MAGUIRE'S SECRETARY PAYS VISIT HERE

is Getting Ready for the Congressional Primary to Be Held in the State Next April.

W. M. Whelan of Lincoln, Congressman John A. McGuire's private secretary, is in town today looking after the interests of the congressman from this district. The primaries for the nomination of congressmen will take place in this state next April, and while Congressman McGuire does not expect to have any opposition, he is getting ready for the campaign if one has to be made.

Mr. Whelan believes that if the tariff remains as great an issue a year from this November as it is now, Congressman McGuire will be able to win again in this district, which is normally republican by a big majority.

Congressman McGuire and Mr. Whelan will attend the funeral of Congressman Latta at Tokamah tomorrow.

Mr. Whelan has many friends in Plattsmouth and he spent the day calling on them, and he paid the Journal a pleasant call.

As usually treated, a sprained ankle will disable a man for three or four weeks, but by applying Chamberlain's Liniment freely as soon as the injury is received, and observing the directions with each bottle, a cure can be effected in from two to four days. For sale by F. G. Fricke & Co.

A Deserving Young Lady.

Miss Jennie Tuley of South Park returned home yesterday from Tabor, Iowa, where she spent the latter part of last week to visit Miss Hermie Howard and other friends. Miss Tuley and Miss Howard were very close friends, having graduated twice in the same classes, first from the high school, then from the academy and later each graduated from the College Conservatory of Music. Miss Howard in 1908 and Miss Tuley in 1909. Last year Miss Howard and Miss Tuley were at the head of the Redfield College Conservatory of Music. Miss Tuley teaching piano, harmony, counter-point, ear training and aiding with the choral union. Miss Tuley began teaching the first day after her return home in this city in the spring, teaching through the long, hot summer days and has well earned a vacation. She is very proficient in her work.

DISTRICT COURT TO MEET OCTOBER 2

This is the Equity Term—A Number of Divorce Cases Will Be Tried This Time.

The docket for the October term of the district court has been typewritten for the printer by Miss Jessie Robertson, clerk in the office of the district clerk. The term will begin Monday, October 2, and will probably not be adjourned until a few days before the beginning of the December term, which begins December 11.

There are 34 equity cases, 21 law cases and 10 criminal cases on the docket. This is known as an equity term and the criminal cases may be transferred to the December term.

Of the 34 equity cases, 8 concern divorces. There is a rehearing in the Carraker divorce suit, the defendant having applied for an amended order giving her custody of her child. In the case of Alvin L. McDonald vs. Agnes L. McDonald, the plaintiff is asking that the defendant be restrained from using the name, A. L. McDonald. Margaret Seagrave is asking for equitable relief in an amended petition. The following suits are for desertion:

Minnie Lish vs. John Lish.

Viola Resso vs. Lawrence Resso.

May Haney vs. Charles Haney.

James Tigner vs. Louisa Tigner.

Gladys James vs. Harry James.

FOLEY KIDNEY PILLS

"The Wolf" Saturday Night.

The phonograph plays a big part in "The Wolf," which comes to the Parmelee theater on Saturday night, September 16. In the third act it is necessary that the howling of the wolves shall be heard in order to carry out the superstition of the Canadian forest that when wolves howl in a pack in Indian summer it means death for some man before the moon shall rise and set again. The wolves that howl in this act foretell the death of William McDonald, the villainous engineer, which occurs in a duel on a dark stage, so dark that you cannot tell which man is getting the worst of it. Then comes a fall, a deadly silence. One is killed, but which, the engineer or the French-Canadian? A match is struck and you see—what you see. It's the big scene of the play.

FOLEY'S KIDNEY REMEDY (Liquid)

Is a great medicine of proven value for both acute and chronic kidney and bladder ailments. It is especially recommended to elderly people for its wonderful tonic and reconstructive qualities, and the permanent relief and comfort it gives them. For sale by F. G. Fricke & Co.

Wedding at Elmwood.

A special from Elmwood, under date of September 13, says: Miss Nellie Willcocks and Marion McCroory were married last night at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. William Willcocks of this place. The ceremony was performed by the bride's uncle, Rev. Mr. Alton. Miss Melvina Waters and Mr. Harry Tolhurst were in attendance, with little Grace Alton, in pink, as flower girl. The bride and Miss Waters were both gowned in white. Mr. and Mrs. McCroory will be at home on Mr. McCroory's farm, north of town, March 6, after a trip to Mexico.

"Slow Train Through Arkansas."

The Missouri Pacific train, due at 6:50 a. m. had not arrived at noon today. The depot agent had not heard what the trouble was that was delaying the "flyer." That famous old railroad classic entitled, "On a Slow Train Through Arkansas," ought to be popular on the Missouri Pacific. It would give the readers hints about their conduct while riding on this road. Last night the Missouri Pacific going north was on time, which probably accounts for the trouble today. It was reported, unofficially, that the cause of the delay was a burned bridge between Hiasatha, Kas., and Falls City. The train had to back to St. Joseph and come around on the Burlington to Falls City to reach the main line again. It arrived in Plattsmouth at 1:15 p. m.

W. A. Klein of Omaha was in town today on business.

Boost; don't knock!

Baseball Tournament.

The baseball tournament held here last week was not much of a success financially, but some good ball playing was witnessed. The game Friday with Elmwood was called off on account of wet grounds. Saturday two games were played. The first game was between the Stars of 1900 and Avoca, and the second was with the Berlin team. The Stars were outclassed, but played a good game, considering they have not played for some time. Jack Betts twirled both games for Avoca and dished up some classy ball. Score first game:

Stars ... 0 4 0 0 0 0 0 0 0—4

Avoca ... 2 0 2 0 2 0 0 0—5

Batteries—Neumeister, Hanson and F. Betts; Betts and Pittman.

Score second game:

Berlin ... 2 0 0 0 0 0 0 0—5

Avoca ... 2 1 5 0 0 2 0 0—10

Batteries—Berlin, Krouse and Miller; Avoca, Betts and Pittman.

On Sunday another double-header was played Avoca winning the first and losing the second game. Our boys seemed to be tired the last game, having played four games in two days. The features of the first game was a triple play by Fahnstock, Betts and Pittman, J. Gruber was in the box the first game and won. Jess has pitched five games for Avoca and has won them all, only eight runs being made off his delivery in the five games. Score first game:

Avoca ... 0 1 1 0 0 0 1 1—3

Batteries—Berlin, Rootiger and Miller; Avoca, J. Gruber and Pittman.

The second game was won by Nehawka by a score of 5 to 2. Batteries—Nehawka, Adams and Hall; Avoca, H. Gruber and Pittman.

Marion Pittman caught all four games and played like a veteran. With a little more experience Marion will make them all go some to stay in his class.

SOKOL DELEGATION HOME FROM ST. LOUIS

The Annual National Convention Proved a Great Affair—South Omaha Starred.

The K. T. Sokol delegation returned today from St. Louis, where they went a week ago to attend the national convention of the Sokol society. The annual contests in turning were held during the convention and the local boys took part. They had nothing but praise for the convention and for St. Louis hospitality.

The convention was held at Lem's park. The parade was a big affair, the procession being a mile and a half long, with four men abreast.

The South Omaha turners, who gave an exhibition here recently, proved the stars of the convention and took home three prizes. The local boys did well, but captured no prizes.

The local delegation met Joe Hajek there and were invited to his home for supper. Charley Rys, another Plattsmouth boy, was called in and a great time followed.

The local delegation consisted of the following: Frank Vostrejs, Joseph Vostrejs, Tom Gradoville, Joe Sedlock, Anton H. Kobek and Anton Toman, jr.
