PERSONS, CAN HUNT AND FISH ON OWN LAND

Man Need Not Have a License in Order to Enjoy Sport on His Own Land.

Does a man have to take out a hunting or fishing license in order that he may indulge in these forms of sport on his own land? It has been decided that he does not.

Where a stream is the boundary line between one man's land and that of another the owner of the land can fish and hunt as much as he likes so long as he stays on his own premises. He can have a pole and line long enough to reach clear across the stream and can take fish from the other side, but his feet must stand on his own land. If he owns the land on both sides of the river, of course he is all right.

Judge James R. Dean.

World-Herald: "When Judge Dean was on the supreme bench numerous political questions came before the court and the value of a bi-partisan court was indicated by Judge Dean's searching dissenting opinions."

He was taken to Lincoln Tuesday, where an operation was performed upon the skull and it was found that the skull was fractured in two places. Although Guy has at no time regained consciousness since the accident he was able to take some nourishment Wednesday for the first time. Elmwood Leader-Echo.

FAST TRAIN HAS SHAKEUP

Pennsylvania 18-Hour Train Jumps Track in Indiana.

ENGINEER STICKS TO HIS POST

One Hundred Twenty-Five Passengers Get Severe Jolting, but Further Than This No Serious Injuries Reported—Delayed Two Hours.

Chicago, Aug. 7.—One hundred and twenty-five passengers on the Pennsylvania eighteen-hour train were irritated, but uninjured, when the engine, tender and baggage car jumped the track while going at full speed between Indiana Harbor and Burlington, Ind.

The engine and tender broke from the train when the engineer applied the emergency brakes, and leaving the rails plunged down an embankment. The train stopped with a jerk that threw the passengers from their seats, but remained upright on the tracks. The baggage car, immediately behind the tender, left the tracks, but did not overturn.

Fireman Hys jumped when the engine left the rails and was hurt seriously. Engineer Summers stuck to his engine and went into the ditch with it, in some manner escaping serious hurt.

The accident occurred when the train had gathered full speed going down the incline from the elevated tracks in Indiana harbor. The tender left the tracks and bumped along the ties. Engineer Summers applied the emergency brakes and the strain broke the coupling between the tender and baggage car.

The total delay to the fast train because of the accident was two hours. A careful investigation failed to reveal any cause of the tender leaving the track and railroad men seemed unable to explain how it occurred.

"We had just got started at good speed on that part of the track on the surface grade after coming down the elevation in Indiana Harbor," said Engineer Summers. "First I noticed the tender was causing more than the usual amount of dust, then I felt a tug, as it left the rails, and threw on the emergency brake. That broke the coupling and the engine went off."

"No one on the train was hurt," said Conductor A. C. Ross, "though all were jarred a little when the train stopped so quickly. We were going at full speed and stopped within a few feet after the brakes were applied."

SWAT 6,000,000 FLIES

One Youth Kills 224,600 and Wins First Prize Offered by Paper.

Washington, Aug. 7.—The biggest fly swatting contest in the country ended here with 6,000,000 dead insects accounted for and with the returns still incomplete.

The participants in the contest were the school children of Washington, who for two weeks have been striving for the prizes offered by a newspaper to the ten boys and girls who swatted the greatest number of flies.

The dead flies were estimated by measure and credited to the contestants by Dr. Murray of the health department.

The first prize was won by Layton H. Burdett, a youth, who killed 224,600 flies in the fortnight.

It is not contended that the warfare has reduced the number of flies in Washington, but hundreds of households have been rid of the pests and the example set has given a remarkable impetus to the fly swatting movement here and elsewhere.

ISSUES MILLIONTH PATENT

United States Office Grants It to Maker of Puncture Proof Auto Tires.

Washington, Aug. 7.—The millionth patent issued by the United States was announced by Commissioner of Patents Moore. It is for a puncture proof tire for automobiles and other vehicles, depending upon rubber springs for its resiliency, and is the invention of an Akron, O., man.

So much interest had been displayed by the public in the completion of the number 1,000,000 that Commissioner Moore consented to announce the patent ahead of publication in the next issue of the official gazette tomorrow.

Although this patent bears the number 1,000,000, it is really number 1,009,957. Until 1836, when the present bureau was organized, patents were issued without being numbered. Between 1790 and 1836, during which period patents were under control of the state department, 9,957 were issued.

Red Oak was a former home of the Mankers. The date for the shipment of the body from California has not been definitely set. ### Store at Cairo Is Robbed.

Cairo, Neb., Aug. 7.—A burglar entered the general merchandise store of Dell Thompson here and quite a number of articles are missing. There are also some razors, knives and jewelry missing.

SIX INCHES OF HAIL NEAR BIRDWOOD

Extended Damage to Corn Crop in Vicinity of North Platte.

North Platte, Neb., Aug. 7.—Reports are just coming in as to the damage done by the storm. In this city the hail did not do very much damage outside of breaking a few windows and some small damage to trees and gardens. At Birdwood, about four miles west of here, the storm was very severe and the path of the hail storm destroyed practically all of the corn. It is reported that on the Birdwood table to the north hail fell to a depth of six inches. Another hail storm extended from Bignell to the southwest and farmers' chickens were killed and considerable damage done to the crops. At Bignell the water was almost two feet deep for a time. One of North Platte's citizens was caught in the hail storm near Gannett while he was driving a team. He had no opportunity to unhitch or find shelter and was severely bruised by the hail, his eyes being black and his head and arms cut and bruised.
