evening, where he spent a few hours visiting with county seat friends.

Strawberries are a full yield here this year, many families picking as many as 75 and 100 quarts at one time off small patches.

Miss Etta Nickles was taken sick on the road to Plattsmouth Saturday and was taken to the home of Mrs. McDonald. She was unable to be taken home until Sunday evening.

J. W. Berger is preparing to take a summer vacation and has his ticket and route selected for an extended trip in southern California, where his sisters reside. Mrs. Berger has relatives at San Jose, Oakland and Lindsay, and, of course, the trip will be a very pleasant one. He expects to start next Monday. He was in Omaha Monday of this week and purchased his ticket.

We know some people in Murray who have never seen a box-elder bug, that it at least a small one, and in such quantities as they hover around this season.

Uncle Joseph Sans, who has been in the hospital for the past few weeks, has returned home and is getting along nicely, with excellent prospects for permanent recovery.

Earl Jenkins and wife and grandmother were in Omaha Sunday spending the day with Miss Julia at the hospital. They autoed to Plattsmouth, where they took the B. & M.

Bert Root of Big Springs, Nebraska, arrived in Murray a few days ago for a visit with his uncle, B. A. Root. While here he was presented with a position on the carpenter staff of W. W. Hamilton, which he accepted and has gone to work. He will probably remain for some time.

Our excellent friend, H. C. Long, is in the hog business for true this season, and with no bad luck he will sure make a killing when they are ready for market. At the present time he has a total of 650 hogs on his place, 450 pigs and the balance old ones. This sure is a bunch of them.

Frank, the 9-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Schwab, residing west of Murray, fell from the hog shed Wednesday about noon and broke his right arm at the elbow. While the accident was quite painful, medical attention was immediately summoned, and at this time the young man is getting along nicely.

Mr. A. Hast has been adding a new coat of paint and paper to the interior of his store room and making some other changes in the arrangement of his stock. Mr. Hast is alive to the situation of doing business and is going to exert every effort to get his share. If good goods and courteous treatment will win there is no doubt of his success.

Opha Baker, who was taken to the hospital in Omaha a few days ago, where she was operated upon for tuberculosis, is getting along nicely at this time. The second operation, or rather the closing up of the first incision, occurred Wednesday, and the physicians have every hope for her permanent recovery. Mrs. Baker has been with her since she first entered the hospital and will bring her home in a few days. Dr. B. F. Brendel went up to see her Tuesday night, returning home Wednesday morning.

At the Brendel Home.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Brendel gave their sons and daughters a good old-fashioned home-coming dinner last Sunday, and, of course, the entire day was spent under the parental roof in company with far away Indiana cousins. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Dr. J. W. Brendel and Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Brendel of Avoca; Dr. O. E. Brendel and wife, Mrs. Harvey and baby, and Mrs. Stultz, all of Zionsville, Ind.; Miss Edith and Harry Marquardt of Avoca; Mable and Maude Nichols of Nebraska City; A. L. Baker and Mr. and Mrs. Will Seybolt. The following day the entire party made a trip down to the river, where they day was spent in a genuine outing and good time.

Sixty-sixth Anniversary.

There was sure a mighty pleasant time held at the fine farm home of our excellent friends, Mr. and Mrs. William Puls, sr., west of Murray, Tuesday evening. The occasion was the 66th birthday anniversary of Mr. Puls, and his sons and daughters planned a surprise for him that was sure a success in every particular. There was quite a number of relatives and friends present to assist in the celebration, and we are informed that Mr. Puls was one of the happiest in the bunch. Such men as Mr. Puls are not found every day, and the many friends join with the Journal in wishing him many more such occasions. There were many good things to eat.

Barn Dance.

There will be a genuine good, old-fashioned barn dance at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Puls on next Saturday evening, June 10. There is a good time in store for you, and you are invited to attend.

Loses Fine Shoot.

Mr. J. T. Porter of near Murray and Mr. J. C. Snively of the same vicinity, were in the city today looking after business matters. Mr. Porter had the misfortune to lose a fine blooded pig for which he had been offered a $10 bill some days ago. The pig died from a shock, having been run over by an automobile which passed the Porter home at a high rate of speed, and Mr. Porter says the track would indicate that the chauffeur had run his machine out of the road in order to get his pig. He thinks an automobile on the farm is all right, but says the farmers should use some judgment in the way he runs his auto.

Supper at the Bridge.

A party of Plattsmouth young ladies prepared their supper last evening and went down to the big Burlington bridge on the banks of the Big Muddy to enjoy an outing for a few hours and eat supper. There were nine in the party, as follows: Misses Alleen Rennie, Myrtle Hall, Lulu Welch, Ferris and Katie York, Laura Socher, Edith Johnson, Olga and Amanda Sattler. They had a very pleasant time.

THE CHILDREN'S DRESSES

ARE FINE VALUES

The lot of Gingham and White Lawn Dresses for girls from 2 to 14 years of age are the best values for the money we have ever seen. You shouldn't spend your time and energy making dresses for the little girl this hot weather, when you can get one ready made cheaper than you can make it, and they are neat and dressy too.

The Gingham Dresses come in sizes, 2 to 12 years, are long waisted, short sleeved and trimmed with bias bands. They sell at 30, 65 and 85c.

The White Lawn Dresses are trimmed with embroidery beading and ribbon and some are trimmed with embroidery edging and insertion. They come in sizes from 2 to 14 years and are priced at from 65c to $2.00.
