HON. R. B. WINDHAM CELEBRATES HIS BIRTHDAY

The Bar Association Entertained by His Daughters in Honor of the Event.

Misses Hermia, Ellen and Kathryn Windham, the charming daughters of Hon. R. B. Windham, entertained the members of the Cass County Bar association at a five-course dinner at 7 o'clock last evening, the occasion being the anniversary of the birth of their distinguished father. Every member of the Plattsmouth contingent of the Cass county bar was present excepting J. H. Haldeman, esq.; ex-Judge of the District Court B. S. Ramsey and Byron Clark, esq. Letters of regret from Byron Clark and J. H. Haldeman were read.

Mr. Windham is the oldest member of the Cass county bar and has been president of the bar association of the county for a long time. As a token of esteem and good will the bar last evening presented him with a fine rocker in honor of his birthday, Judge of the Supreme Court Honorable Jesse L. Root, making the presentation speech, which was gratefully responded to by Mr. Windham.

Mr. Root spoke of the usual kindly feeling existing among members of the profession, and particularly of the high regard the members of the Cass county bar had always entertained for the host, and in a feeling speech expressed the friendship of the bar for its president. Mr. Windham responded in a brief speech, expressing his appreciation of the gift, and reviewed the bar from the time he was its youngest member to the present. When Mr. Windham came into the arena the bar constituted such able men as T. M. Marquette, Samuel Maxwell, Samuel Chapman, Jesse B. Strode and others, and for many years Mr. Windham was one of the participants in most of the litigation arising in this county, and until within the past eight or ten years had been in the active practice of law in this city. Mr. Windham expressed pleasure at having the members of the bar at his home, and stated that he should prize the present made him by the bar for the sentiment it expressed and that he should ever recall this evening with fondest pleasure.

Members of the bar present were: Supreme Court Justice J.

L. Root, Judge of the District Court H. D. Travis, County Judge A. J. Beeson, County Attorney H. C. Taylor, ex-County Attorney C. A. Rawls, ex-County Attorney M. Gering, ex-County Judge J. E. Douglass, Clerk of the District Court J. M. Robertson, A. L. Tidd, Prof. N. C. Abbott, John M. Leyda, W. A. Robertson, D. O. Dwyer and the guest of honor, ex-Representative Hon. R. B. Windham.

New Auto Law in Effect.

The new auto law goes into effect tomorrow, July 7, when any person under 16 years of age, either young man or young woman, will be arrested if they attempt to drive an auto at all. And any person intoxicated who is caught running a machine will be arrested, and anybody running a machine more than five miles an hour in town will be arrested under the state law. If you are in doubt whether you are entitled to operate a machine, or if you do not know what is expected of you as an autoist, you should secure a copy of the new state law and inform yourself, as ignorance of the law will be no excuse when you are required to appear in court. A synopsis of the law has appeared in the Journal at two different times and all have had an opportunity to know just what it is.

Wedded in Omaha.

Mr. Bert Lamphere and Miss Ettie Hyde of this city took snap judgment on their many friends on the Fourth of July by wedding their way to Omaha and getting married. They are both estimable young people, the groom being a son of Mr. and Mrs. George Lamphere, while the bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Hyde of this city. The young people have gone to house-keeping on Lincoln avenue, near the shops, in which he is employed. While the Journal is somewhat late in chronicling this happy event, it is not too late to wish them much joy and happiness as down the stream of time they sail through life.

The "Spirella" corset advertisement elsewhere in this paper is planned and fitted for you. No extra charge. Call at Miss Myers' Saturday, July 8th.

Meet in Elmwood.

The republican county central committee met in Elmwood today, and nearly every prospective candidate on that ticket was also present. Of course a slate will be fixed up if possible, and it is hard to tell what it will be. It may be one that will be smashed into smithereens at the primary. The old ring may get its foot into it by trying to have everything their way, as usual. And it will be a cold day when they fail to show their hands.

Farmers, mechanics, railroaders, laborers rely on Dr. Thomas' Eclectic Oil. Takes the sting out of cuts, burns or bruises at once. Pain cannot stay where it is used. Judge Beeson and Mr. Charles Warner attended to some business matters in Elmwood today.

COURT DECIDES APPEALED CASES

Two Murder Cases Are Settled Against the Defendants.

THOMAS STAYS IN FOR LIFE.

Dr. J. E. Gilmore of Jones County Will Get New Trial—Important Decision in Liquor Nuisance Case—Tax Commission Organizes.

Des Moines, July 6.—The supreme court rendered thirty-nine decisions in appealed cases and the members departed for their homes. Among the cases decided was that of Brinsmaid against Alice Steele, in which the court upholds Miss Steele's right to an insurance policy willed to her by her betrothed, but not transferred formally.

