UNION Ledger.

John Pearsley has been quite sick the past week, but no ailment of dangerous nature, and he is reported steadily improving.

John Whiteman and wife, residing west of town, left on Monday for Oskaloosa, Iowa, to make a visit with Mr. Whiteman's sister.

Al Carper and family, who lost their household goods in the fire last week, are once more "at home," occupying the Cogdill house in the north part of town.

Herman Reike and son, Willie, and daughter, Hattie, departed last Friday morning for Cedar county to make a visit with relatives at Coleridge and Hartington.

Charley Engell, who for many years was a resident of this vicinity, arrived Tuesday evening from Colorado, where he's been making his home for some time.

Mrs. Lydia True arrived last Friday from Bulo and made a few days' visit with Union relatives and friends, departing Tuesday morning for Coleridge, where she will make her permanent home.

A report received from Manning, Iowa, states that Mr. and Mrs. Will Compton, former residents of this village, are the parents of a fine new baby, and our friend, Will, is hereby notified to forward the cigars to us by fast mail.

The board this week made contract with the fourth teacher, Prof. A. P. Stockdale of Chadron, who comes very well recommended, both as to ability and character. He will be the principal and handle the ninth and tenth grades. Mrs. Glasgow retaining the seventh and eighth and Miss Wunderlich and Miss O'Donnell in their departments as heretofore.

Lon Clarence, who has resided in South Dakota the past year, was here Tuesday for a short visit with his parents, being en route to Stockton, Kansas, where he owns a good farm. He and his family with their car of household goods reached Omaha Tuesday morning, and Lon jumped ahead on a passenger train in order to stop here, and continued his journey when his car came through that night.

Reese Delaney arrived home on Saturday from St. Louis, where he had been with his son, Hallie, who is in a hospital as a result of the railroad accident by which he lost his right hand. He says Hallie is getting along very nicely and was able to be out next day after arriving there, but the regulations require that he remain there some time yet. The report that a second amputation was necessary was not true, no reason for such report.

R. C. Pollard and Vilas Sheldon returned Saturday night from their trip to Denver and other points in Colorado. The boys report a very pleasant time, and Ray's big machine is sporting a brand new set of tires.

D. G. West and Fred L. Nutzman returned Tuesday evening from a trip to Georgia. There was some hitch in the negotiations for the tract of land they were dealing for and they came home without investing.

M. G. Kime was harrowing down some weeds Tuesday and in WEeping Water. Republican.

William F. Cooper has sold his restaurant business to John D. Wade and the latter has already taken possession.

Misses Mina Thierolf and Ethel Lyda of Plattsmouth came over last Thursday and are visiting for a couple of weeks with Mrs. G. H. Olive.

Mrs. Willis Badgley of Milford came in last Friday to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Davis, and attend the hautauqua.

Miss Bessie Edwards of Plattsmouth attended the teachers institute and remained until Monday afternoon, visiting Miss Vera Baldwin.

Miss Lillian Bates departed Tuesday for Sioux Falls, S. D., to visit Doctor and Mrs. Fred Evans. Mrs. Mary Wolf accompanied Miss Bates and will visit friends.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Morgan a daughter, on Wednesday, August 16, 1911. Also to Mr. and Mrs. Julius Englekemeier, a daughter was born on Friday, August 11, 1911.

J. L. Fowler returned home last Sunday from San Luis, Mexico, where he accompanied a party of landseekers. He said that out of the five who went with him, three purchased land and were pleased with the country.

H. J. Phillips returned home last Thursday from Phelps county, where he visited relatives. He said they were going to have some good corn out there from present indications, but fell down on small grain.

Miss Allie Flamme returned home last Thursday from California, where she has been since last winter. Mrs. J. J. Meier went to Omaha to meet her, but Miss Flamme, who expected to go to Omaha, changed her mind and came in by Lincoln, so the expected meeting did not take place until later.

NEHAWKA News.

Herman Smith went to Springfield Wednesday morning to act as chief engineer of a merry-go-round.

Mrs. Stein and little daughter of Walton were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Opp Saturday and Sunday.

Nelse Anderson left yesterday for Pierre, S. D., where he will look after his farming interests for the next few weeks.

Fred Shoemaker took a new corn binder out last week, and as Fred can tool almost any style of automobiles machinery through the field successfully we predict he won't get stuck with a corn binder.

