Funeral Held This Afternoon.

From Saturday's Daily.

The funeral of little Miss Lillian May Hickson, whose death occurred yesterday morning in Omaha, was held this afternoon at 1 o'clock at the residence of her aunt, Mrs. George Lindsay, the remains having been brought to this city on the 10 o'clock train over the Missouri Pacific this morning by her grandparents. The services were attended by a large number of sorrowing relatives and friends and interment was made in the Oak Hill cemetery beside her mother and two brothers, who had preceded little Lillian to the better land some eight years ago. Little Lillian has been a very patient sufferer of that dread disease, tuberculosis, for the past year or more. She was born in Plattsmouth, Nebraska, November 12, 1902, and at the time of her death was 9 years and 11 months old. She leaves to mourn her untimely death a father, a brother, residing at Nebraska City; her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hickson; two aunts, two uncles; besides thirteen cousins, all residing in Plattsmouth.

Spend Pleasant Evening.

Wednesday evening a number of the members of the Christian Endeavor of the Christian church gathered at the palatial home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Wiles and proceeded to enjoy the evening. Numerous games were played, in which they all joined. About 10 o'clock a delicious luncheon was served, after which more frolics and much merriment prevailed until Mr. Philip Rihn called order for a business meeting. At a late hour, after thanking Mr. and Mrs. Wiles for their hospitality, the funmakers took their leave. Those present were: Ada Ames, Jennie Reynolds, Kate Foster, Ruth Melbern, Myra Stenner, Alice Lewis, Flace Phebus, John Stander, Leon Stenner, Mr. and Mrs. Phil Rihn, Mr. and Mrs. Foster, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Wiles, Mrs. Stenner and Mrs. Otto Mahavier.

Order of Owls.

John H. Dorr, national organizer of the Order of Owls, was in the city this week to arrange for the reorganization of the lodge in this city. In conversing with prominent Owls here he feels satisfied he can get matters in order and moving along again. The organizers that were here have misrepresented the benefits of the order, and Mr. Dorr has explained the true intentions of the order. He bears a good reputation where he has worked as an organizer for the last two years or more, and has just closed a charter for a new lodge in Omaha. Mr. Dorr says that with the assistance of the members here in Plattsmouth he can put the lodge here in good running shape again.

Mrs. F. H. Steinker Entertains.

Mrs. F. H. Steinker entertained yesterday afternoon in honor of the past chief of the Degree of Honor. Her parlors were tastefully decorated in yellow and red medallions. An elegant two-course luncheon was served during the afternoon. The time was pleasantly spent after the business was transacted in conversation, the ladies busying themselves with fancy work. The visiting members were: Mrs. Ida May Foster of Tacoma, Wash., and Mrs. May Spies of Lead, S. D.

Kenosha Police Court Prosperous

Mayor Lig Brown was in the city this morning with a couple of wagon-loads of apples, which he said Police Judge McNatt had taken in on fines. The mayor denied that he was to receive any portion of the proceeds, but at the time he did so the man assisting Mayor Brown unload the apples winked his right eye, which makes it look on the surface as though the mayor had been grafting a little.

Card of Thanks.

We, the undersigned, desire to thank the many kind neighbors and friends for their many deeds and acts and for the many beautiful floral offerings. May their kindness never be forgotten. Mr. James Hickson and Son, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hickson, Mrs. Catherine Lindsay and Family, Mr. and Mrs. George Lindsay and Family.

Fred's Eyes Bad.

W. D. Smith made a special trip to Omaha this morning to select eye glasses for his friend, Fred Jess, who has trouble in detecting colors of calico, W. D. says.

AUGUST ROESSLER SERIOUSLY INJURED BY BICYCLE RIDER KNOCKING HIM DOWN

The Rider Entirely to Blame For the Injury Simply Because Bicycle Riders are Prohibited the Use of the Walks Day or Night.

August Roessler, who works in the upholstery department of the Burlington shops, while on his way to his home Friday evening, near Mrs. S. M. Chapman's residence, was run over by a young man named Johnson, riding a bicycle, and was very seriously injured.

Mr. Roessler was so badly injured that he could not get up. An automobile which passed directly after the accident was hailed, and C. S. Johnson, who chanced to pass at that time, and other bystanders assisted in placing Mr. Roessler in the auto and he was taken to Dr. Cook's office, where, with the assistance of Dr. Stewart Livingston, an examination of the unfortunate man's injuries was made. It was discovered that Mr. Roessler's left hip was dislocated. The dislocated bone was set back into the socket, but could not be made to retain its place, and it is the opinion of the physicians that the outer bone of the socket is fractured. Mr. Roessler was taken to the Immanuel hospital at Omaha this morning, being carried to the train on a stretcher, Dr. Cook accompanying him to the hospital, where additional medical attention can be given the sufferer.

The accident was in no sense the fault of Mr. Roessler, as he was walking on the sidewalk, going to his home, after having been down town. It was dark at that time, the electric light having just been turned off, and Mr. Roessler could not see anyone on the walk.

The ordinance concerning vehicles trespassing on the walks, menacing the limbs and lives of individuals, has been too loosely enforced. A bicycle has been held to be a vehicle and the owner and rider of one has no more right to occupy the sidewalk than has one with an auto or horse-propelled vehicle. The foot passenger has frequently been startled in daylight by the rider of a bicycle spurting past him on the walk, and has been uncertain which way to step to avoid being knocked down. The habit of using the walk for bicycle riding should be stopped, and it is unfortunate that it was not done before a citizen of the town was injured.

