MURRAY, NEBRASKA

Dr. Newell, the dentist, in Murray every Tuesday.

Mrs. C. Bengon has been quite sick for the past week.

Ice cream, fruit sundaes and cones at A. L. Baker's.

Miss Isabella Young spent the Fourth in Plattsmouth.

Frank Gobelman, painter and paper hanger. Plattsmouth.

Miss Margery Walker was in Plattsmouth to spend the Fourth of July, visiting until Wednesday morning with the Misses Dovey.

Mrs. O. Campbell, who has been sick, is some better this week.

Be sure and attend the musical at the home of Mrs. Boedeker next Thursday.

Mrs. E. A. Burton and daughter, Marguerette, departed for Lincoln Saturday, from where they will return to their home in Clay Center.

We are glad to report that Mrs. Bertha Shrader will be able to return home from the hospital in Omaha on Thursday of this week. She is feeling much better from the treatment received.

Mrs. J. F. Brendel went to Weeping Water last Saturday for a few days' visit with her mother. Dr. J. F. went to Avoca Monday, where they both spent the Fourth with their brother, J. W. Brendel and family.

A new baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. George Stones on Wednesday of this week. Both mother and little one are doing nicely, and, to be sure, George is the happiest "daddy" in West Rock Bluff.

William Sporer celebrated the Fourth in Plattsmouth.

John Ferris was in Omaha Wednesday morning for binder repairs.

Mr. and Mrs. William Rice and daughter were in Plattsmouth on the Fourth.

The Loyal Bereans Sunday school class will postpone their social that was billed this week for an indefinite time.

James Loughridge and Dr. W. K. Loughridge of Lincoln, arrived in Murray Wednesday evening and will remain at the home of her brother during the illness of Mrs. Stones.

Arthur Hansen of Weldo, Colo., arrived in Murray Wednesday morning for a few weeks' visit with home folks. Arthur has been making his home in Colorado since last March.

We are informed that our excellent friend, Lee Nickels, has a new team of mules, and they keep Lee pretty busy trying to learn just when they are going to run away with him. They have never done the slightest damage, but have taken several pretty lively spins, and Lee is beginning to believe that they run simply for the fun there is in it.

Matt Sigman and family spent the Fourth in Omaha.

Murray was pretty well represented at Plattsmouth on the Fourth of July.

Mrs. J. W. Berger and Mrs. J. W. Carroll were in Plattsmouth Tuesday evening.

Thomas Murphy was in Murray this week in the interests of an eastern drug firm.

A. L. Baker and wife and daughter, Opha, were in Plattsmouth Tuesday evening.

G. M. Minford shipped two cars of cattle and one of hogs to South Omaha Tuesday of this week.

Troy Holmes, who has been visiting in Murray for the past week, returned to Chicago Tuesday.

Miss Pearl Kniss was in Plattsmouth Tuesday spending the Fourth and visiting with relatives. She returned home Wednesday morning.

Mrs. Ray Dill of Rosalie is in Murray this week visiting at the home of her mother, Mrs. Jenkins, also the parents of Mr. Dill, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Dill.

Winfield Swan fell from a cherry tree a few days ago and came very near breaking his leg. While his bruises were quite painful, he was not seriously injured.

Uncle Tommy Slagle fell a few days ago and quite severely injured his hip. Owing to the old gentleman's advanced age the injury was quite serious. He is past 80 years of age.

Our genial general merchant, A. Hast and family, went to Norfolk last Friday evening for a few days' visit with Mrs. Hast's brother and family. They returned home Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Pitman and Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Brown are spending the week in camp life at the foot of old King hill. They are sure enjoying themselves. Mr. and Mrs. Dr. Gilmore spent the Fourth with them.

The Thimble Guild, entertained by Mrs. J. W. Edmunds, Mrs. W. E. Dill and Mrs. O. A. Davis, was a very pleasant afternoon for those present. The extreme heat kept a great many away, but those who ventured out were well paid for their effort.

Rev. W. A. Taylor of Union delivered a very interesting sermon to a large and appreciative audience at Kenosha church last Sunday. There will be preaching at Kenosha every other Sunday at 3:30 o'clock and Sunday school at 3 o'clock.

Joe West, who was so severely cut from a binder sickle a few days ago, is getting along nicely.

Chalmer Switzer and wife, from near Avoca, were in Murray Wednesday. They were visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. V. Virgin.

The funeral of Miss Julia Jenkins was held Wednesday forenoon at the late home, attended by a large number of loving friends and relatives. The remains were laid to rest at the Eight Mile Grove cemetery, a large number attending the ceremony at the grave.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Holmes and son, Ralph, and Troy Holmes returned home from their Davenport trip Monday. They made the return trip, a distance of 155 miles, in six hours and thirty minutes. This is sure pretty good auto traveling.

M. S. Davis of Fort Collins, Colorado, arrived in Murray last Thursday for a few days' visit with his father and brothers, also Mrs. Davis' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dill, in Plattsmouth. Mr. Davis was visiting with his brother, O. A. Davis Wednesday, and the Fourth was spent at the home of his father, J. A. Mr. Davis has been residing in Colorado for the past ten years, and is well pleased with that country, especially when the weather is 110 in Nebraska.

Birthday Celebration.

