Avoca, 11; Elmwood, 7.
The Avoca ball team went to Elmwood Friday and defeated the team there by a score of 11 to 7. Both teams put up a good game. A return game will be played here soon. The score:
Elmwood 4 0 0 0 1 0 0 2—7
Avoca ... 0 0 2 2 4 0 2 0 1—11
Batteries—Gruber and Harmon; Lynn and Gonzales. Umpire—Clements.

Avoca, 9; Union, 4.
The Avoca team defeated Union Sunday at Union in a seven-inning game. The score:
Avoca 1 7 0 1 0 0 0—9
Union 0 1 0 2 0 1 0—4
Batteries—Kershner and Gruber; McKean and Graves. Umpire—Harmon.

Kids, 16; Huskies, 10.
One of the fastest games of the season was pulled off here last Wednesday afternoon. The Kids nine against the Huskies. Batteries, Trook and Everett for the Kids; Heckathorn and Stall for the Huskies. Henry Kuhnehn did some batting and base running that would do credit to a league player. Heckathorn and George Trook did exceptionally well. Gip Braezeale, the star third baseman for the Huskies, was in the game stronger than horse-radish. O. Teft, who is a hard batter, failed to get a hit, but played a good game in the field. The Huskies put up a good game, but were outclassed by the Kids. Ben Mohr covered the ground around first base in big league form. J. H. F. Ruhge, who has never played before, says that with a little practice he will make them all go some; he smoked two cigars during the game. The game finally ended after several hours of struggle, in a score of 16 to 10 in favor of the Kids.

Hon. C. E. Metzger in Town.
Hon. C. E. Metzger autoed into town yesterday afternoon to look after business matters and dropped in to spend a few moments in a social chat with the Journal people. This is Mr. Metzger's first trip to Plattsmouth since his return from California. Chris says he is kept pretty busy looking after the farming interests of two farms, besides buying stock. One day this week he shipped two carloads of stock to the South Omaha market. Mr. Metzger has the same energy in his duties on the farm as he possessed in the recent session of the legislature.

ANNUAL MEETING OF MASONIC GRAND LODGE

Session in Omaha Elected Officers and Appropriated $5,000 for the Home in This City.

At the afternoon session of the Masonic lodge in Omaha Wednesday the additional grand lodge officers were appointed by the new grand master as follows:
George A. Beecher of Kearney, grand chaplain.
Robert French of Kearney, grand custodian.
Samuel S. Whiting of Lincoln, grand marshal.
Andrew H. Viele of Norfolk, grand senior deacon.
Frederick W. Temple of Lexington, grand junior deacon.
Reuben Forbes of Omaha, grand tyler.

The installation took place at the afternoon session and the grand lodge adjourned about 5 o'clock.

The session of the grand lodge was one of the largest in its history. Between 250 and 300 delegates were present.

The next meeting of the grand lodge will be held in Omaha in June, this being fixed by the laws of the organization.

An appropriation of $5,000 was made by the lodge for the Nebraska Masonic home at Plattsmouth at Wednesday's session.

The Nebraska Veteran Free Masons association held its semi-annual meeting and annual dinner Tuesday night and indulged in reminiscences of early days of Masonry in the state.

Francis E. White, who was re-elected grand secretary, will enter upon his twelfth year in that office, having already served eleven successive terms.

Telephone Talks!
No. 6

THE WRONG NUMBER

You didn't look in the Directory before you called a number—the wrong bell was rung and an innocent subscriber was disturbed. You said, "Central gave me the wrong number."

Of course, she did. You called the wrong number—why shouldn't you get it?

Another time you thoughtlessly called a wrong number. The next moment you remembered that it was not the one you wanted. You quickly signaled "Central" and asked for the right number.

Meanwhile, the party of the number you first called answered when his bell rang. He got no reply. He angrily exclaimed, "My bell rang!" He did not know you called him and then decided you wanted another number after "Central" had rung his line.

The Telephone Company received the blame for your carelessness.