It is to be hoped that Mr. Roessler's injury will not be permanent, but there is no doubt but he will be laid up for many weeks and lose his valuable time from his employment, all on account of the carelessness of some thoughtless individual.

Visits in Indiana.

Perry Marsh left for Alexander, Indiana, this afternoon, where he will join his wife, who has been visiting relatives for a week or more. Mrs. Marsh had not seen her aunt since a child, she having come west with her father when quite small, and has not been back to her childhood home since until a week ago.

Card of Thanks.

To the neighbors and friends who so kindly extended sympathy and assistance in our recent great bereavement and sorrow we tender our most heartfelt appreciation. Your kindness will ever be remembered by us.

Henry Inhelder and Family.

Card of Thanks.

To the friends and neighbors who so kindly assisted us during the sickness and death of our beloved husband and father, and also for the many floral tributes, we tender our sincere thanks.

Mrs. Peter Perry and Children.

C. D. Spangler and wife and children drove in from the farm this morning and boarded the early train for the metropolis, where they looked after business matters for a few hours.

L. B. Brown, mayor of Kenosha, was in the city today looking after some business matters and visiting with his many county seat friends.

HARVEST HOME SUPPERS HELD IN THE COUNTRY

Rural Festival Has a Tang and a Tonic Not to Be Found in a Swell City Menu.

Great doings out along the cross-roads now, as the Ladies' Aid society prepares its annual harvest supper. These rural festivals have a tang and a tonic not to be found in any swell Fifth avenue menu. There may not be much style about them. The rosy-cheeked waitress is not as swift or as silent or as watchful as the tipped and sleek black-face of the metropolitan restaurant.

The viands are all heaped at a time upon the crowded table. A change of plates is regarded as superfluous. Your chicken salad, your home-made jellies, your luscious pumpkin pie, are all heaped upon your plate in the good old country fashion. Your blood tingling with a walk or drive through the October air, you do not pick and choose a titbit here and there, as in the urban hotel. The good old country style requires you to consume every morsel of food on your plate, and your appetite makes it easy.

The setting may seem primitive to Miss Gotrox, who is used to the formal fashions of the metropolis. But the farmers' wives can cook as well as any importation from Paris. And the people at the adjoining tables allow their faces to be seen as Mother Nature made them, and do not feel that flesh and blood is inferior to somebody's fake paint.

Apple Crop Moves.

From Saturday's Daily.

Yesterday and the day before were rush days at Rundle's, the apple king. One hundred barrels of apples were taken in yesterday, ninety-two the day before and seventy-two the day before that. This market has shipped out over 2,000 barrels of apples this fall and have about 700 or 800 bushels in the house awaiting the arrival of more barrels. There have been several carloads of apples shipped west which were not barreled. This has been a good year for apples in this locality and it seems a general good crop of fruit was harvested this season, notwithstanding the lack of moisture.

Chief McNatt in Town.

From Saturday's Daily.

Chief of Police A. J. McNatt of Kenosha was in the city today looking after some business matters, and in conversation with him in regard to his absence from town for so long, he tells us that Mayor Brown has made a new ruling in regard to the handling of the Kenosha prisoners, and all are being committed to the new jail at Union. He does not believe that the county jail is safe. This is the cause for his long absence.

Will Newland, wife and daughter visited Omaha friends for a few hours today.

Married at Omaha.

From Saturday's Daily.

John Maurer and Miss Mary Gilbert stole a march on their unsuspecting friends this morning by going to Omaha, procuring a marriage license and thereafter were married at the Congregational parsonage, Rev. F. T. Rouse, pastor of that church, performing the ceremony. The ceremony was witnessed by S. Ray Smith and Mrs. Gilbert, mother of the bride. Both Mr. Maurer and Miss Gilbert are well and favorably known in this city. Mr. Maurer holds a good position in the Burlington paint shop and is also a partner of Wesley Bookmeyer in the confectionary business. Miss Gilbert is an accomplished young lady and has been holding a clerical position in the confectionary store of Bookmeyer & Maurer. The wedding was a great surprise to all of their acquaintances, as they did not tell even the Journal of their intentions when they boarded the train this morning. The Journal, however, joins their many friends in extending congratulations and best wishes.

Kirkpatrick Reunion.

Last Saturday Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Kirkpatrick and their son, Roy, who is here from Tacoma, Wash., on a visit, went to Kansas City, where they met the rest of the family at the Savoy hotel and had a good old-fashioned reunion. The boys are scattered to all parts of the compass, but were able to get there on time and a most enjoyable Sunday was spent. Those present were: Paul Kirkpatrick of Denison, Tex.; Roy Kirkpatrick of Tacoma, Wash.; Guy Kirkpatrick and family of St. Joseph, Mo.; Earl Kirkpatrick of Cleburne, Texas, and the father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Kirkpatrick, of this place. Mrs. Kirkpatrick returned home Monday evening, but Mr. Kirkpatrick and Roy stayed over at St. Joseph for a longer visit with Guy and family.—Nehawka News.

Here From Oklahoma.

From Saturday's Daily.

John Murray of Alva, Okla., was in the city a few hours this morning, driving up from Murray in company with I. M. Davis. Mr. Murray arrived in Murray last evening for a week's visit with friends and relatives. While in the city this morning he called at the Journal office for a brief visit, and in conversation with him we find that the crop conditions the past season were not nearly so serious as had been reported. Himself and family are enjoying good health, and they have no reason for complaining of the condition of things in Oklahoma. Mr. Murray has a great many friends in this section, with whom he will enjoy a week's visit.
