FISH TAKEN TO OMAHA BY GAME WARDEN

Deputy Warden Says Complaint Against Childers Will Be Filed Before Judge Beeson.

Frank Williams, deputy game warden, of Omaha, was in the city over night and secured thirty pounds of fish from A. Childers, who was offering the same for sale at the Kunsman & Ramage market yesterday. Mr. Williams stated that complaint would be filed before the county judge and the trial would occur Monday. He took the fish to Omaha with him, where he will have them frozen so as to preserve them until after the trial, when they will be given to some charitable institution, as the law provides.

The present game law does not permit anyone to offer for sale or barter any fish or game within the state of Nebraska, the object being to protect the game and fish for Nebraska citizens and not allow them to be destroyed for profit.

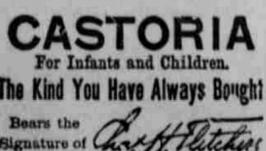

We do not think Mr. Childers, who has been fishing in the Platte river for many years, understood that he was committing any crime, and on this account we do not believe he should suffer punishment, being ignorant of the law.

Return From Concordia.

From Saturday's Daily. Mrs. William McCauley and Mrs. T. M. Patterson, accompanied by Mr. Sam Patterson and daughter, Dorris, returned last evening from Concordia, Kansas, where Miss Davis has been attending school. Quite a number met the party at the depot. Mr. Sam Patterson went direct from Arapahoe, and was met at Concordia by Mesdames McCauley and Patterson. Miss Dorris will make her home here with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. McCauley, for the present, having graduated from the school she was attending.

Mr. Patterson will depart for his home in Arapahoe tonight.

The next time you need a sack of flour ask your dealer about the Forest Rose flour and see if he doesn't say it is one of the best grades of flour. Try a sack and be convinced. Sold by all dealers.

New Kind of Shade Tree.

John Geiser has a species of rhubarb on his premises which he is cultivating for shade trees. John carried one stalk with the broad leaf over him for a shade in lieu of an umbrella one hot day this week. The stalk of this plant is very tall and the beauty of it is when the owner wants a pie, all he has to do is to cut down a tree and use the trunk for the filler between the crusts. W. D. Messersmith has got an option on this year's crop.

BOOSTING FOR THE PLATTSMOUTH FOURTH OF JULY

Elmwood Party, Boosting for the Elmwood Celebration, Return Boosting for Plattsmouth.

From Saturday's Daily. Messrs. William Delles Dornier, Dick Beck, John Baird and F. Baker came over from Elmwood yesterday morning in Mr. Beck's touring car, on the rear of which was painted in flaming characters attractions to be seen in Elmwood on the Fourth of July.

While the car was standing at the Riley and the gentlemen named were partaking of Landlord Dunbar's hospitality, some irresponsible fellows pinned over the Elmwood hooper playcard, and on white cloth artistically penciled, reading thus: "Come to Plattsmouth July Fourth. Something doing every minute in the day." When the gentlemen left the city at 11 o'clock last night the Plattsmouth ad was still decorating the rear end of their car, and the Plattsmouth celebration stock must have taken quite a spurt, as the Elmwood chauffeur was no slouch when it comes to getting over the road.

Plattsmouth people are a thousand times obliged to the Elmwood gentlemen for their kindness in boosting for the county seat celebration.

Pronounce Eulogies.

From Saturday's Daily. The committee appointed some time ago by Mr. R. B. Windham, President of the Cass County Bar association to draw suitable resolutions upon the life and worth of the late Judge A. N. Sullivan, reported the same to the court this morning and eulogies were pronounced upon the life and character of Judge Sullivan by the different members of the Cass county bar, who were present in the court room when the report was made. The resolutions provide that the clerk spread them upon the record of the court, and family.

FOOT NEARLY SEVERED FROM THE ANKLE

Joe West Meets With Accident While Harvesting for Bert Jamison, West of Murray.

From Saturday's Daily. While operating a binder drawn by four mules, Joe West met with an accident this morning, resulting in almost severing his right foot from the ankle. Both Joe and his brother were driving binders for Bert Jamison, six miles west of Murray, in his 200-acre wheat field, when Joe, who was in the lead, stopped to take some weeds out of the sickle of his binder and had just stepped in front of the binder to remove the obstruction when his brother drove up in the rear. It is not known what started the mules, but they made a step forward, the sickle cutting off the leaders of the unfortunate man's ankle.

Dr. Gilmore was summoned and dressed the wound, and with Bert Jamison, brought Joe to Dr. T. P. Livingston's office, where further treatment was administered. Mr. West is a single man. His mother, Mrs. John West, recently moved to this city from near Weeping Water.

Rev. Salsbury Honored.

Word was received last Thursday that Rev. J. H. Salsbury was honored by having the Doctor's degree conferred upon him by the Presbyterian college at Highland, Kansas, where he was present to deliver the baccalaureate sermon to the graduating class of that institution. Rev. Duncan Brown, D.D., who was chairman of the Presbyterian committee when Rev. Salsbury was received under the care of the Presbytery as candidate for the ministry, was present and adjusted the doctor's hood on the gown in which Rev. Salsbury gave his address Thursday. It affords Rev. Salsbury's friends much pleasure to have this honor bestowed upon him.—Auburn Herald.

New Musical Organization.

