ANOTHER VICTORY FOR THE CEDAR CREEK TEAM

Play Avoca Sunday and Return With Another Scalp Dangling to Their Belts.

Wolf's Colts motored down to the village of Avoca and copped another nifty game of ball from that team Sunday before a large crowd of fans. Connor was the whole show, with steam enough to run a buzz-saw when the game was over. He had 17 strikeouts, 5 assists, allowed no bases on balls, and, to top it off, in the fourth inning batted the ball over the center fielder with the bases full and scored himself on the throw-in. Hirz also had a good day and accepted 5 chances, two of which were of the gingery type, and would hardly have been an error had he not fielded them clean.

Dugan had a good day, throwing a runner out from right field at third base and getting a fine hit to right field and bringing in the first run of the game. The only chances offered the remainder of the bunch were handled with ease. Batteries—Cedar Creek, Wolf and Connor; Avoca, C. Gruber and Pittman.

Avoca has a clean bunch of ball players and a very clever manager, but the musicians are very stingy with their dope. Maybe if the Colts would allow Avoca to get a lead they would jar loose, but Wolf says that won't take place soon, as victory is music enough to suit him.

Plattsmouth Man Gets Contract.

The contract for plastering the new postoffice building has been awarded to Emil Walters, who was in Omaha yesterday and engaged a number of lathers. Mr. Walters was in competition with bids from Illinois and Iowa parties, but succeeded in figuring the work close enough to land the job. He will set his force of men to work Wednesday and the lathing will be done rapidly. The rafters for the roof are being placed and the roof will no doubt be put on this week. Bauer & Son have the contract for the roofing. The way the work is progressing the contractor will be well within the allotted time completing the building ready to be turned over to the government.

Taken by Mistake.

Whoever took a coat from the Manspeaker livery barn office on the night of the Fourth of July will please return same. It was no doubt taken by mistake. The party who got it is known and this is simply a reminder of the fact.

Passed His 85th Milestone.

Thomas W. Shryock passed his 85th milestone in his journey through life on Tuesday of this week. Until within the past few weeks the venerable old gentleman has never carried a cane and is still more active than many men a quarter of a century his junior. He was given a postcard shower by his friends as an expression of congratulation. That he may live many more years is the wish of his many Nebraska friends, among whom the Courier editor is pleased to be classed.—Louisville Courier.

DR. COOK AND FAMILY RETURN FROM TRIP

They Enjoyed a Very Pleasant Trip and Viewed Many Objects of Interest.

Dr. E. W. Cook and wife returned from Buffalo, Niagara Falls and New York City last evening. Dr. and Mrs. Cook departed for Buffalo June 14, where he attended the national encampment of the M. W. A., after which he and Mrs. Cook went to Niagara Falls for a few days to witness the grandeur of the scenery about the falls. From the falls they went to New York City and visited friends for a time, returning to Salem, Iowa, where they visited the doctor's parents for a few days.

Dr. and Mrs. Cook had intended to visit Washington, D. C., on this trip, but after touring New York and other points of interest, the travelers grew weary and decided to return to Nebraska. On their homeward journey they did not notice the effects of the drouth until they crossed the Mississippi river, when the lack of moisture was very apparent. The appointment of head physician for the M. W. A. of Nebraska will be made some time this month, and the doctor is not losing any sleep over the outcome, as his friends had practically won the fight for him before he left for Buffalo.

County Commissioners Meet.

County Commissioners C. R. Jordan and L. D. Sweitzer arrived from Alvo and Weeping Water last evening, and met Commissioner Freiderich this morning for their monthly session, which ordinarily would have fallen on the Fourth this month. But all of them feeling the spirit of '76 within them, must throw aside all business cares on this great natal day.

Everybody wants to try a sack of Forest Rose flour. Why? Because they have heard that it is one of the best grades of flour put on the market. Try a sack and see if you don't think so.

J. C. Yost, from near Mynard, was looking after some business matters in the city last Saturday afternoon.

LOCAL NEWS

Frank Johnson and wife and son, Walker, drove over from the farm near Weeping Water yesterday and will visit Mr. Johnson's parents, Judge and Mrs. J. W. Johnson, over the Fourth.

No less than a dozen new threshers have been bought by farmers of Cass county this season, and we do not know how many older ones are in use. It is expected there will be plenty of work for all of them.

A large crowd of farmers, accompanied by their wives and daughters, were in the city Saturday, and our merchants and clerks had to hump themselves in waiting on customers. A great Saturday town is Plattsmouth.

Don C. Rhoden, candidate for the democratic nomination for sheriff, was in the city a few hours Saturday evening interviewing his many friends. Mr. Rhoden possesses the right qualities for a vote-getter, and he is a hustler.

D. C. Rhoden passed through the city today en route home from Modale, Iowa, where he had been to see his mother, who is visiting with her daughter, Mrs. C. Morrow, and who has been quite sick. He found his mother improving and hopes are entertained for her early recovery.

Galen Rhoden and Alva Long of Murray were in the city yesterday evening, returning home from Omaha, where they had been for a few hours visiting with their wives at the hospital. Both ladies are getting along nicely and it is expected that they will be able to return home before many days.

Durwood Lynde of Omaha came down Saturday evening to spend Sunday with Plattsmouth friends. Durwood has a good position with the Missouri Pacific railroad company and will make Omaha his home for the present. He called at the Journal office and ordered the paper sent to his address.

George Peters and Louie Dunsak were over from Avoca a few hours today, coming by the auto route. We understand that Louie is now a resident of Wyoming. We are sorry, for he is a good worker in the democratic harness. But what is Cass county's loss is Wyoming's gain. We understand, however, that Louie will soon return to God's country.

