Mrs. W. C. Brown was in Plattsmouth Wednesday morning, going that far with her sister's family, Mr. and Mrs. Sawyer and children, who were returning to their home.

Miss Elsie Stokes, who has been visiting here from Canada, has accepted a position in the Murray State bank, as assistant to Cashier Boedecker, and will enter upon her new duties today. Miss Stokes is an excellent young lady and we predict that she will meet with success in her new position.

Mr. Nelson Carnine of Beebe, Indiana, is in Murray this week visiting at the home of his sister-in-law, Mrs. S. A. Long, immediately east of Murray. Mr. Carnine is 76 years of age, one of the few boys in Blue that are left among us, and is as spry as many a man at 20 years his junior. Mr. Carnine is a mighty fine old gentleman, one with whom it is always a pleasure to meet, and he is making a lot of new friends in Murray.

The musicale given by the Ladies' Missionary society last Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Glen Boedecker, was well attended, and the well-prepared musical program was sure a treat to all those in attendance. Each number was well rendered and received a goodly share of applause. Refreshments were served by the ladies, and the afternoon's entertainment made them $12.50. It was very successful in every particular.

A Pleasant Affair.

A lawn party at the home of Leola and Charles Vallery Saturday evening was one of the most pleasant events of the season. The early part of the evening was spent out on the lawn, where various games were played, while the latter part was spent in various contests, which were enjoyed by all. The first contest was called a spring planting. Miss Lillian Kersey won the first prize and Guy Stokes the other. Next was a cake contest, and Maude Rusterholtz captured the first prize, while Bryan Snyder won the booby. Then came a tree contest, Miss Maude Buserholtz also winning the first prize. During the evening punch was served in the dining room by Mesdames Frank and Glen Vallery, and at the usual hour ice cream and cake were served. At a late hour all adjourned to their homes, voting Leola and Charles royal entertainers. Those present were as follows: Misses Clara Young, Mae Lewis, Maude Rusterholtz, Vivian and Adell Fitzpatrick, Addie and Ethel Dill, Hattie and Amanda Wroyer, Fern Shrader, Gladys Rusterholtz, Isabella Young, Clara Copenhaver, Tessie Stokes, Elsie Stokes, Lizzie Wheeler, Lillian Kersey, Winnie and Florence Hutchinson, Anna and Mildred Snyder, Miss Dell, Loretta Walker, Edith Larue, Oglia Minford, Emily Warner, Myrtle Rice, Helen Vallery, Mildred Satchel, Margie Vallery, Violet Vallery, Hortense and Edna Sheperdson, Leola Vallery; Messrs. At King Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Dr. G. H. Gilmore and children, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. James Holmes and Ralph, Mr. and Mrs. Sawyer and children went down to old King Hill Monday for a day's outing along the river. They arrived there just in time to spread the noody meal and remained until after supper. We are informed that Dr. Gilmore and Will Brown spied a small quantity of back water from the river filled with fish. Having no hooks and lines, in fact they were not needed, they proceeded to catch them by hand. They waded into the mud far above their knees before they learned that the fish were of the gar variety. We are informed that the doctor carries several wounds about his lower limbs from their spear-like bills.

Meets With Serious Accident.

Enoch Mooreland met with a very serious accident last Thursday afternoon. He was working on his farm, three and one-half miles west of Murray, making some fence repairs that necessitated the services of an axe. In trimming some brush the axe caught on a wire, causing him to strike his left foot with the sharp blade, inflicting a very deep and dangerous wound. The blood flowed so freely that it came very near a serious hemorrhage, which was narrowly averted by timely medical aid and the assistance of William Baldwin, who assisted Mr. Mooreland to the house. At this time he is getting along as well as could be expected.

Should Be More Careful.

Last Saturday morning about 9 o'clock a couple of men driving a brown horse with spotted face, passed the home of Steve Beckner. In the vehicle they carried a double-barreled shotgun, and as they passed the Beckner home the younger man fired the gun, the charge striking the side of the house. Had it struck the window the shot would have passed through and struck Miss Gladys Rusterholtz in the face. It is believed the young man thoughtless shot at something in the tree near the house. The young men were recognized, but no ill-will is held against them, as Mr. Beckner believes it to have been an accident, but they should be careful in the future.

Surprise Mrs. Friedrich.

There was a very pleasant surprise party given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Nick Friedrich, one mile south of Murray, last Friday afternoon. The affair was given and carried to a most successful end by a number of lady friends in honor of Mrs. Friedrich. The afternoon was spent at cards, and at the usual hour refreshments were served. Following were those present: Mrs. Louie Friedrich, Mrs. Albert Schafer, Miss Rosa Schafer, Mesdames Rosa Hennings, John Ferris, Harry Todd, James Brown, Elmer Boedecker, Mark Ferris and S. O. Pitman.

Gone to Lincoln.

Charles N. Sullivan, formerly connected with the Rome hotel in Omaha, has accepted a position as clerk at the Lindell hotel. Mr. Sullivan is a son of the late Judge A. N. Sullivan of Plattsmouth, and has a wide acquaintance.—Lincoln Journal.

Charley was born and reared in Plattsmouth and has many friends at the old home, who will be very apt to hunt him up when they have occasion to visit the capital city. He is a hale fellow well met, and will prove quite an acquisition to the Lindell clerical force.

Bound for Alaska.

Isaac Pollard and Mrs. Barnum of Nehawka and Mrs. Emma Wallace of 1320 South Sixteenth street, Lincoln, left last evening for Seattle, where they will be joined by Mrs. Shotwell of that city, and all will go to Alaska, where they will remain some weeks. The three ladies are daughters of Mr. Pollard. Mr. Pollard is 81 years old, and has spent much time in the study of scientific subjects, and his principal object in going to Alaska is to make scientific research.—Lincoln Journal.

Has Great Yield.

Roy Howard, an industrious young farmer of the precinct, so far as heard from, holds the belt for Cass county wheat growing. There may be others reporting later, as the threshing season progresses, but to beat Roy they will have to hustle some. Here is his figures, given in by a neighbor, because Roy is a modest young man and would not say a word about it. From 22 acres of wheat he treshed 1,004 bushels, or an average of 45.6 bushels per acre.

Visits Her Daughter.

Mrs. Henton, better known in and near Mynard, her home, as Grandma Henton, is in Plattsmouth today visiting with her daughter, Mrs. Joseph Johnson. This is Grandma Henton's first visit to this city for the past three years. She has been making her home with her daughter, Mrs. William Gillispie, and owing to her advanced age of 87 years, she is unable to travel a great deal. The visit will prove quite a treat to the old lady, as well as for her daughter, Mrs. Johnson. She was accompanied today by her daughter, Mrs. Joseph Adams.

Special Discount.

We are holding a special discount sale on all our Ladies' Muslin wear and Summer Waists. Special prices to reduce the line.
