LITTLE GIRL HAS A VERY NARROW ESCAPE

Falls Into Undermined Water Pipe and Is Lost to Sight for a Brief Period.

From Saturday's Daily.

While Annie Jirousek, in company with two other girls, was on her way to the home of Father Valeek last night an accident occurred which threatened to drown the young lady. It seems that while walking over the lawn and casually chatting the two girls suddenly missed Annie, and looking about discovered that only her head and shoulders were visible above the ground.

The earth had caved away over an undermined water pipe and the girl had fallen through into a deep mud-hole. The excited screams of her friends aroused the neighbors, who quickly came to rescue the frightened girl. She was pulled out, covered with mud and half fainting, but not seriously hurt.

Mysterious Bell Rings.

Thursday evening two charming young ladies who were visiting in the city, and two young men of this city were out driving and the course of their drive led them past a cemetery south of this city. While on the way ghost stories had been told, and as the party drew near the cemetery and when passing a school house, the bell standing in the yard began to ring. The ladies were greatly frightened and Gene had to be assisted from the carriage. However, they later saw the joke of the matter.

Picnic at the Big Bridge.

A very jolly picnic was held at the Burlington bridge yesterday afternoon, when the Christian Science Sunday school betook themselves there for a few hours of pelasure. Games and sports were indulged in until time to open the lunch baskets—then it was that the real picnic began. The twenty-five young people returned home late in the evening, having had a most enjoyable time.

A north bound freight train had four cars ditched Sunday morning at the switch just below town, and it required a large force of men working several hours to clear up the wreck. There was slight damage to the cars, but nobody was injured, and as it occurred on a side-track it did not interfere with the running of the regular trains.

Sam Stites arrived Wednesday from Des Moines, Iowa, where he recently completed the course in pharmacy at Highland Park college, and has since held a good position in that city. A Great Progress.

To some people the assertion of physicians that a great progress was made since Dr. Lister introduced absolute cleanliness in medicine and surgery, may seem absurd. It seems that it could not be otherwise, but we found that many preparations are being offered to our public, made in unclean factories and from the poorest ingredients. They certainly cause more harm than good. One of the cleanest laboratories in the world is that where Triner's American Elixir of Bitter Wine is manufactured. It should be used in every distress of the stomach and the bowels, because it will clean out these organs and also strengthen them. This will relieve constipation, pains and cramps, different inflammations, accumulation of gases, rheumatic and neuralgic pains, headache and backache, eruptions due to impure blood, many ailments of women, nervousness and loss of energy. At drug store, Jos. Triner, 1333-1339 So. Ashland ave., Chicago, Illinois.

Celebrates Birthday.

Yesterday being the eleventh birthday anniversary of Levone Lehnhoff, who has been visiting in the city for the past three weeks with her grandmother, Mrs. E. D. A dainty picnic supper was served in the park and Miss Levone received many pretty gifts to help her in remembering the event. Mr. and Mrs. Lehnhoff came down from Omaha to spend the day with their daughter.

Will Move in Two Weeks.

John Nemetz informs the Journal that a slight error was made in the announcement of his removal, which it was stated would occur at once. Mr. Nemetz will not move into his new quarters until they are completely overhauled, repapered and repainted throughout. A concrete floor will be placed in the rear, where the ice cream machinery will be operated. The preparation of the room will require about two weeks, and just as soon as ready Mr. Nemetz will occupy it.

LUMBERMEN MAKE DENIAL

Directors of Nebraska Association Issue Statement.

DECLARE THEY ARE NOT GUILTY

Board Orders Indicted Secretaries to Employ Counsel and Will Make Separate Defense—Railroads Protest Against Valuations.

Lincoln, July 22.—The directors of the Nebraska State Lumbermen's association were in session at the Lincoln hotel. After adjournment the following statement was given out by the board:

"Indictments were recently returned against ex-Secretary Bird Critchfield and his successor, E. E. Hall of the Nebraska association, by a federal grand jury at Chicago, they being charged in the indictment with gathering and disseminating information to the members of the Nebraska association relative to the depredations of poachers and catalogue houses between the dates of July, 1908, and July, 1911, which said acts are defined as being in restraint of trade and in violation of the Sherman act.

"While the indictments are directed at ex-Secretary Critchfield and Secretary Hall, personally, the board felt that the association must take cognizance of the matter, knowing that the conduct of the affairs and business is in no way violative of either state or federal laws, and that it is not the purpose of the association or any part of the duties of its secretary to gather or disseminate such information as is charged, and that its secretaries did not perform said acts.