Looking at the Apple Crop.

C. V. Rundle of Rundle Brothers, apple buyers, was in the city this morning and rode out in the county with P. E. Ruffner to look at the early apple crop. They expect to buy at this place, and will be ready in about ten days to commence. All of the farmers around Plattsmouth who sold to them two years ago will be glad to hear that they will buy here, for they were treated so nicely by these gentlemen. Mr. Ruffner will no doubt be employed by this firm as an assistant, and everybody knows Ed.

Try a sack of Forest Rose flour the next time you need flour. Ask your dealer what he thinks of it.

Wreck on Burlington.

A warped rail on the Burlington track near LaPlatte this morning caused freight train No. 81 to leave the track, taking off three or four cars and delaying traffic for some time. No. 6, arriving at 7:56, and No. 15, going west at 8:16, were annulled between Omaha and Plattsmouth and Mr. Johnson's train was pressed into service, meeting No. 6 at the Junction and carrying the passengers expecting to go to Omaha on No. 15 to the Junction, where they could get a train to the metropolis this morning.

WEDDED AT HOLY ROSARY CHURCH THIS MORNING

Anthony Nesladek and Miss Rebecca Haines, Popular Young People, the Happy Ones.

A pretty wedding occurred at the Holy Rosary Catholic church this morning, Rev. M. A. Shine of St. John's Catholic church officiating, the contracting parties being Mr. Anthony Nesladek and Miss Rebecca Haines, both popular and well known Plattsmouth young people.

The groom was attended by Mr. Charles Jelinek, and the bride by Miss O'Donald of Murray as maid of honor, carrying white carnations, and by Miss Nesladek, as bridesmaid, carrying pink carnations. After the ceremony the happy couple repaired to the home of Mrs. James Skoumel, a cousin of the bride, where a reception was held this afternoon.

The bride and groom are well known to a large circle of Plattsmouth friends, the groom having been in the employ of the Plattsmouth Telephone company for some time, while the bride has filled the position of teacher in the schools of the city and elsewhere. They will begin house-keeping on West Main street, where a cottage has already been put in readiness for their home. The Journal joins with their large number of friends in this city in wishing them happiness and long life.

Escaped With His Life.

"Twenty-one years ago I faced an awful death," writes H. B. Martin, Port Harrelson, S. C. "Doctors said I had consumption and the dreadful cough I had looked it, sure enough. I tried everything I could hear of for my cough, and was under the treatment of the best doctor in Georgetown, S. C., for a year, but could get no relief. A friend advised me to try Dr. King's New Discovery. I did so, and was completely cured. I feel that I owe my life to this great throat and lung cure." That's why chills, fever and ague, all malarial and many blood diseases yield promptly to this wonderful blood purifier. Try them, and enjoy the glorious health and new strength they'll give you. ## RIVER THREATENS HISTORIC TOWN OF ST. DEROIN

Old Building Goes Into the River and Other Buildings Are in Danger.

Unless something can be done to curb the destructive currents of the Missouri river, the historic town of St. Deroin will soon be no more, says the Auburn Herald.

Recently the river changed its course and began to eat away the banks on the Nebraska side. Slowly but surely the banks began to disappear and it soon became evident that the old town, whose name is so familiar to pioneers, would soon be wiped out of existence.

A frame house, known as the Woodring property, was the first to go. The ground was eaten out from under the foundations by the water, and the structure toppled into the river. The house was built over forty years ago and was a landmark. If the brick school house, which is over forty years old, is saved it will have to be moved, as the river is rapidly encroaching on the ground on which it stands. Orchards and cornfields are threatened and from all appearances the place that was once a thriving river town will become food for the insatiable appetite of the Missouri river.

About 1850 the town of St. Deroin was founded. During the days of river transportation the town flourished and became an important shipping center. J. A. Ritter was the founder of the town and was, for years, identified with its business interests. He was afterward a county commissioner of Nemaha county and a prominent man in business and political circles. After the railroads came and the river was no longer used for transportation purposes, the town declined, but around it there clung the atmosphere of historic interest. If the town is destroyed by the encroachments of the river, the property loss will be very great.

A Peek Into His Pocket

would show the box of Bucklen's Arnica Salve that E. S. Loper, a carpenter, of Marilla, N. Y., always carries. "I have never had a cut, wound, bruise or sore it would not soon heal," he writes. Greatest healer of burns, boils, scalds, chapped hands and lips, fever sores, skin eruptions, eczema, corns and piles. 25c at F. G. Fricke & Co.

Fifty-two Bushels to the Acre.

Henry Bonemeier, one of Cass county's prominent German farmers, living near Murdock, has, so far as reported, the best wheat crop raised in the county. It threshed 52 bushels to the acre and is of excellent quality. Other reports come from that section of several other fields turning out 40 to 45 bushels per acre. Cass county is fortunate in having one of the finest wheat crops in its history, and generally can be depended upon.

Big Wheat Crop.

George Everett of Liberty precinct, southeast of Union, had eleven acres of wheat which yielded 567 bushels, which is a little more than 50 bushels to the acre. This is some wheat and will average up with the best raised in this or any other county. The wheat is of excellent quality, also.

Mike Pries came down from Cedar Creek this morning to spend the Fourth with friends.

Robert Baird Very Ill.

Robert Baird, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. William Baird, has been very ill since last Saturday. Last evening a trained nurse arrived from Omaha to take charge of the little patient. The little sufferer and his parents have the sympathy of the numerous friends of the family in this city and elsewhere, who hope for the speedy recovery of little Robert.
