SEVERAL INJURED IN AUTO COLLISION ON RACE TRACK IN OMAHA FRIDAY

The Car of Joseph Zimmerer, of Avoca, Is Struck by Another Car and Harry Marquardt of Avoca, Badly Injured, and the Driver of the Other Car Injured.

From Saturday's Daily.

Two of Avoca's prominent citizens attended the auto races in Omaha yesterday with serious consequences, those citizens being Joseph C. Zimmerer, cashier of the bank, and Harry H. Marquardt, a highly respected young man and nephew of B. C. Marquardt, a prominent merchant of Avoca. In giving an account of the serious smash-up, the Omaha World-Herald says:

While the first event was under a full head of steam, and the cars whizzing around the course with dizzying velocity, one Joseph C. Zimmerer and H. H. Marquardt of Avoca, Nebraska, essayed to cross the track from the east entrance into the field, in a small Buick car. Warning cries of watchful officials, the screams of women and children fell on deaf ears, and like a thunderbolt from an unfecked sky, the Matag-Mason racer, driven by F. E. Doherty, struck it amidship, and in the twinkling of an eye both machines were reduced to the most delicious mess of wreckage ever seen on any track, and three men were hurled in as many directions, bruised, bleeding and sorely hurt. Doherty, the driver of the Matag, and whom it might be interpolated here as a remarkable coincidence, was wrecked and quite severely injured within 100 feet of this same spot in the races last September. He was shot straight up into the air when the collision occurred, and came down into the midst of twisted rods and bands and bars and shattered and splintered wood with a badly broken ankle, a broken rib and a broken wrist, while Marquardt was tossed out upon the clay embankment, with a dislocated hip, serious internal injuries and a broken forearm. Zimmerer escaped with a bloody nasal appendage and a few bruises and contusions.

As hurriedly as possible the wounded men were loaded into a big auto truck, owned by Johnson & Danforth, and driven to the Wise Memorial hospital.

LODGES OBSERVE MEMORIAL SUNDAY IN THIS CITY

I. O. O. F. Decorate, While A. O. U. W. and Degree of Honor Decorate and Attend Services.

The I. O. O. F. lodge of the city held their memorial services yesterday. The committee on decorating the graves of deceased members was Mr. William Holly, Mayor J. P. Sattler and John Corey, and the committee of the Rebecca was Mrs. Holly, Mrs. Peterson and Mrs. J. McNurlin. The committees went out to the cemetery at 8 o'clock in the morning and decorated the graves of the twenty-nine deceased members. At 10 o'clock the memorial service was held at the hall, eulogies being pronounced by County Judge Beeson and County Attorney Taylor.

The A. O. U. W. and Degree of Honor lodges attended the Methodist church in a body and listened to a memorial sermon delivered by Rev. Austin, who preached on the strongest sermons ever heard on a similar occasion, taking for his text the last verse of the fifteenth chapter of First Corinthians, "The greatest of these is charity." Rev. Austin dwelt on the mission of the fraternal society, and distinguished between its mission and that of the church, leaving it clearly impressed on the minds of his congregation the difference between the two institutions. The special music consisted of a solo by Mrs. R. B. Hayes and an anthem by the choir.

The committee on decoration was James Higley, William Copenhaver, W. H. Steimker, Gus Johnson, August Raco and others. The committee went to the cemetery before the service at the church. Owing to the exceedingly high wind the ladies in the Degree of Honor committee for decoration did not go to the cemetery.

Improve the Parsonage.

Rev. Austin is staying right along with the procession and doing all he can to make "Plattsmouth Succeed." If you question this statement, you should walk over to the parsonage and view for yourself the improvements he has made there. The dwelling has been overhauled and remodeled until one would hardly recognize the place, and it has been made into a comfortable place to dwell. There has been $150 or more expended in improvements. Rev. Austin has not stood by and watched the work, but has seized the implements himself, and, in spite of the heat, kept right at work until the improvements were completed.

The Burlington pay car arrived in the city and gladdened the hearts of about 600 employes today.

YOUNG PEOPLE ARE WEDDED IN TEXAS

Groom Born and Reared in Plattsmouth and the Bride a Very Estimable Young Lady.

News has been received in the city by the friends of Mr. Ralph White of Marshall, Texas, informing them of the marriage of Mr. White and Miss Maude M. Wolfe of Lincoln. The ceremony occurred at the Trinity Episcopal church in that city in the presence of a number of the young friends of the contracting parties. The wedding march was played by Mrs. Monte Allen. The young people will go to housekeeping in Marshall, a city of 12,000 people, where the groom holds an excellent position as manager of the telephone company.

