REASONABLE RATES

If a company gives good service, earns only enough to maintain its plant up to recognized standards of efficiency, to provide for reconstruction cost when worn out or obsolete, and pays only a fair dividend to its shareholders—then the company's rates are fair and reasonable.

Rates in many cases may appear unfair because the reasons for various changes are misunderstood. In every case our rates are based on the results of scientific investigation after years of expert study of the various problems into rate making.

Telephone rates in various communities must differ because of the conditions that enter into rate computations varying in given localities. Telephone operation is different from nearly any other in this—the greater the extent of service, the higher the cost.

This peculiarity of telephone charges will be discussed in the next article in this paper.

GOVERNOR ALDRICH HANDSOMELY "GRIDIRONED" IN BUCKEYE STATE

Ohio Alumni Refuses to Allow Governor to Speak, and Kept Up Such a Claimor That Our "Model" Chief Executive Could Not Be Heard When He Did Talk.

It is a shame the way Governor Aldrich has been treated in his own native state of Ohio, when the students refused to listen to his speech. In speaking of the manner in which he was served, the Ohio State Journal, published at Columbus, says:

"Although equipped with powerful lungs, a jovial and commanding personality and primed for the occasion, Governor Aldrich of Nebraska yesterday afternoon found it impossible to deliver a well arranged address which he had prepared for the alumni association luncheon at the Ohio state university.

"The western executive did succeed in saying about a half dozen words, but all efforts to go further were made futile. He stood before his audience for two hours, smiling and gesticulating, but could not be heard above the din of song, whistling, interrogation and applause.

"I want to say something about the men of Ohio," said the honored alumnus. This was the last of his speech, which, he said afterwards, had taken him about a month to prepare. "How about the women of Nebraska?" interrupted Lowry F. Sater, the toastmaster. Then bedlam broke loose.

"A leather-lunged alumnus wanted to know if the speaker knew Champ Clark; another wished to be informed as to the extent of his acquaintance with radium; while stentorian voices demanded that he enlighten the audience as to his views on equal suffrage. While questions were being hurled at the governor from every section of the hall, a quartet belonging to the old guard of '94 began to sing, 'He's a Jolly Good Fellow.' Another quartet broke into 'The Star Spangled Banner,' while still others who appeared to have no other use for their lungs gave the college yell with original variations.

"Notwithstanding, like the rock of Gibraltar, the gallant governor stood his ground. The audience yelled itself hoarse. The toastmaster demanded order, but didn't appear in the least to desire it. Finally the visitor gave way to Prof. Joseph Russell Taylor of the English department."

Laundry Doing Good Work.

Pierson Brothers are forging right to the front with their remodeled laundry. These industrious young men have placed new floor in the building and now have four washers up and in operation, whereas only two were used before. Their work is first-class and their increase in patronage right along shows that the people appreciate a real laundry when one comes to town. Their wet and dry washes each have a goodly patronage and give excellent satisfaction for family washes.

Work Will Soon Start.

THROW OUT THE LINE

Give Them Help and Many Plattsmouth ePople Will Be Happier.

"Throw Out the Life Line"—The kidneys need help.

They're overworked—can't get the poison filtered out of the blood.

They're getting worse every minute.

Will you help them?

Doan's Kidney Pills have brought thousands of kidney sufferers back from the verge of despair.

Plattsmouth testimony proves their worth.

J. W. Hickson, Oak street, Plattsmouth, Neb., says: "I shall never cease to praise Doan's Kidney Pills, as they proved of great benefit to me several years ago.

For some time I was caused much suffering by attacks of lumbago that came on without the least warning. The simplest movement was painful and I was also annoyed by irregular passages of the kidney secretions. I read so much about Doan's Kidney Pills that I finally procured a box from Rynott & Co.'s Drug Store. I was so gratified with the results of their use that I publicly recommended them in 1906 and at this time I willingly verify that statement. I hope that other kidney sufferers will profit by my experience."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Breaks Past Records.

