OPPORTUNITY FREE TO ALL

Pastor Russell Says Nothing That the World Can Do Can Interfere With the Divine Plan-All Mankind Will Have Full Opportunity For Life or Death Eternal, Because Christ Died For the Ungodly.

Elmira, N. Y., July 23. - Pastor Russell delivered two addresses here today to crowded and attentive nudiences. We report one on "God In The Home," from the text. "As for me and my house, we will serve the Lord" (Joshua xxiv; 15). The Pastor said :--Do not understand me to teach that the world's opportunity for life everiasting or death everlasting is now. "God bath appointed a Day in which He will judge the world," grant the world a judgment or trial or test. That great Day is future. It is the Day of Christ, a thousand years long. It will be a glorious opportunity. Present right doing and right thinking, or wrong doing and wrong thinking will have much to do with the condition of every man and woman at that time. He or she will opportunity either from a higher or a lower standpoint proportionately as he or she has acted wisely and conscientiously in the present time.

But nothing that the world can do can interfere with God's great proposition, that a full opportunity for life or death eternal shall then come to every member of the race because Christ died for the ungodly. The only class to whom present life means life or death eternal is the Church. And by totally disbelieved. What have they the Church I mean, not church attendants nor outward professors, but those who have entered into a covenant with God through Christ and and heights and depths passing all huwho have been made partakers of the Holy Spirit, tasting of the good Word | world's great need-to know God as of God and the powers of the Age to | He really is, a Father, a Friend, a God | "come. features of the Divine plan are now of the Bible, which prophetically pictures the future, assures as that in finished, which He bath declared to His servants, the prophets" (Revelation x, 7). The same book assures us that in God's due time, when the mystery is cleared, "All nations shall come and worship before Thee, for Thy righteous acts have been made manifest" (Revelation xv. 4). We are now living in the time when the "mystery" is ending and the righteous dealings of God, from the Scriptural standpoint, may be clearly seen.

But these revelations are not meant for the world in general now, but merely for "the elect," the "sanctified in Christ Jesus." "To you it is given to know the mysteries?" to outsiders of the opportunities and influence we these things are spoken in parables and dark sayings (Matthew slii, 11, 13). But not until the elect shall be glorified and the Messianic Kingdom established will the "mystery" be made fully known to the world and every knee bow and every tongue confess. Hence, only those of a contrite heart may now see, now understand, the real character of God. His real purposes toward man, etc. Thus our Lord declares, "This is life eternal that they should know Thee, the only true God. and Jesus Christ whom Thou bast sent" (John xvii, 3).

An Inundation of Unbelief.

In our day the shackles of ignorance and superstition are breaking. Men, women and children are beginning to think for themselves. They no longer believe the fairy tales of other days; the dreadful hobgoblins and nightmares of the Dark Ages respecting purgatory and eternal forture are doubted by all, and by the great mass now to attach them to the Almighty. since they have never been taught the love of God-the lengths and breadths man understanding? This is what our worldwide education is lending to. Few of our race can stand an education which recognizes no God, no revelation of Him, no responsibility to Him, and no hope of a future life which will be effected by the conduct of the present.

Every father, in particular, as the head of his family, should recognize the Almighty Creator, and hold Him up to his family-"God First." We need not urge upon God's couse crated people the privileges of praycomes through prayer to the younger members of the family. This is one way of putting "God First." "In all thy ways acknowledge Him," or, as Joshua said: "As for me and my house, we will serve the Lord."

My thought is that the Bible teaches that there are many people of the world, who are reverential, kind, genthe and just to a very considerable degree, who are not saints; who have not presented their bodies living sacrifices to God; who have not been begotten of His Holy Spirit, who are not, therefore, members of that exclusive "little flock" to whom it is the Father's good pleasure to give the Kingdom-in joint-heirship with their Lord and Redeemer and Head. To this latter class our Master evidently referred when He said to His footstep followers, "Let your light so shine before men that they may see your good works and giority your Father which is in heaven" (Matthew v, 16).

To live righteously, soberly and god-In in this present world to the extent of one's ability is what everyone should do no less. To live a life of sperimee to lay down our fives for the brethren, for the truth, in the service of the Lord, is another matter, which fustice does not require and which the Bible nowhere enjoins upon mankind. It is pointed out as a privileer to those who desire it, and glory, honor and immortality on the spirit plane is the reward attached to this invitation or High Calling. It is the selection of this special class of consecrated ones. that is the particular order of the Divine program at the present time.

As a child of religious parents she had had helpful influences in her home, but in school she had come in contact with the general spirit of skepticism, which, instead of repudiating the Bible, as did Ingersoll, Paine and Voltaire, merely smiles at any reference to a Divine revelation, a faith in God and a respect for His will, give them unnecessary trouble?
