MURRAY, NEBRASKA

Dr. Newell, the dentist, in Murray every Tuesday.

Mrs. W. C. Brown was in Omaha Wednesday.

Ice cream, fruit sundaes and cones at A. L. Baker's.

Frank Gobelman, painter and paper hanger, Plattsmouth.

S. O. Pitman and Glen Boedeker were Plattsmouth visitors Tuesday.

Mrs. Addie Stokes was an Omaha visitor Wednesday of this week.

Mrs. A. L. Baker was in Plattsmouth Wednesday morning, going up to have some dental work done.

Chris Miller fell through the hay loft floor a few days ago and bruised himself slightly. Fortunately there were no serious injuries.

Don't forget the date, Friday night, August 4th, and the place, Lloyd Gopen's, and who is giving it, the Loyal Boreans of the Christian church.

W. B. Virgin was a visitor at Plattsmouth on Wednesday, and while here took time to call at this office and renew his allegiance to the Old Reliable, for which please accept our thanks.

The class of Loyal Boreans of the Christian Sunday school will give an ice cream supper at the home of their teacher, Mrs. Lloyd Gopen, Friday evening, August 4. Ice cream and cake, 10 cents. Proceeds to be used for purchasing chairs for their class room. Everybody invited.

Frank Sheldon of Nehawka was calling on friends here one day last week.

Be sure to attend the ice cream social at the Lloyd Gopen home on Friday evening, August 4.

The "Thimble Bee" will meet with Mrs. G. H. Gilmore Friday afternoon. Everyone invited.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Long and daughter, Gertrude, were shopping in Plattsmouth Tuesday.

Mrs. William Long and her brother visited at Jake Miller's at Weeping Water a few days this week.

James Mrasek and wife of Plattsmouth spent Sunday with his brother, Joe and family, east of town.

Miss Ida Boedeker is visiting her sister, Mrs. John Young, near Plainview. Miss Ida expects to be gone three weeks.

Mrs. W. C. Brown returned home from Creston, Iowa, Tuesday morning. Monday she was the reader on a Masonic program given at one of the hotels in Creston.

Pitman & Davis have sold and placed in running order this week one of their popular acetylene gas plants in the large Woolsey home near Wyoming. The plant has a capacity of 32 lights, and is one of the new designs. The Woolsey residence has fifteen rooms and is lighted throughout with this plant. Pitman & Davis have placed a number of these plants and all are giving excellent satisfaction.

Mrs. Dave Pitman is numbered with the sick this week.

Mrs. G. D. Connally has been quite sick for the past few days.

Mrs. A. L. Baker and daughter, Opha, were in Omaha last Thursday.

Dr. J. F. Brendel and wife were Plattsmouth visitors Wednesday afternoon.

Troy Davis of Weeping Water was visiting friends in and around Murray Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Brendel, from near Avoca, were over-Sunday visitors in Murray.

I. M. Davis was looking after some business matters in the county seat Wednesday.

Mrs. J. W. Berger is enjoying a visit this week from her grandchildren from Nebraska City.

The "company machine" broke down yesterday and Lloyd Gopen made a trip to Omaha for repairs.

The little child of Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Churchill has been quite sick, but is some better at this time.

James Loughridge, S. O. Pitman, Glen Boedeker and Charles Boedeker were in Plattsmouth last Saturday evening.

J. M. McCulloch and little son were Plattsmouth visitors last Saturday. Jim called at the Journal office to renew his subscription.

Dr. Newell still comes to Murray every week. His recent fire in Union will in no way keep him from making his regular weekly visit here every Tuesday.

Help the Loyal Boreans in getting the chairs for their class room by attending the ice cream social at the Lloyd Gopen home Friday night, August 4. Only 10 cents.

Mr. and Mrs. Hansen attended the funeral Tuesday of the little child killed in the accident at Union last Saturday night. Mrs. Olson made her home with Mrs. Hansen before she was married.

