THE C. E. RALLY AT THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Good Sized Audience Was Present to Hear a Fine Address.

From Tuesday's Daily.

There was a good sized audience out to hear Rev. Lehman of Boston, international field secretary of the Young Peoples' Society of Christian Endeavor, at the rally held at the First Presbyterian church last evening. The special music consisted of a solo rendered by Miss Helen Chapman.

The speaker was introduced by Rev. L. W. Gade. The field secretary spoke very entertainingly and demonstrated to his congregation that he was the right man for the position he holds. His subject was about the association, and he took up the initials S. C. E. and discussed the meaning of each. He said, in substance, that the initial "S" stood for "service," the "C" for "consecration," and the "E" for "enthusiasm," and each of these the speaker elaborated, making a very interesting address. The congregation sang several songs and the rally was very much enjoyed by all present.

The treasurer of the shop committee, Mr. L. O. This voluntary contribution evidences an active interest and spirit of co-operation which is encouraging to the Commercial club, whose motto is always, "SEE PLATTSMOUTH SUCCEED." Respectfully,

From Tuesday's Daily. Henry Ames was arrested for plain drunk Saturday night, but was too ill Monday to appear in court, consequently his hearing was postponed until late in the afternoon. When the court heard the evidence and considered the slight excuse offered by the defendant and the numerous times the accused had appeared before his honor on a similar charge, the judge assessed Ames $20 and costs. The self convicted man remonstrated with the court, saying that he thought it was a little steep. The court agreed with the prisoner at the bar, but stated that he wanted to make it steep enough so that the same offense would be less frequent. Ames went to jail and will languish until the fine and costs are sweated out.

HOW THE NEWSPAPER ADVERTISING HAS GROWN

The Wise Merchant Sees That It Is Impossible to Do Business Without Advertising.

Any person who has made a careful study of the newspapers in towns of from 6,000 to 100,000 people must be tremendously impressed with their enlargement in the last ten to fifteen years.

We have in mind the familiar face of one exchange published in a city of some 75,000 people. A dozen years ago it was very rare that this newspaper ran over 12 pages. Today it very frequently appears with 20 pages. One or two pages of this increase is no doubt due to fuller news columns. In the main the change is caused by the enormous increase in advertising.

No sentiment of charity for that newspaper, which was very prosperous twelve years ago, or others of its class, can have caused this splendid growth. Rather it is because a group of merchants, big and little, are growing wealthy through the power of advertising. Where they used to use a column, they now use half a page or more. They do it because it is the cheapest form of salesmanship. And the same success and the same prosperity is coming here to the men who have learned the efficiency of the newspaper advertisement.

Narrow Escape From Injury.

From Tuesday's Daily. This morning when Mr. Bach, sr., drove from his home to the Main street store, as he rounded the corner at the laundry, the right front wheel of his buggy ran from the axle, letting the front end of the buggy down, striking the heels of the black nag he was driving, which immediately commenced to go at a livelier gait. Mr. Bach got out as speedily as possible. The frightened animal then whirled about and started for home, narrowly missing the entrance to the laundry. The nag ran but a short distance before passers-by headed it off, bringing it up at the front door of A. J. McKinney's residence at the rear of the laundry. Aside from some damage to the buggy, there was little harm done. Mr. Bach was not injured, except slight bruises from coming in contact with the paved street. Quite a little commotion was aroused at the corner and a crowd soon surrounded the broken buggy.

Will Return to Fatherland.

Henry Beck and wife of Pierce county, who have been visiting Mr. Beck's brother, John Beck and family, and other friends in this county for a short time, departed last evening for Pekin, Illinois, where they will visit friends and relatives for a short time and then depart for Germany, their native land. They will go to the village of Sell, in Hesse Darmstadt, Germany. The parents of both Mr. and Mrs. Beck and brothers and sisters reside there. Mr. Beck has been in America twenty-nine years and his wife twenty-three years. They go back to Germany with the expectation of remaining if conditions are what they expect to find them. However, after a visit with relatives if they are not satisfied they will come back to Nebraska to live.