If the demand for binders and threshers is any indication (and it is), there will be one of the greatest wheat crops in the west and north which has ever been harvested. Every day for the past month Burlington freight cars loaded with J. I. Case or other makes of threshing machines have passed through Plattsmouth. Gorder & Son of this city have broken their record of past seasons in the sale of binders, having, up to date, sold thirty to be used in the wheat and oats harvest now upon us. When one reflects on the numerous other agricultural dealers in the city and county, the sale of reaping machines in this county alone is immense. There are about 100 other fertile counties in Nebraska alone, not to mention the surrounding states.

For Sale.

I have a half section, 320 acres, in Sandborn county, South Dakota, one quarter fenced, artesian well flowing through it, that I will sell at a reasonable price. Terms to suit the purchaser. Address, A. W. Smith, Plattsmouth, Neb. 6-22-1mw.

Tom Fry departed for Louisville this afternoon with his team where he will enter the employ of C. A. Richey & Company and work a scraper on a grading contract.

County Attorney Taylor returned from Omaha on the afternoon train yesterday, where he was detained from the day before by important business.

YOU may think that patriotism and good clothes have nothing to do with each other, but the element to loyalty to one's country may be applied to the selling of good clothes; and we're trying to apply it to our business. The right sort of a patriot makes the country's interest his interest; the right sort of a business man makes his customer's interest his interest.

Every time we sell a suit of clothes we serve the best interests of the man who buys them. You pay a fair price for them; and we make a profit on them; the question of price and profit are less important to either of us than the question of value given and received.

MAN STRUCK BY BURLINGTON FREIGHT TRAIN

Seriously Injured While Sitting on the Railroad Track, Unconscious of Surroundings.

The Sioux City special, pulled by Engineer John Snead, yesterday afternoon, as it approached Louisville, and rounding a curve, struck a laborer who was sitting on the track and quite severely injured the man. The injured man had been employed at the Murphy quarry and had been to the dentist's office to have some teeth extracted, and had taken gas, which rendered him too ill to proceed, and he sat down on the track in a half-conscious state and seemed unconscious of danger.

The freight was a through train and ordinarily did not make any stops between Pacific Junction and Ashland, and was going at a rapid pace when the curve was rounded, and although Mr. Snead did what he could to stop in time to avoid injuring the man, he could not do so. The unfortunate man had his hip crushed and his side and arm badly bruised. He was taken to Louisville and Dr. Lewis called to dress his injuries. The man had no funds and Commissioner Freidreich was communicated with and arrangements were made for the county to care for the man until his friends can be notified.

No blame could be attributed to the train crew for the accident. It was an unfortunate circumstance that allowed the man to leave the village on his return to camp until he was able to travel.

Mr. Henry Hilbert was an Omaha passenger this afternoon, where he looked after business matters for a time.

In District Court.

Judge Travis was engaged this morning in the trial of an injunction suit between John W. Nichols and J. W. Royer, parties residing in the south side of the county. Mr. D. O. Dwyer appeared for the plaintiff and Mr. A. L. Tidd, for Mr. Gering, for the defendant. Quite a number of witnesses were present and testified. The object of the suit is to prevent the defendant from disposing of the crops before the owner has his rent money, the petition alleging that defendant has stated that he would sell. Parties in attendance from the vicinity of Union were J. W. Royer and wife, John W. Nichols and wife and Mike Kime.

It was expected that the motion for a new trial, filed by the defendant in the case of the State vs. W. A. Becker, which assigns seventy specific errors in the trial, would be taken up this morning. The attorneys were present, but the court decided to dispose of the hearing on the application for the injunction before hearing any other matter today.

Visits the Farm.

Mr. Jacob Meisinger returned from Cedar Creek on the morning train today, where he went a short time ago to inspect the crops and see for himself just how the corn is growing. Mr. Meisinger says the wheat harvest is progressing nicely and the yield will be very good. Corn is in excellent condition and will not suffer for rain for several days. Oats and spring wheat would be much bettered with a good rain.

Stops carache in two minutes; toothache or pain of burn or scald in five minutes; hoarseness, one hour; muscleache, two hours; sore throat, twelve hours—Dr. Thomas' Eclectic Oil, monarch over pain.