A. Hast has just received a big shipment of Santos-Peabody coffee, which he sells at 25c per pound. This is our leader in the coffee line. We also carry 20c, 30c, 35c and 40c grades. Try our line.

Eugene, the 10-year-old son of Bert Everett, had the end of his thumb caught in a wringer last Saturday and the end taken off. While the accident was quite painful, the results will not prove serious.

Ray Davis returned home Sunday from a week or ten days' visit with his brother, M. S. Davis and family, at Fort Collins, Colorado. He returned home with his brother, after his visit here with friends and relatives.

Miss Isabelle Young entertained at dinner Sunday for Mr. Arthur Hansen. Covers were laid for Misses Willa Moore, Villa Gopen, Isabelle Young; Messrs. Arthur Hansen, Harry Creamer and Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Young.

F. L. Rhoden was in Plattsmouth last Friday and called at the Journal office to renew his subscription for another year. Frank is one of the lucky farmers this season, having a goodly share of his land in wheat and the crop was good.

Dave Young attended the republican convention in Weeping Water last Thursday. There were nine delegates selected, but Mr. Young was the only one that attended. James Holmes was selected committeeman from this precinct.

C. H. Harris and Steve Copenhaver, from south of Murray, were in Plattsmouth Thursday afternoon looking after some business matters, and found time to call for a brief visit at the Journal office. They both renewed for their paper for another year while here.

Mrs. Ben Noel met with quite a painful accident last Monday. She was engaged in doing the family washing and was running the wringing machine by a gasoline engine. Her hand was caught in the wringer and before the belt could be thrown off the machine the rollers passed nearly to her elbow. The muscle of the arm were pretty badly torn.

FUNERAL OF MRS. JANE CLARK TUESDAY

The Services Conducted by L. W. Gade, With a Large Congregation in Attendance.

From Wednesday's Daily.

The funeral service over the remains of Mrs. Jane Clark occurred at the Cedar Creek church yesterday afternoon, and was attended by a large congregation of old-time neighbors and friends of the deceased. The service was conducted by Rev. L. W. Gade, pastor of the Presbyterian church of Plattsmouth.

Jane Marlow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Marlow, was born in North Dublin, Ireland, April 1, 1831, and died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. R. A. Wilson, at Omaha, July 23, 1914, being in her 81st year. She left Ireland with her parents when yet an infant, coming to Woodstock, Canada, in the Province of Toronto, where she grew to young womanhood and was married to James Clark in 1850. Mr. and Mrs. Clark removed to Grand Rapids, Michigan, where they resided for a few years, when they removed to Adams county, Nebraska in 1873, and removed to Cass county about 1881. Mr. Clark preceded his wife to the unknown world about twenty years ago, since which time Mrs. Clark has resided with her married daughters and sons, but the greater part of the time with Mrs. Schneider.

Nine children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Clark, six of whom survive her, namely: Mrs. J. J. Schneider of Cedar Creek, J. T. Clark of Powell, S. H. Clark of this city, R. J. Clark of Moorfield, Mrs. R. A. Wilson of Omaha, and Mrs. Henry Muckenaupt of Sterling, Nebraska.

The death of Mrs. Clark will be sadly mourned by her large circle of friends and acquaintances. Everyone knew her as "Grandma" Clark. She was a faithful wife and mother, a kind neighbor and noble Christian woman, and the large procession which followed her remains to the cemetery evidenced how great a hold she had on the esteem and respect of those who knew her.

The pall-bearers were: J. Hossendow, Adam Meisinger, George Meisinger, G. P. Meisinger, George Stoehr and Frank Blotzer.

Card of Thanks.

To the neighbors and friends who have so kindly tendered us their sympathy in our recent great bereavement and sorrow we hereby express our sincerest and most heartfelt thanks.

Mrs. J. J. Schneider and Family, J. T. Clark and Family, S. H. Clark and Family, Robert Clark, Mrs. R. A. Wilson and Family, Mrs. H. Muckenaupt and Family.