Mr. Ralph White is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. White of this city and a brother of Mrs. J. A. Donelan. He was born and reared in this city and had a large circle of friends, who will be delighted to learn of his marriage. For many years he was superintendent of the Plattsmouth office of the Bell telephone, which position he resigned some time ago to accept a position at Nebraska City, and he now holds a very important place with the phone company at Marshall. The bride is not so well known to Plattsmouth people, but those who have been fortunate enough to know her speak in the highest praise of her talent and charming personality. She has held several good positions as teacher of music, and lately was musical instrutress in the school for the blind at Nebraska City.

The Journal joins with the hosts of friends of this charming couple in wishing them happiness and long life.

Burning Money at Nehawka.

J. E. Banning hid an express package containing $2,000 in the waste basket Wednesday, forgot about it and later burned the contents of the basket, money and all. The currency was consigned to the bank and came in on the 11 o'clock train. The train was about forty minutes late and by the time Agent Banning had entered up his express, reported the train and answered the telephone the 12 o'clock whistle had blown. Knowing the bank would be closed and not wishing to carry so much money with him he buried the package in the bottom of the waste basket under a mass of old papers, expecting to make the delivery after dinner.

When he returned about 4 o'clock a local freight was here and the fact that he had a package to deliver entirely slipped his memory. About 3 o'clock he took the congested waste basket out across the track and dumped it out on the ground, lit the pile and returned to work. He did not realize what he had done until Thursday morning, when, in checking up his express book, he discovered what he had done. The money was consigned from an Omaha bank and the loss will fall heavily on Mr. Banning, with little chance of ever recovering anything, although the ashes have been preserved and will be sent in.—Nehawka News.

Tried for Inebriacy.

From Saturday's Daily.

James Speck, a farmer of near Murray, was given a hearing before the insanity board this afternoon on a charge of inebriacy filed by his son, John Speck. The neighborhood, as well as the family, seemed somewhat divided in sentiment. One of his daughters testified that her father did not treat the members of his family any worse than he was treated by them. There was evidence before the board that one of the sons knocked his father down with a chair not long since and then mistreated him after he was down. The accused testified that he could drink or let it alone and that he does not drink to excess. The accused had Mr. Gering appear for him, and the lawyer informed the board that there was no evidence on which they could find that Mr. Speck should be restrained at Lincoln. The hearing excited much interest and the equity court room was filled with people from the vicinity in which the family resides.

After due deliberation over the evidence introduced the board paroled the accused and he will be allowed his freedom so long as he does not repeat the dose.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Nickles were passengers to Omaha on the morning train today.

WILL NOW HAVE TO ANSWER TO TWO CHARGES

J. H. Seagrave Comes Prepared to Carry Out Threats—Is Nipped Before Doing Much Injury.

John Henry Seagrave of Omaha arrived in Plattsmouth yesterday afternoon and called on his family south of the city and proceeded to make a rough house. John Henry has been making threats against his family for some time. Not long ago Mrs. Seagrave obtained a decree of divorce from her husband on the ground of cruelty. For some time he has terrorized the members of the family, and yesterday he came down, the family supposed, to carry his threats into execution. Sheriff Quinton was summoned and Seagrave landed in jail. Today the county attorney filed a complaint before Judge Beeson charging Seagrave with assault.

The accused is also guilty of another offense, being in contempt of the order of the district court, made in the divorce decree, which enjoined the defendant from interfering in any way with the possession of the property or with the peace and quiet of Mrs. Seagrave. After the assault case is dealt with he will be given a hearing before Judge Travis for contempt.

Plainview Does Things.

Quite a number of former citizens of Plattsmouth are now residents of the thriving little city of Plainview, Neb., and it will not be out of order to let the readers of the Journal know what a live town they have out there. The following special from Plainview, under date of July 10, 1911, gives an idea of what the live wires are doing for their town in the way of boosting: "The representative business men made a booster trip to neighboring towns today. Messrs. Ebinger, Gaines, Eagler, Hughes, Sorrenson and Seda comprised the committee that had charge of the affair, the same committee being in charge of the Fourth of July celebration, which celebration the booster junket advertised. Twenty-one automobiles, all owned by local residents, were filled to the utmost capacity with enthusiastic boosters, one hundred men, including the Plainview band, making the trip. They covered 105 miles without accident, and visited nine towns during the day." It will be seen that Fred Ebinger, a former live wire business man of Plattsmouth, heads the procession.

A Trip in the Ho-Ha.