R. C. Pollard and Vilas Sheldon returned Saturday night from their trip to Denver and other points in Colorado. The boys report a very pleasant time, and Ray's big machine is sporting a brand new set of tires.

D. G. West and Fred L. Nutzman returned Tuesday evening from a trip to Georgia. There was some hitch in the negotiations for the tract of land they were dealing for and they came home without investing.

M. G. Kime was harrowing down some weeds Tuesday and in stooping over to lift the harrow was hit in the forehead by a lever. He quit work long enough to have his head sewed up by the doctor and then went after the weeds again.

The material for the Sheldon bridge east of town, across Weeping Water, arrived Tuesday and is being put in place. The bridge is a sixty-foot span and will be placed high enough above the water to escape the floods. F. E. Sheldon is putting the bridge in at his own expense as a convenience to his tenants, as he has lands on both sides of the river.

Isaac Pollard sent from Alaska four boxes of young pine trees, which arrived here Tuesday in good condition. The express charges from Seattle here were about $25, and it is presumed it cost something to get them from far off Alaska to Seattle. Instructions from Uncle Isaac accompanied them ordering them cared for tenderly.

PACIFIC JUNCTION. Glenwood Tribune.

Charles F. Haynie left Sunday for an outing of two weeks in Denver and Colorado Springs.

The railroad boys report that tramps are now very much more scarce than they were a few weeks ago.

There will be a bigger wheat acreage than ever on the bottom next year, and much fall plowing has already begun.

Paul Haynie was taken suddenly sick Monday night, and has been quite poorly since. Mrs. Haynie is also just recovering from an illness.

J. V. DeLashmatt came in Tuesday from Burwell, Neb., with cattle for the South Omaha market, and dropped down for a short visit on Wednesday. He says they have been having some fine rains of late in his locality.

A fine ten-pound son arrived Tuesday morning at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Anderson. Grandpa Frank Anderson was away that day on business in Nebraska, but was quite jubilant later to learn of the first arrival of a son in the Anderson succession.

Under the captaincy of J. E. Read, half a dozen men drove to Plattsmouth Friday night and formed a part of a class of 27 that was taken into the A. O. U. W. They were: Vern Price, Elmer Monroe, Robert Kennedy, Frank Haines, J. P. Jensen and Earl Tracey. A banquet followed, and all had a good time.

EAGLE. Beacon.

John Campbell of Murray passed through here Monday forenoon on his way to Bloomfield, Neb.

P. F. Yoho departed on the noon train Thursday of last week for Moundsville, W. Va., where he will spend some time visiting with relatives and friends.

Charles Allen departed on the noon train Monday for Canada, where he will spend a few weeks looking over the country and may decide to become a subject of King George by locating on a homestead there.

William Oelschlager and family arrived home Wednesday from their ten days' trip to Texas. They report having a very enjoyable trip and Mr. Oelschlager thinks that Texas is a pretty fine country.

C. D. Richardson and wife of San Diego, California, arrived in Eagle last week to make an extended visit with old-time friends. Mr. and Mrs. Richardson resided on a farm near here a number of years.

Dr. I. C. Munger departed Monday for Calgary, Canada, where he will spend about ten days looking after the harvest of the crop on the land he owns there. He was accompanied on the trip by Benjamin Root.

Ed Betts, Rudolph Umland, A. L. McDonald and August Bergman departed last Friday morning in the latter's automobile for Denver, and will spend several days seeing the sights. They will also be at Cheyenne, Wyoming, on Frontier day.

Glendon, the 1-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Gerhard, received a very painful injury Wednesday by falling from a buggy in such a manner as to cut a gash in his head. The little man was brought to town and the physician was compelled to take two stitches to close the wound.

Edward Ryan and wife, who have been residents of Eagle for some time past, left on Thursday of last week for Moundsville, W. Va., where they will make their future home. Mr. and Mrs. Ryan have many friends here who wish them well in their new home.

WHAT THE CANDIDATES SPENT IN CAMPAIGN

Expense Statements Filed With the County Clerk Show That Little Was Spent.

From Saturday's Daily.

It does not cost very much to run for the nomination in a primary election in this county, according to the expense statements filed by the candidates in the last primary.