One of the most pleasant occasions of the season was the celebration of the sixteenth birthday anniversary of Miss Olga Minford last Saturday. The affair was a complete surprise for the little lady and was planned by her mother, with the assistance of Miss Villa Gapen. Miss Edith LaRue entertained Miss Minford at supper on this evening, after which she returned home to find a house full of her young friends to assist her in making the sixteenth birthday anniversary one long to be remembered. The merry visitors were out for a good time and Miss Olga joined in and made the evening one of the most pleasant of her life.

The evening was spent in games of various kinds, principally upon the lawn, which was decorated with red, white and blue, the occasion being so near the Fourth of July. One of Miss Gapen's special features was the poem contest and the characterization of those present in poetry of two lines each. The first contest, in which the poetry from popular authors was placed in broken verses and lines upon the cards, which you were compelled to match up in securing your partner for supper. The one that created the greatest amusement was the character of those present outlined in poetry upon the cards. Each visitor received two lines of poetry written by Miss Gapen, and all were asked to pick the character intended for. In this contest Miss Isabelle Young won first prize.

At the usual hour the visitors were treated to a supply of delicious ice cream and cake. At a late hour all departed for home, wishing that they might be able to assist Miss Minford in the celebration of many more such happy occasions.

Following were those in attendance: Vance Pitman, Frank Read, John Jenkins, Elizabeth Hall, Isaac Hall, Joe Creamer, Charley Vallery, Vance Harris, Clara Young, Mattie Minnear, Lloyd Lewis, Pheme Richardson, Florence Richardson, Marie Davis, Margaret Moore, Della Adams, Elsie Stokes, Wayne Lewis, Walter Hamilton, Addie Dill, Frank Dill, Arnold Fitzpatrick, Vivian Fitzpatrick, Frank Dugay, Clara Copenhagen, Arthur Copenhagen, Harry Creamer, Guy Stokes, Everett Thomason, Chester Minnear, Charles Kennedy, Lydia Todd, Edith LaRue, Villa Gapen, Dwyer Todd, Ozla Minford, Vance Todd, May Lewis, Isabella Young, Grace Fight, Esther Ray, Virgil Standish, Will Minford, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mutz, Mr. and Mrs. George Mutz, Mr. and Mrs. G. DEATH RELIEVES MISS JULIA JENKINS OF MURRAY FROM HER SUFFERING

This Estimable Lady Passed Away Sunday Evening at 9:40 O'clock—Interment to Be Made in Eight Mile Grove Cemetery, the Services to Be Conducted by Rev. Williams.

From Monday's Daily.

Miss Julia Jenkins, whose illness has been mentioned in the columns of the Journal from time to time, died after an illness of eleven weeks at Immanuel hospital at 9:40 last night. Her brother, Colonel Jenkins of Murray, was at her bedside when she died and had been a constant attendant during her stay at the hospital.

Miss Jenkins was born in Ohio June 8, 1858, and was past 53 years of age at the time of her death. She came to Nebraska in the early 60's with her parents and settled on a farm near Weeping Water, where they resided for a few years and then moved to the old McVeigh farm and later to Eight Mile Grove precinct, where they lived for many years. Nineteen years ago she located in Murray, her brother buying the elevator and later went into the mercantile business, Miss Jenkins becoming a part owner in the store, which she partly managed until the sickness attacked her, which finally resulted in her death.

She underwent two operations for nervous trouble, which first developed in the end of her index finger, and after she was ill three weeks erysipelas developed. She was removed to Immanuel hospital at Omaha before the second operation was performed, where she had the best medical attention and skilled nursing, but all to no avail.

She was a member of the Christian church and her funeral will be conducted by Rev. Williams, pastor of that church, and will be held Wednesday, July 5, at 10 o'clock a. m., from the home in Murray, with interment at Eight Mile Grove cemetery.

Miss Jenkins is survived by her aged mother and one brother, Colonel Jenkins of Murray. She was a woman of sterling worth, and held the respect of everyone with whom she had dealings. Her death will be a loss to the community in which she lived and will be keenly felt by her large circle of friends and acquaintances.

A Serious Thing.

We found in a first class medical journal that many people seek physicians' help for some disturbances of the stomach, without knowing that what they really suffer from is tuberculosis or consumption. But every physician knows that bringing the stomach and the whole digestive system to their proper working power means always perfect cure of consumption. This shows how important it is to pay prompt attention to the slightest indisposition. You will find Triner's American Elixir of Bitter Wine the best remedy in such conditions. It cleans out the system, strengthens it and regulates its work. The nutritious part of the food will be transformed into healthy, rich blood which distributes the nourishment throughout the whole body and waste matter will be expelled. Use this remedy as soon as your stomach will be out of order. At drug stores. Jos. Triner, 1333-1339 So. Ashland Ave., Chicago, Illinois.

Family Reunion on the Fourth.

A family reunion was held at the pleasant farm home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Davis on the Fourth of July. They enjoyed a genuine good old time the Fourth of July without the noise of the fire-cracker and presence of red lemonade. Those who spent the day under the parental roof were: M. S. Davis of Fort Collins, Colo.; O. A. Davis and wife, I. M. Davis and family, W. W. Hamilton and family and Ray T. Davis and family.