One of the most delightful outings of the season was that in which a number of young people participated in a trip about the river in the Ho-Ha, a boat owned by Roy Holly and John Hadraba. The young people boarded the Ho-Ha about 11 o'clock in the morning and had a most enjoyable trip down the river. At the noon hour the Ho-Ha was anchored at the Geehinour island and the young people spent several moments in search of a desirable picnic ground. A final selection being made, a fine picnic dinner was spread. After having done ample justice to the excellent dinner, a few hours was very pleasantly spent in roaming about the island, indulging in various outdoor sports, and then all boarded the Ho-Ha for the return trip, arriving at their homes toward evening and all reported a very pleasant time. Those who enjoyed this splendid outing were: Misses Marie and Opal Fitzgerald, Goldia Noble, and Miss Record of Pacific Junction, Iowa; Messrs Roy Holly, Charles Hula and John Hadraba.

Miss Tuoy Home.

Miss Jennie Tuoy, one of Plattsmouth's most prominent young ladies, arrived home on the midnight train Friday night. Miss Tuoy just finished a very successful year's work in Redfield (S. D.) college Conservatory of Music, she being a professor of that institution, and Redfield would gladly welcome her back next year. Miss Tuoy will continue her work in music and art in Plattsmouth, as her many pupils were anxiously awaiting her return. Miss Tuoy is a graduate of Tabor college Conservatory of Music and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Tuoy of South Park.

The Sunday Bee of the 11th contains a cut of each of the graduates of the Omaha High school, among the familiar faces being a Plattsmouth boy in the person of Wayne Murphy. The picture is a very good likeness of the former Plattsmouth young man.

TO CURE SORE BUNIONS

Treatment Marvelously Quick for This and All Foot Troubles

"Dissolve two tablespoonfuls of Calocide compound in a basin of hot water; soak the feet in this for full fifteen minutes, gently massaging the sore parts (Less time will not give desired results.) Repeat this each night until cure is permanent." All pain and inflammation is drawn out instantly and the bunion soon is reduced to normal size. Corns and callosities can be peeled right off and will stay off. Sore, tender feet and smelly, sweaty feet need but a few treatments. A twenty-five cent package of Calocide is usually sufficient to put the worst feet in fine condition. Calocide is no longer confined to only the doctors' use. Any druggist has it in stock or will quickly get it from his wholesale house. This will prove a welcome item to persons who have been vainly trying to cure their foot troubles with ineffective tablets and foot powders.

Enjoy Outing.

Yesterday a number of young people journeyed to the vicinity of the Burlington bridge and participated in a most delightful outing. They were well armed with baskets, packages and bundles containing the necessary fixings for a picnic dinner and went prepared to spend an entire day of enjoyment. At the noon hour a fine picnic dinner was prepared, to which all did ample justice. Those composing this company of picnickers were: Misses Mary McElroy, Della Moore, Julia Bagley of Omaha, Verna Hatt; Messrs. Albert Ellenberger, George Morris, Clarence Wells, George Phillips, all of Omaha.

The Fourth at Plattsmouth.

Plattsmouth is arranging for a grand celebration on the Fourth of July, the Red Men having charge of the affair, which insures its success. We understand Avoca will put on a rousing big celebration, and that enterprising village always does it right. Union and Nehawka will help the other towns celebrate the Glorious Fourth, then in August Nehawka's Woodman celebration and Union's old settlers' reunion will be the attractions.—Union Ledger.

A Former Plattsmouth Teacher.

Miss Gertrude Coon of Red Cloud, who is one of the graduating class of the state university this year, arrived the first of this week and is the guest of Messdames J. H. Salsbury and G. K. Wieneke of this city. Miss Coon will teach domestic science in the Billings, Montana, High school the coming year.—Nemaha County Herald.

Miss Coon taught in the High school in this city for two years and made hosts of friends while here, whose best wishes will ever attend her.

Still Improvements Are Made.

Kunsmann & Range last week had the front of their meat market neatly retouched with paint. Mr. J. R. Rummerfeld doing the job, and it is one well to be proud of.

At the High school campus a great change has been made by Janitor Mullis, who has cut all weeds in the street surrounding the grounds. If the property owners on South Ninth street would go and imitate Mr. Mullis all danger of hay fever for residents of the hill would be averted.

Enjoy a Picnic Yesterday.

The Z. C. B. J. lodge enjoyed a picnic yesterday afternoon in the North Maiden lane grove. Lunch baskets filled with dainties to tempt the appetite, several gallons of ice cream were taken to the grove and a royal good time enjoyed by the picnickers. There were eighteen families represented in the lodge, which participated in the afternoon recreation. After the sun went down the picnic crowd came home in the cool of the twilight.

Miss Helen Dovey came down from Omaha Saturday afternoon, being accompanied by Misses Ruth Cadwell and Florence Nason, who were over-Sunday guests of the H. N. Dovey home.