L. B. Egenberger heads the list with a total of $44.23. G. P. Barton, a candidate for sheriff against Mr. Rhoden, filed a statement with a higher amount than this, but he included his traveling expenses, which was unnecessary. Barton spent $48, including traveling expenses.

Judge J. E. Douglass spent $35.85, while his opponent, James Robertson, spent $30.25.

Judge Beeson's expenses were $32.60; William Defes-Dermier, $14.75; Carl G. Fricke, $8.50; Charles Warner, $30; H. D. Travis, $10.25; Fred Patterson, $5; D. C. Morgan, $5; D. C. Rhoden, $20; W. Kelly Fox, $12.50; C. D. Quinton, $5; Mary E. Foster, $5; E. E. Odell, $5; C. E. Heebner, $20.75; C. M. Seybert, $5.

There was a filing fee of $5 for each candidate, and this was all that was spent by some of them. The rest of the expenses were mostly for announcements in newspapers and cards.

Is He Sick or Well?

From Saturday's Daily.

W. J. Streight was in doubt this morning as to whether he was sick or not, or as to whether he should consult a physician or not. In fact he was not sure whether he was afoot or horseback. Mrs. Streight left town yesterday and left her husband 15 eggs and divers other kinds of food for him to prepare while she was gone. This morning he thought that a couple of eggs would taste mighty good for breakfast—and they were such nice, fresh eggs, too, just in from the farm. After cracking about seven of them he found one that looked to be good; then he started in to find another good one. After cracking the entire fifteen he had two that looked all right. He cooked them and had just finished eating them when he thought that they tasted a little strange. The more he thought about it the more he began to believe that the eggs were bad. He has been having strange feelings ever since, and by 10 o'clock he was sure that they were spoiled. If his imagination keeps on working as it has he thinks that by noon he will be a very sick man.

Drives in From Manley.

From Saturday's Daily.

Mr. Henry Kehne and son, Willie, from two miles north and east of Manley, were in the city today, coming down to look after some business matters in the insurance line, Mr. Kehne being a member of the Platte Mutual Insurance company. Mr. Kehne is one of the finest old gentlemen in Cass county and one of our most prosperous farmers. He has been a mighty good friend of The Journal for several years, and, of course, gave us a pleasant call. We were pleased to see him, and, to be sure, enjoyed a few moments' pleasant chat. He reports everything in his locality looking fine.

Drives in From Murdock.

From Saturday's Daily.

Mr. and Mrs. William Lau and family, one of the prosperous German farmers from near Murdock, were Plattsmouth visitors today, coming down via the automobile route. They came down for the transaction of business matters and to spend a few hours with their county seat friends. Mr. Lau has been a reader of the Journal for a great many years, and, of course, paid us a brief visit, renewing his paper for another year. There are a great many Laus in that section of Cass county, but we only wish there were a great many more.

Advertise Plattsmouth.

The secretary of the Commercial club, E. H. Wescott, has plenty of small pamphlets advertising Plattsmouth. These should be taken out by people leaving the city and left at places where they will be read. There is no charge for these pamphlets.

Mrs. C. E. Pribble of Louisville is here visiting her son, E. M. Pribble.

PLEASANT EVENT AT THE GEORGE LAMPHEAR HOME

In Honor of the Eighth Birthday of Their Daughter, Little Miss Clara.

The pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. George Lamphear, in the south part of the city, was the scene of a happy birthday party Thursday afternoon, when a large number of little folks gathered at the Lamphear home to assist their daughter, Clara, in properly celebrating her eighth birthday anniversary. Little Miss Clara was showered with some beautiful gifts and postcards by her many little friends, which will assist her in remembering this happy occasion.

Games and music were the features of the afternoon, which aroused considerable merriment and frolic. Delicious ice cream and cake were served, which all appreciated very much, and after having wished the little hostess many more such delightful birthday anniversaries, the little folks dispersed, having had a most excellent time.

Those who enjoyed this occasion were: Mabelo Gravitt, Marie Brissey, Genello Green, Goldie Sivey, Ella Hyde, Charlotte and Alpha Roberts, Clara Lamphear, Hibia Green, Heston Green, Harold Hyde, Charles Brissey, Frankie Sivey, Elmer Jennings, Johnnie Lamphear, Charles Lamphear.

