Avoca Wins Two.

The Manley team was here Saturday and played our boys a fast and interesting game, but were defeated by a score of 3 to 1. The game was snappy on both sides, and some good ball playing was done. The visitors secured one in the first inning and from then on they were handed eight goose eggs. Jess Gruber, who was on the rubber for the home boys, twirled in fine form, striking out some of Manley's heavy hitters. Keckler of Manley also pitched a good game. Score: Manley...1 0 0 0 0 0 0 0—1; Avoca...0 0 0 0 0 2 4 1—3.

Struck Out—By Keckler, 11; by J. Gruber, 10. Batteries—Keckler and O'Brien, J. Gruber and Moehl. Umpires—Kennedy and Graham.

CELEBRATE SIXTEENTH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. Philander Williams of Elmwood the Happy Couple.

A special from Elmwood, under date of September 1, says: "Today Mr. and Mrs. Philander Williams of this place celebrated their sixtieth wedding anniversary and were entertained with 100 other guests at the home of their daughter, Mrs. L. F. Langhorst, assisted by their daughter-in-law, Mrs. Harry Williams.

"Mr. and Mrs. Williams were re-married by the Rev. Mr. Davis under the white marriage bell and were preceded to the altar by four little flower girls, scattering flowers before them, while Miss Verna Wapl sang 'Because,' followed with the 'Mendelssohn wedding march' with Miss Daisy Langhorst at the piano.

"Mrs. Williams, who was Miss Parmilia Keyes, is 79 years old and Mr. Williams is 83. They have lived in Nebraska forty-eight years. Four generations were present. A six-course luncheon was served. Two beautiful chairs were presented to Mr. and Mrs. Williams by Rev. Mr. Wilkinson in behalf of their friends."

A Great Advantage to Working Men.

J. A. Maple, 125 S. 7th St., Steubenville, O., says: "For years I suffered from weak kidneys and a severe bladder trouble. I learned of Foley's Kidney Pills and their wonderful cures so I began taking them and sure enough I had as good results as any I heard about. My backache left me and to one of my business, expressman, that along is a great advantage. My kidneys acted free and normal, and that saved me a lot of misery. It is now a pleasure to work where it used to be a misery. Foley Kidney Pills have cured me and have my highest praise." For sale by Fricke & Co.

A Reliable Nursery.

P. E. Ruffner says that he and G. C. Despain are making good sales on their nursery stock. We are glad to hear this, for they represent one of the best nurseries in the United States. Stark Brothers' trees do grow. The writer has known of this nursery since he was a boy, they having been in business for eighty-six years. Both Mr. Ruffner and Mr. Despain know what fruit is best adapted for this part of the country, having dealt in fruit trees for a long time. Buy fruit trees and shrubs of home dealers and you will not regret it. "See Plattsmouth Succeed."

Common Colds Must Be Taken Seriously

For unless cured they sap the vitality and lower the vital resistance to more serious infection. Protect your children and yourself by the prompt use of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound and note its quick and decisive results. For coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough, bronchitis and affections of the throat, chest and lungs it is an ever ready and valuable remedy. For sale by G. F. Fricke & Co.

Henry A. Guthman, Jr.

From Wednesday's Daily.

From all appearances Henry A. Guthman is the happiest man in town today, and it is proper he should be. A nine-pound baby boy made its advent at the home of Grandpa and Grandma Guthman this morning at about the hour of 1:30, and it is said that Henry's joy knew no bounds when he found it was a boy. The grandparents are about as proud of the youngster as Henry; and Aunt Minnie, well she is happier than any of them. The mother and little one are doing remarkably well, and the Journal extends congratulations to all concerned.

A Drunk Fined.

Charles Lewis was fined $5 and costs this morning in police court for being drunk. He was given the alternative of going to jail or leaving town within an hour. He left.

Marriage Licenses.

From Wednesday's Daily.

Licenses to marry were taken out yesterday by Andrew C. Johnson and Miss Eva L. Canada, both of Weeping Water, and Fred Schnorwein of Alvo and Miss Ethel Throne of Elmwood.

WEDDED IN THE CAPITAL CITY YESTERDAY

Three Cass County Couples Join Hearts and Hands in Lincoln.

The following from this morning's State Journal would indicate that yesterday, while attending the state fair, several Cass county couples thought it an opportunity also to get married:

Philip J. Hiez of Plattsmouth, Neb., and Miss Tillie I. Dugan of Louisville, Neb., were married at 6 p. m. at the home of Dr. I. F. Roach, 1201 D street, the pastor performing the ceremony. A number of friends of the bride and groom were present.

Three marriage ceremonies were performed in Justice Fullerton's court yesterday afternoon. Mr. Fullerton says the state fair always increases the number of marriages in the justice court. The first couple married were Elmer E. Buck and Ethel M. Marshall of Greenwood. The groom is 22 years of age and the bride 18. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. William Buck of Greenwood and the bride a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Granville Marshall of the same place.

The next couple conformed to Mr. Fullerton that the young man was surprising his parents. They were W. W. Bogewoff and Bertha M. Gamble. Both are from Elmwood. The bride gave her age as 18 and the groom stated that he was 22. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Bogewoff and the bride a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Gamble.
