He started several days ago, and has nearly 1,000 bushels gathered. From the present outlook he will have an average of about 45 bushels to the acre. Bill is there when it comes to farming and he usually gets the crops.

BRIEF TRIBUTE TO THE LATE PETER PERRY

Peter Perry, Born in North Carolina, but Lived in Cass County for Nearly Thirty-four Years.

Peter Perry was born near Graham, North Carolina, December 27, 1843, and died October 4, 1911, at his home at Eight Mile Grove, at the age of 67 years, 9 months and 7 days.

He spent his boyhood and early manhood in his native state, where he was married November 16, 1865, to Miss Catherine Glenn, who, with their eleven children, survive him. His pastor, Rev. A. E. Wachtel, has this to say of the deceased: "Mr. Perry has lived at Eight Mile Grove for nearly thirty-four years. Since living there he has been a loyal Christian man, a true, loving father and good neighbor. He has been through these years a faithful supporter of all good things in the church and community. His home has been the home of every minister who has lived on the charge, and his children now support the church, of which he was a consistent member."

The following lines were composed by a daughter of the deceased:

Father, dear, you've gone and left us,
And we feel so sad and lone,
But we know you're safe with Jesus;

You have reached your heavenly home,
While we're weeping, you're rejoicing;
While our hearts are crushed with care,
You are singing with the angels
In that land so bright and fair.

How we cherish the fond memory
Of your presence with us here,
And the teaching of our childhood
Is with reverence held so dear.

While we cannot seek your council,
As before so oft we've done,
God will guide us and we'll meet you,
There in that dear heavenly home.

God in heaven, be Thou with us,
As we sorrow here alone;
Help us to be ever ready
And to say, "Thy will be done."

Entertained Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Keil entertained their parents at Sunday dinner and during the day last Sunday. Mr. Keil's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Keil, of Plattsmouth, and Mrs. Keil's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Virgin, and daughters, Louise and Ellen, from north of Murray, were the honored guests. As this was the first time that Mr. and Mrs. Keil had made special effort to entertain their parents, Mrs. Keil made every preparation to serve them an excellent dinner. We will vouch for the excellency of the noonday meal. The day was a most pleasant one for all.

Last spring Davis & Pitman held a demonstration on the J. I. Case plows, and at the time they thought all their efforts were thrown to the winds, as they made no sales upon the plows. As is true with all advertising matter, it always pays, even though many months thereafter. This fall this firm has sold 15 gang plows, 2 sulky plows and one walking plow. We would term this a pretty good plow business.

Charles A. McReynolds of south of Murray was in the city last evening looking after some business matters, and while here called and renewed his faith in the Old Reliable for another year. Mr. McReynolds is a staunch friend of the Journal.

Plans Submitted Last Night.

At the regular meeting of Cass Camp No. 332, M. W. A., last evening plans for remodeling the building recently purchased, submitted by Joseph Guth, the Omaha architect, were passed upon and accepted by the lodge. The plans were then turned over to the building committee with instructions to advertise for bids and to go ahead and let the contract. This will require a little time, but before snow flies, no doubt, the carpenters will be at work on the M. W. A. building at the corner of Sixth and Pearl streets.

Return From St. Joseph.

George Sitzman and wife and son returned from St. Joseph, Mo., this morning, where they had been interring the remains of their little 4-year-old daughter, Marie, who died at Cedar Creek last week. The little one was taken suddenly sick with peritonitis and died within a short time. Mr. Sitzman and wife left last Sunday for St. Joseph, where they buried the little one.

For Sale.

J. E. Rundle.

Rufus, Rastus Johnson Brown, the old dog that once upon a time left this town, came wandering home last Saturday night with a smile upon his face that was very bright. Yes, Rastus has returned; they could not lose him. He was placed in a car of stock three weeks ago and taken to South Omaha, where he was turned loose. He came home last Saturday, limping, tired and foot-sore, and indeed glad to get home. Many efforts have been made to get rid of Rastus, without avail. He has been poisoned twice and shot at many times, but he still lives, and lives in Murray, too.

Highest price paid for all kinds of poultry.