PUBLIC SALE

The Undersigned Will on FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 8th, 1911, At 1 O'Clock P. M. Sharp, at farm of A. S. Will, Eight Mile Grove, in Mt. Pleasant Precinct, Cass county, Nebraska, being 10 miles southwest of Plattsmouth, and 14 miles northeast of Weeping Water, will sell at public auction from forty to fifty head of good native, well-bred horses.

An opportunity to purchase first-class, well-matched teams of all ages, from sucklers to eight years old. Two-thirds of this bunch of stock are mares. All bred from the best Canadian sires and picked home-bred dams. All colts broke to the halter and the older ones broke to work.

Terms of Sale—One year or less, bankable note at 7 per cent, or 2 per cent discount for cash. The reason for this sale is the dissolution of the firm of A. S. Will & Sons.

A. S. WILL & SONS, Owners. WILLIAM DUNN, Auctioneer.

It Is Not Permissible.

A man came into the Press office the other day with a long-winded complaint because a rural carrier in this county would not allow him to ride with him, although there was plenty of room and the walking was very bad. There is a reason, as the Postum sharks say: Uncle Sam does not permit his carriers to carry passengers, and the penalty is heavy. When the carriers haven't a mail sack with them they are usually pretty willing to carry a foot-sore passenger, but when on duty it is against the rules. Leaving the foolishness of the rule entirely out of the question (if the rule is foolish) no man can attend to business and talk to a neighbor or visitor, and that is just what carrying a passenger would amount to with the rural carrier who has troubles of his own.—Nebraska City Press.

Forest Rose Flour. The next time you need a sack of flour try a sack. You will find it the best on the market.

Last Call on Summer Goods.

The coming week or two is the merchant's last chance to work off his summer stock. But he can get rid of it easily enough if he will use the newspapers. There is a very large section of the people, in these days of high living costs, who will sacrifice something of style in order to get things cheap. They will take their chances on summer goods being out of fashion next June, if they are sure they are getting a price discount. The modern shopper does not take the bother of nosing around the stores to see if they are offering such discounts. She saves time and trouble by simply looking into the newspaper advertising columns for the announcement of reductions that she expects at this time of year. An advertisement appealing to these people is peculiarly effective because the purpose to buy is so nearly formed. All that is needed is the slight additional impetus given by a straightforward statement of some prices and qualities. What a mournful and solitary scene is the store in August that does not advertise!

A Stranger at Home.

Mrs. E. C. DeLashmatt, a resident of this city a quarter of a century ago, and for eighteen years a resident of Pacific Junction, came over to Plattsmouth today for the first time in eighteen years. She has been in good health and has traveled in almost all directions from Pacific Junction, but in all those eighteen years nothing called her over to Plattsmouth. Today her daughter was coming here, and she decided to go along to see how the town had changed in that time. She said that there were few changes than she was expecting. She will not wait another eighteen years before giving the town another visit, she said.

Thought of Us.

J. T. Porter, one of the Journal's mighty good friends, from near Murray, was in the city today coming up to look after some business matters, and evidently thinking of the Journal force before he left home, loaded in a box of fine eating apples that were left in our possession this morning. John Porter has always been a good friend of the newspaper boys, and we are ever pleased to meet him.

Union Committee Meets.

The union committee having in charge the local arrangements for the coming Sunday school convention to be held in this city next October, met at the Methodist church last evening and elected Rev. L. W. Gade as chairman of the entertainment committee. He will be assisted by representatives from all the Protestant churches in town, which insures the success of this part of the work. Other committees will be appointed as the needs demand.

Mrs. T. J. Todd of Wahoo is here visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mauzy.

Try a sack of Forest Rose flour the next time you need flour. Ask your dealer what he thinks of it.

LEGAL NOTICE.

State of Nebraska, Cass County, ss. William W. Coates and Frank C. Benfer will take notice that on the 7th day of August, 1911, M. Archer, a Justice of the Peace of the City of Plattsmouth, Cass County, Nebraska, issued an order of attachment for the sum of $25.00, in an action pending before him wherein George Poinall is plaintiff and William W. Coates and Frank C. Benfer are defendants, that the property of the defendant, consisting of a debt owing by Weyrich & Habraba to the said William W. Coates, has been attached under said order. Said cause was continued to the 29th day of September, 1911, at 9 o'clock, a. m. Dated at Plattsmouth, Nebraska, this 10th day of August, 1911. George Poinall, Plaintiff.