"Presumably, the grand jury proceeded on the theory that the Nebraska secretaries were members of a secretaries' bureau of information, as were the other secretaries indicted, said bureau being maintained for the purpose of informing the members of the various state associations of business done directly with consumers by scalpers and catalogue houses. Ex-Secretary Critchfield was a member of this bureau in 1906, but the association disapproved of this and the membership was discontinued, since which time the Nebraska association has had no connection with said bureau.

"After being harassed by trust busters for several years, and after having made a successful defense in the state courts against attempts to have the association dissolved, the members feel that this latest attack upon them, through their secretaries, is unwarranted and unjust, and the board of directors has directed Messrs. Critchfield and Hall to employ counsel to take the necessary steps to have the indictments quashed so far as it relates to them. Being guilty of no act which can in any way be construed or distorted as in violation of law, the Nebraska secretaries will not join issues with the other indicted secretaries, but will make a separate defense."

Roads Kick on Valuations.

The state board of assessment was confronted with the railway tax commissioners who protested against the valuation placed on railroad property in South Omaha for taxation for city or terminal purposes. Tax Commissioner Pollard of the Burlington alleged that railroad real estate on which road beds have been built is taxed two to five times more than real estate nearby. He pointed out examples and showed the board the law which says railroad real estate shall be assessed the same as adjacent real estate.

Mr. Fitzgerald, who was employed by the city of South Omaha to place valuations on railroad and public service corporation property, was present with an engineer to defend his values. There was such a difference of opinion between Mr. Fitzgerald and Mr. Pollard that the board decided to get further information on values from the physical valuation department of the railway commission.

Blanks on Primary Ballot.

Attorney General Grant Martin is preparing an opinion holding that blanks should be left on the primary ballot to permit the writing in of names of candidates. He will also hold that where no candidates have been placed in nomination for an office the name of such office should be printed on the primary ballot with blank spaces below the name of the office for the writing in of names.

Attorney General Martin takes a liberal view of the statutes and holds that names of candidates may be written in on the ballot and votes so cast shall be canvassed.

VIOLENT SCENE IN CAMORRA TRIAL

Personal Dispute Suspends Sitting of Court.

Viterbo, July 22.—The most violent scenes of the Camorra trial was provoked by a personal dispute between Captain Fabroni and Lawyer Lloy. In the tumult all the lawyers fled from the room, Enrico Alfano and Gennaro Abbatemaggio, the informer, were thrown out bodily by the carabinieri, Giovanni Bartolezzi fell in a fit and President Bianchi, helpless to maintain order, declared the session adjourned. Throughout the hubbub Fabroni stood pale, but impassive. As the court was being cleared, he said: "The Camorra, in or out of court, can't intimidate me."

Fabroni, captain of the Neapolitan carabinieri, was assigned by the ministry of justice to uproot the Camorra. He told on the stand of the results of his detective work and the operations of his associates, Marshal Capizutti and Marshal Farris. Alessandro Lloy, now attorney for the defense, formerly edited a newspaper. Fabroni has testified that revelations against the Camorra made by Editor Lloy were not in harmony with the claims set up by Lawyer Lloy in defense of his clients. Bitter personal feeling between the detective and the lawyer has resulted.

FARM VALUES ARE DOUBLED

Census Bureau Announces Latest General Farm Statistics of United States.

Washington, July 22.—Of marked interest because of many statements made during the Canadian reciprocity debate was the census bureau's announcement of the latest general farm statistics of the United States, showing that land in farms more than doubled in value during the last ten years, having increased $15,252,788,000, or 118 per cent. In 1900 they were valued at $12,051,033,000 and returns of the thirteenth census show they are now worth $28,304,821,000.

Farm lands, farm buildings and farm implements of the country are valued at $35,859,663,000, compared with $17,457,425,000 ten years ago.

The number of farms in 1910 was 6,340,120, as compared with 5,737,372 in 1900, an increase of 11 per cent. The land increased in 1900 from 355,692,000 acres to 373,703,000 in 1910, or 5 per cent, but a larger increase, 15 per cent, is noted in improved acreage, which in 1900 was 414,490,000 acres and in 1910 477,424,000 acres.

From 1900 to 1910 the average value per acre of all land in farms rose from $15.60 to $32.50, or 108 per cent. Farm buildings, which in 1900 were valued at $2,556,614,000, were reported in 1910 as worth $6,294,025,000, an increase of 77 per cent.

Farm implements and machinery, reported in 1910 as worth $1,261,817,000 and ten years previously as worth $749,778,000, show an increase of 68 per cent.

Engine Goes Over Embankment.

Springfield, Neb., July 22.—A Missouri Pacific freight engine and caboose were ditched six miles north of Springfield, and Engineer Henry Johnson of Omaha was terribly scalded by escaping steam.
