SUIT FOR DIVORCE

James M. Tigner has filed suit for divorce against Louisa Tigner. Tigner states in his petition that he has been a resident of this county for fifteen years. He and the defendant were married on November 29, 1899, at Plattsmouth. Her maiden name was Louisa Jane Irey.

The plaintiff states in his petition that he has been a faithful husband and provided the defendant with a suitable home. On August 18, 1909, the defendant abandoned him without cause, and has since refused to live with him.

Zack Brown Leaves.

Zack Brown and his daughters, Vera, Mabel and Abbie, left this morning for Topeka, Kansas, where they will live in the future. The many firends of Mr. Brown regretted to see him leave, but wish him good health and happiness in his new home. He was, until this year, a painter for the Burlington since 1882, a period of 28 years. For several years he was foreman of the traveling painting crew for the western division. He lost his health in the work, as the lead, turpentine and varnish poisoned his system. He hopes that a rest of a year or two will restore his health.
