PACIFIC JUNCTION.
Glenwood Tribune.

Houses are mighty scarce in the Junction, and it is said there are no desirable ones to rent.

Robert Mulica, now located at Green River, Wyo., was a Junction visitor one day lately.

H. H. McCartney reports an inch and four-tenths of rainfall in the drizzle of last Saturday—the most we have had in a long time.

The Missouri bottom appears to be furnishing most of the interesting cases in this term of court, and numerous interested parties have been at Glenwood last week and this.

Constable Henry Johnson on Tuesday escorted a man and woman to the city limits and told them to skip, after they had been arrested and hailed before Justice McLaughlin on a vagrancy charge. They came down on Monday from Omaha.

Rev. C. W. Litten, the new Methodist pastor, is unable to rent a house here, and there is now a move on foot to buy a permanent parsonage property. Rev. Litten, in addition to his work here, also preaches at Martin's Chapel, West Liberty, Waukensie and Fairview.

Clarence Russell underwent a severe operation for rupture Sunday night at the Edmundson hospital in Council Bluffs. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Newton Russell, and Dr. Bacon were present at the operation. Dr. Bacon was there again on Tuesday, and reports him getting along nicely.

Railroad business is a humming these days in the Junction. An extra switch engine and crew was put on Monday, and there are now three "switchers" yanking freight cars about the yards, two at night and one in the day time. It is said that several new families will move to the Junction as a result.

Leonard, 10 years old, son of W. G. Baker, a tenant on the Randall farm south of the Junction, had a painful mishap Tuesday morning. He was riding a pony, when the animal slipped and fell. The lad was thrown in front of the horse and the latter rolled over him by some sort of a way that Leonard is unable to describe. He was rendered unconscious for two hours. It was feared for a time that he was seriously injured, but no bones were broken, and, boy like, he came through the mixup little the worse for wear.

Married at Home of Bride.
From Saturday's Daily.

A quiet though pretty wedding occurred at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Jones, last Thursday, when, in the presence of the immediate relatives, their daughter, Miss Ethel May Jones, was joined in marriage with Mr. J. Andrews, Rev. Austin, pastor of the Methodist church, performed the ceremony. These estimable young people are well known in this city, having been reared here, and possess a large number of friends, who join with the Journal in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Andrews prosperity and happiness through life.

Miss Helen Dovey came down from South Omaha this morning and will spend Sunday with her parents.

SAYS TEACHERS SHOULD ATTEND
Crabtree Urges Boards to Send Them to State Meeting.
IN INTEREST OF EDUCATION.

Mrs. Margaret Davis Appeals Her Murder Case to Supreme Court After Conviction in Cedar County—Election Proclamation.

Lincoln, Oct. 7.—State Superintendent Crabtree has written a letter to boards of education throughout the state in which he has indicated that they would do well to send at least one of their teachers to the state meeting at Omaha at the expense of the district. His letter, with reference to the attendance at the big gathering—SAYS:

"Permit me to suggest your arranging for your teachers to attend this meeting. It certainly shows enterprise and professional interest on their part to go to the personal expense of attending the state association. Since the school profits fully as much as the teacher from this attendance, it is recommended that nothing be deducted from the teachers' salaries for the days spent in attending the association. On the return of the board members and the teachers, let the board and teachers and parents who are interested meet and listen to reports from the state association.

"The chief reason why Nebraska holds the honor of the lowest per cent of illiteracy is because of team work among teachers and the sympathy and co-operation of school boards and parents."

Mrs. Davis Appeals.
Mrs. Margaret Davis, who is now serving a life sentence in the state penitentiary for the murder of Ira Churchill on a Cedar county farm, Nov. 2, 1910, appealed her case to the supreme court. It was taken under advisement. Several reasons are named in the appeal for a new trial. She alleges that the instructions to the jury were far from being in line with legal procedure.

Election Proclamation.
The general election proclamation which is being prepared by Governor Aldrich calls for the election of a representative from the Thirtieth district, which is Lancaster county. Representative Minor died since the legislature convened, but no nominations to fill the vacancy were made at the primaries. At the general election Nov. 7 voters in the district can elect by writing names on the ballot. The governor's proclamation calls for the election of three judges of the supreme court, two regents, one railway commissioner, one congressman in the Third district and twenty-nine district judges.

Guy Goes to Chicago.
Labor Commissioner Guye has gone to Chicago to confer with an organization that desires to find homes for 100 families. While there he will visit a religious denomination that is seeking land for colonization purposes. Mr. Guye recently started a movement to organize a state association for the purpose of finding locations for homeseekers. This organization has not been perfected and yet he is receiving many calls for information in regard to the price and quality of land.

Charges Filed Against Attorney.
A complaint has been filed with Governor Aldrich asking that County Attorney Fred G. Hawxby of Nemaha county be removed for failure to enforce a law and perform a duty enjoined upon him by that law. The complaint is filed by Henry Morgenstern, who alleges that the county official failed to prosecute William Seaman, who was indicted by a grand jury in May, 1907, for burning a laundry building in Auburn.

SOUTH OMAHA OUSTER CASE
Action Under Sackett Law Against Ryan and Pivonka.

Lincoln, Oct. 7.—Alleging in his petition that the members of the fire and police board of South Omaha, J. J. Ryan and Joseph Pivonka, have been seen drunk and intoxicated on the streets, that they have treated others in public places and have violated the Sackett law provisions relating to the sale of liquors, Attorney General Martin filed an ouster suit in the state supreme court.

The suit was filed by order of Governor Aldrich, who for some time past has been gathering evidence in the matter. Dean Rinzel, a former Cornhusker football star and now an attorney in South Omaha, has been active in gathering proof as to the derelictness of the two offending commissioners in violating the state law and city ordinances.

This is the second suit filed under the Sackett law, the first being instituted by Arthur Mullen against Chief of Police Donahue of Omaha, an action started at the instigation of former Governor Follenberger and which is still in the supreme court.

Bomb in Chicago Bakery.
Chicago, Oct. 7.—Excitement was caused by the explosion of a bomb in the rear of the bakery of Charles Sachs on the south side. The detonation was heard for a mile and the explosion shattered hundreds of window panes.

There is a small chance of his regaining sight of the eye. It has not caused him any pain.

ANCIENT AND MUSTY RECORDS FOUND

Several Old Record Books of City Doings Found in a Closet.

A. M. Arries made a valuable find this morning when he discovered two ancient and rusty records of the city in a closet over his pool hall. The books were large leather-bound journals and were used to support a shelf, one at either end. The first was opened with the council proceedings of February 3, 1881, the proceedings being signed by J. W. Johnson, mayor, and attested by J. D. Simpson, clerk.

The second volume began with the sewer contract, bearing date of May, 1888, the first page containing a copy of the contract and bond of $15,000 of Hubner & Shelton, and was followed by a copy of the paving contract and bond of J. E. Riley.

The records have been lost for several months and their discovery by Mr. Arries is very fortunate. The city should have a vault in which to keep records as valuable as these, and then there would be no danger of them becoming mislaid.