Three murder cases were disposed of, Francis Hamilton of Decatur county and Henry Thomas of Polk county, having their sentences affirmed, the latter for life, and Dr. J. E. Gilmore of Jones county getting a new trial.

In a notable case from Sloux City, wherein the law of the state in regard to certiorari in liquor nuisance cases was attacked, the court holds the law is constitutional.

Among other cases were the following from Pottawattamie county: Gray against Bloom, appellant, affirmed; Prohardt against Duff, reversed; Blizzard Bros. appellants, against Grover Canning company, reversed.

Tax Commission Organizes.

The new state tax commission met and organized, with M. H. Cohen of this city as chairman. The commission will investigate the tax and revenue laws of Iowa and the methods of collecting the same and suggest such changes as the board deems advisable in a report to be made to the next session of the general assembly.

New Guard Army.

Des Moines will get a national guard battalion army in the near future, costing between $65,000 and $100,000, and a battalion in the national guard, the first to be formed in Iowa in any one city. The plans have just been completed by the colonel of the Fifty-fifth regiment.

QUEER FREAK OF THE WIND

Shed Weighing Ton Carried Across Street and Nothing Else Disturbed.

Creston, Ia., July 6.—A queer phenomenon was witnessed here when out of a cloudless sky, and with scarcely a breeze stirring, a cow shed, weighing over a ton, was suddenly picked up and carried across the street on to a vacant lot and set down intact. The freak caused considerable anxiety on the part of those who witnessed it. Thunder was heard several times about the time the "cyclone" was noticed. On either side of the shed at the time it was lifted only a slight breeze existed and no further disturbance took place.

Fatal Accidents in Iowa.

Des Moines, July 6.—Fourth of July accidents were numerous throughout Iowa. At Davenport Rossene McCoen, aged ten, died from powder burns and a bullet from a boy's rifle broke the arm of Mrs. Dorothea Jarchow, aged seventy. At Burlington Frank Dewein died from injuries caused by a premature explosion of powder. Harold Ashway is dying from a similar accident.

Showers in Iowa.

Des Moines, July 6.—The climax of the heated spell came when the government thermometer showed 105 degrees for about three hours, steadily, and private measurements ran much higher. Scattered rainstorms pulled the mercury down to 96 before evening. Reports to the weather office indicated that similar heat prevailed all over Iowa.

Afro-Americans Elect Officers.

Ottumwa, Ia., July 5.—The Afro-American council of Iowa, in session here, elected the following officers: President, Rev. J. Cornelius Reid of Ottumwa; secretary, Mrs. T. A. Hughes of Newton; treasurer, Dr. E. A. Carter of Buxton; statistician, S. Joe Brown of Des Moines.

Davenport Gets Regatta.

Dubuque, Ia., July 6.—Davenport will get the next regatta of the Mississippi Valley Power Boat association, LaCrosse having withdrawn with the understanding that the 1913 regatta goes to that town. St. Clair Ede of Dubuque was elected commodore of the association.

Cluster of Barns Burn.

Cedar Rapids, Ia., July 6.—A cluster of eight barns in the residence district here burned. Many homes were threatened, and it was only after a long hard struggle that the firemen succeeded in getting the flames under control. The loss will be several thousand dollars.

Cannot Find Iowan's Body.

Moscatoine, Ia., July 6.—The body of Miss Eugenia Stapleton, who, with E. J. Lillibridge, formerly of Moscatoine, was drowned while boating on Cass lake, near Clonnet, Minn., was recovered. Lillibridge's body has not been found.

Honest Medicines Versus Fakes.

President Taft's message suggesting an amendment to the Pure Food and Drugs law in its relation to Prepared Medicines, does not refer to such standard medicines as Foley's Honey and Tar Compound and Foley Kidney Pills, both of which are true medicines carefully compounded of ingredients whose medicinal qualities are recognized by the medical profession itself as the best known remedial agents for the diseases they are intended to counteract. For over three decades Foley's Honey and Tar Compound has been a standard remedy for coughs, colds and affections of the throat, chest and lungs for children and for grown persons, and it retains today its pre-eminence above all other preparations of its kind. Foley Kidney Pills are equally effective and meritorious. For sale by F. G. Fricke & Co.

Funeral of James Riley.

The funeral of James Riley occurred this morning at 10 o'clock from St. John's Catholic church, Rev. Father Devlin of Omaha conducting the services, in the absence of Father Shine. Interment was made in the Catholic cemetery. The pall-bearers were: Ed Egenberger, Antone Kaubeck, Francis Whalen, Joe Wales, Thomas Mack and F. Shields of Omaha.