The "Burlington Male quartet," is a new feature in Plattsmouth musical organizations. The quartet is composed of the following gentlemen: Joe Wales, Louis Jivan, Charles Leighty and D. C. York, and has been under the direction of Mrs. Mae Morgan. They will sing for the first time at the Methodist church tomorrow morning.

Everybody wants to try a sack of Forest Rose flour. Why? Because they have heard that it is one of the best grades of flour put on the market. Try a sack and see if you don't think so.

WILLIAM BECKER GETS FIVE YEARS IN THE "PEN"

Meirs Gets Four Years in the Penitentiary, While Maines Gets Three Months.

From Saturday's Daily. W. H. Becker, convicted of receiving stolen property; Simon Meirs, convicted of robbery from the person, and Fred Maines, convicted of assault and battery, were taken before Judge Travis this morning and received sentences. In the case of the State vs. Becker, a motion for a new trial, containing seventy separate assignments of error, was submitted to the court and overruled. Becker was sentenced to five years in the penitentiary at hard labor (Sundays and holidays excepted) for the term of five years. The statute provides a penalty of from three to seven years in the penitentiary for receiving stolen property. The sentence of the court is the same as that given Crawford, the partner of Becker in the wheat stealing.

The penalty fixed by statute for the offense of robbery from the person, by putting one in fear, is from three to fourteen years in the penitentiary, and from the evidence in the case Meirs did not get more than he deserved. Maines was given three months in jail for assault.

Demolished the Binder.

Reuben Stine started his harvest work Monday by purchasing a new binder, and there's more of the tale to tell, because early that morning he owned a good binder that in a minute's time had its value reduced to about 13 cents in trading stamps. Reuben had attached his team to the machine with the intention of harvesting more bushels to the acre than any of his neighbors, and stepped a short distance away to quote a few lines from "Rip Saw," when the horses took it as a signal to start the harvest—and off they went without Reuben's guiding hand. The swath they cut was of usual width, but irregular as to the lines followed. When the horses stopped they had just enough of the machine attached to them to be identified as Reuben's outfit. Mr. Stine is fortunate in having his team escape with no serious injury, and fortunate in having a fine crop that necessitated buying a new machine. Without casting any reflections upon the horses, we express the opinion that they are old enough to know better than to engage in such frolics.—UnUnion Ledger.

Pocketbook Is Found.

From Saturday's Daily. Yesterday a small lost ad appeared in the Journal announcing the loss of a pocketbook by Mrs. Nettie Johnson. Shortly after the evening issue was delivered on Main street the son of our genial restaurant man, Jacob Henrich, appeared at the office with the lost purse, containing about $12 in cash and other valuable papers. When your lost property falls into the hands of an honest person the little ads do the business.

Bird Critchfield Indicted.

The federal grand jury, sitting at Chicago, investigating the lumber trust, among a large number of secretaries of retail dealers indicted was Bird Critchfield of Lincoln. There are two counts against each man indicted, conspiracy to restrain trade and blacklisting, is charged. Mr. Critchfield was formerly a citizen of this county and filled the office of county clerk for two or more terms.

Mrs. Jacob Knapp of Cedar Creek was a Plattsmouth visitor today, where she spent the day with friends and looked after the week-end shopping.

Mrs. Rhoden Doing Well.

From Saturday's Daily. Mr. G. R. Rhoden of Murray came to Plattsmouth this morning and took the morning train to St. Joseph's hospital, where he went to see Mrs. Rhoden, who was operated on Thursday morning. Mrs. Rhoden stood the ordeal very well and was doing nicely yesterday. Today is the third day since the operation, and if she passes the critical stage her friends entertain strong hopes of her permanent restoration to health.

Roy Denson Very Ill.

From Saturday's Daily. While attending a party at the Ploeger home last evening Roy Denson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Denson, was attacked with severe illness. He was removed to the home of Mrs. August Hess and Dr. Cummins was then summoned and rendered all the assistance possible. The trouble yielded to treatment very stubbornly and the young man was very ill yet today.

Purchases Fine Farm.

From Saturday's Daily. James Sage completed a deal this morning whereby he becomes the owner of the fine 300-acre second bottom farm belonging to the Andy Graham estate, and lying east of the Bothlehem church, on the east side of the Missouri river. There is a fine field of alfalfa on the farm, beside other hay land, and a large acreage of corn land, on which the crop looks fine. Mr. Sage receives this year's crop.

George Meisinger, from near Mynard, was a Plattsmouth visitor yesterday evening, coming in to look after some business matters, among which was to call at the Journal office and renew his subscription. Mr. Meisinger tells us that Mrs. Meisinger, who was injured some time ago from being kicked by a cow, is getting along very well at this time. Her recovery from the injuries received has been very slow and she is far from well now. She was injured about ten weeks ago.

Mrs. Frank Rand of Omaha, who has been visiting Mrs. Charles Beveridge, near Murray, for a short time, is a guest of her aunt, Mrs. John McNurlin. Mr. McNurlin went out to the Beveridge home in his car Friday morning and brought Mrs. Rand to Plattsmouth, making a record run.

Freddie Weidman of Plainview, Neb., arrived in the city yesterday evening for a few days' visit with his mother, brother and sisters. Mrs. George Weidman and family. Fred Ebinger, who has purchased a fine new automobile, will arrive here in the car Sunday evening and Mrs. Ebinger and Fred will return home with him.
