WHY HESITATE?

An Offer That Involves No Money Risk If You Accept It.

We are so positive our remedy will completely relieve constipation, no matter how chronic it may be, that we offer to furnish it free of all cost if it fails.

Constipation is commonly caused by weakness of the nerves and muscles of the large intestine. To expect a cure you must therefore tone up and strengthen those organs and restore them to healthier activity.

We want you to try Rexall Orderlies on our guarantee. They are eaten like candy, and are particularly good for children. They seem to act directly on the nerves and muscles of the bowels. They apparently have a neutral action on the other organs. They do not purge or cause other inconveniences. We will refund your money if they do not overcome chronic or habitual constipation and thus aid to relieve the myriads of associate or dependent chronic ailments. Try Rexall Orderlies at our risk. Three sizes, 10c, 25c and 50c. Sold only at our store—The Rexall Store, F. G. Fricke & Co.

At High School Convocation.

One of the pleasantest high school convocations of the present school year was the one held this morning, when Miss Mildred Johnson of the senior class delighted the pupils with a series of songs. Miss Johnson was accompanied most sympathetically by Miss Dorothy Britt on the piano. The series included "The Shoozy Shoo," "When Song Is Sweet," and "The Rock-a-Bye Lady." Miss Johnson has a very sweet voice and her distinct enunciation makes her singing at all times a genuine treat for her audience.

For next Thursday Rev. Mr. Austin will be the speaker at the High school convocation. The pupils will be much pleased with this announcement, for they have had several opportunities to hear Mr. Austin and have always heard him with pleasure.

A Medicine That Gives Confidence

Is Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. Mrs. T. J. Adams, 522 No. Kansas Ave., Columbus, Kas., writes: "For a number of years my children have been subject to coughs and colds. I used Foley's Honey and Tar Compound and found that it cured their coughs and colds, so I keep it in the house all the time." Refuse substitutes. For sale by Fricke & Co.

Married by Judge Beeson.

Yesterday afternoon Judge Beeson united in marriage at the county court room Earl Hyde and Miss May Schwartz, both of this city. The ceremony was performed in the presence of Ben Hyde, father of the groom, and Miss Gertrude Beeson. The groom is well known in this city and possesses many friends, is a young man of sterling habits and is employed at Glenwood at the institution. The bride is an accomplished young lady and popular in a wide circle of acquaintances. The happy young people will begin housekeeping soon at Glenwood, the groom departing last evening to resume his duties, while Mrs. Hyde will remain here for a few days. The Journal joins the numerous friends of the happy young couple in extending congratulations and good wishes.

SHIPERS HANDLE STOCK MORE COMFORTABLY THAN IN THE PAST

The Metzger Law A Good One for Stock Shippers, and Is Proving Great Benefit to Them and Is A Great Credit to the Cass County Representative.

Nebraska stockmen who do practically nothing more than an intrastate shipping business declare that they will welcome the coming of the new year with especial delight because certain provisions of the Metzger law, enacted at the last session of the legislature, will become operative at that time. Particularly is this feeling noted among northern and northwestern Nebraska stockmen who do a large business than is done from many other part of the state.

The provisions of the new law, which as a whole became effective July 6, 1911, are believed by shippers to be especially enacted for their benefit and comfort while aboard stock trains. They relate to the accommodations to be provided on and after January 1, 1912.

In this regard the Metzger measure sets out that until that time a caboose or car shall be attached to all stock trains for the use of those having right to accompany carload shipments and that the same shall be provided with a toilet room and clean drinking water. This is being done on all roads at the present time as far as can be learned, although there is some complaint to the effect that the accommodations are not sufficient and that there are frequently so many shippers crowded into one car that it is impossible for any of them to sleep while en route to market.

As to the provision of the law which is to become operative on and after the first of next year the bill says: "Provided that on and after January 1, 1912, all trains having a haul of 100 miles or more shall be furnished with a car fitted with comfortable seats such as are used on ordinary passenger cars provided with adequate heat and ventilation, a toilet room and a water tank with plenty of clean water. Provided further that an additional car of similar character shall be furnished on all stock trains for the accommodation of caretakers at the first train division point reached after it shall appear that fifteen or more caretakers are accompanying or will accompany live stock to be transported on such train prior to the arrival at the next train division point. It is further provided that when cars or cabooses on which such passengers or shippers are riding shall arrive at stations where change of cars is necessary it shall be stopped not more than one-half mile from waiting room to be provided by such company and it shall be the duty of the conductor of said train or other employe of and designated by said company to show said passengers where said waiting room is located and instruct them to remain there until called for or before the time of starting of the trains carrying said passengers it shall be the duty of an employe of the railroad company to call at said waiting room and show such passengers to their caboose or car on which they are to ride. It is provided further that such caboose or car shall be placed within one-half mile of said waiting room."

Gets $6,865.

A compromise was effected yesterday morning in the case of Dancy B. Olson against the Burlington Railroad company. The papers were filed, testimony taken and the settlement effected all within an hour in federal court. Mrs. Olson, as administratrix for the estate of her husband, Albert J. Olson, brought suit for $35,000 against the company for the latter's death. By the compromise she is to get $6,865. Albert Olson was a fireman on one of the engines which met in a wreck near Indianola, Neb., August 26, 1911. As Mrs. Olson was acting as administratrix of the estate testimony was taken and the case carried through the final stages as a protective measure to guard the railroad from any actions on the part of others in the future.
