NO MORE PREMIUMS TO PAY

George Howard Foster insured his life in the Reliance Life Insurance Co. of Pittsburg in September, 1905. He was then a prosperous practicing dentist, 28 years of age, in Columbus, Ohio. He passed an excellent examination. He now suffers from paralysis, due to some unknown cause, and is totally disabled. He therefore secures the benefit of the total disability clause in his policy and will not be required to pay any more premiums. His grateful letter, acknowledging his policy, is as follows:

"Sugar Grove, O., Nov. 18, 1909.
"Reliance Life Insurance Co.,
Pittsburg, Pa.
"Gentlemen:—I wish to acknowledge receipt of my policy No. 5226, which was sent you for endorsement under the Total and Permanent Disability Clause, and to express my appreciation for the promptness and dispatch with which the matter was attended to. Owing to my illness this acknowledgement has been overlooked, and trust you will pardon the seeming neglect. Very truly,
"G. H. Foster."

W. J. Thomas, Plattsmouth, is general agent for the Reliance Life Insurance company for southeastern Nebraska.

Gather the Berries.

Mesdames Lamphere, Hyde, Jennings, Steinhauer and Brissey chartered a carryall this morning, with Mr. Lamphere as driver, and drove to Four Mile creek, west of the city, and spent the day gathering gooseberries. A picnic lunch was participated in, which was an enjoyable feature of the day.

Club Rooms Will Have to Give Way Now to Legalized Saloons.

Havelock went wet in Friday's election by a majority of 82. About 600 votes were cast, and the majority is a decisive one. The interest of the Havelock citizens in saloon licenses was aroused again this spring when Lincoln went wet. It was believed that the shop town would remain dry as long as Lincoln did. As soon as Lincoln turned over a new leaf, however, some of the merchants and shopmen thought that they had better have saloons in their town, thus keeping money at home and eliminating drunken crowds from the interurban cars.

NEHAWKA.

Arthur Troop drove down last Saturday from his home near Plattsmouth in his big new car. His mother and little daughter accompanied him.

Last Warning.

If your dog does not wear the tag showing his right to exist under the ordinance of the city, procure such tag at once, as this is positively the last warning. Monday the dog catcher will commence to make the final round for the summer, and unless Fido can show that his license is paid he will be sent to the happy hunting ground.

UNION.
