Peter Frampton accepted $50 from the claim agent of the Missouri Pacific in lieu of all damage for losing part of his hand last summer at Nebraska City.

Mrs. D. C. West and Miss Bessie Jordan of Calumet, Michigan, who is here visiting, spent Tuesday in Lincoln. Miss Jordan has lately completed her training as a nurse.

Roy Kirkpatrick left on the evening train Monday for Omaha on his way back to Tacoma, Wash., where he will resume his duties as chief clerk for the general manager of the freight department on the Northern Pacific.

The young folks from the Wolph and Rough families, who are attending Doane college at Crete, lost a day this week on account of the early train Monday being about four hours late, causing them to miss connections in Lincoln.

Mrs. J. W. Rathbone and Miss Daisy Bailey, sister of Mrs. William Ketch, came in on the evening train Wednesday from Grand Island for a visit. Mrs. Ketch will utilize the opportunity of the ladies' arrival by having them help her move into the Bruce Stone property on the south side, she having rented her farm.

M. H. Pollard was called to Chester, Vermont, Tuesday by a telegram announcing the death of his father. Mr. Pollard would have been 94 years old in another month, he having been born in November, 1847. His health has been good almost up to the time of his death. There are three sons living in this state—M. H. Pollard, who lives southwest of town; Morris D. of Union and Dr. J. A. of Salem.

IS THE WORLD GROWING BETTER?

Many things go to prove that it is. The way thousands are trying to help others is proof. Among them is Mrs. W. W. Gould, of Pittsfield, N. H. Finding good health by taking Electric Bitters, she now advises sufferers, everywhere, to take them. "For years I suffered with stomach and kidney troubles," she writes. "Every medicine I used failed till I took Electric Bitters. But this great remedy helped me wonderfully." They'll help any woman. They're the best tonic and finest liver and kidney remedy that's made. Try them. You'll see. 50c at F. G. Fricke & Co.

UNION.

Ledger.

George G. Adams, editor of the Twiner at Woodbine, Ia., was in town an hour Tuesday evening waiting for a late train to carry him homeward. Mr. Adams was a Cass county "kid" some years ago, and has been visiting and looking after a farm that he owns in the vicinity of Weeping Water.

Averts Awful Tragedy.

Timely advice given Mrs. C. Willoughby, of Marengo, Wis., (R. No. 1) prevented a dreadful tragedy and saved two lives. Doctors had said her frightful cough was a "consumption" cough and could do little to help her. After many remedies failed, her aunt urged her to take Dr. King's New Discovery. "I have been using it for some time," she wrote, "and the awful cough has almost gone. It also saved my little boy when taken with a severe bronchial trouble." This matchless medicine has no equal for throat and lung troubles. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by F. G. Fricke & Co.

ELMWOOD.

Sliced His Finger.

County Treasurer F. E. Schlatter had the misfortune yesterday afternoon to inflict an ugly wound upon the second finger of his left hand, while he was in the act of cutting up a porker which he had butchered. This particular finger has been on the "bum" since last spring, when a tree fell on it and took off the nail. The finger was just about recovered from that injury when the accident of last evening occurred, in which it was almost severed. Mr. Schlatter will carry a bandaged finger for some time as a result.

Died at County Farm.

Yesterday afternoon about 4 o'clock Mrs. L. J. Wilson, who has been an inmate of the county farm for the past eleven years, died at the age of 82 years. Mrs. Wilson came here from Omaha several years ago, and when James Carey was superintendent of the farm she was employed to aid with the work, and afterward became sick and remained as a county charge. The funeral occurred this afternoon from the county farm.

Kicked by Colt.

Sunday afternoon, while playing with a colt, Oliver Gapen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Gapen, was kicked by the colt on the right leg and sustained quite a serious injury. The blow landed just above the knee, breaking the skin and bruising the leg badly. The young man has been compelled to go on crutches since, and has not been able to attend school.

Joe Lloyd went to Murray this morning to look after a job of work awaiting his arrival.

CELEBRATES ONE HUNDREDTH ANNIVERSARY

Father of W. P. Cook Celebrates the Event, Surrounded by All His Children.

From Tuesday's Daily.

W. P. Cook, one of Plattsmouth's popular barbers, returned from Salem, Iowa, this morning, where, last Sunday, he assisted his father, Isaac S. Cook, to celebrate his 100th birthday anniversary, he having been born at Baltimore, Maryland, October 22, 1811.

Mr. Cook's ten children were present to enjoy the occasion with him, three daughters and seven sons. He enjoys the best of health, and although his hearing and sight are somewhat impaired, yet he gets about daily, visits among his friends on the street, occasionally chops wood, and does chores about his son's residence, not because he is required to do so, but does this for exercise and to keep "his joints limbered up."

Mr. Cook came west and settled in Indiana when a boy and emigrated to Iowa and bought a farm in 1842 and has resided in the vicinity of Salem since that time. In 1897 he lost his wife by death, and since that time has made his home with his son, Frank Cook, a retired farmer, residing at Salem.

Mr. Cook has had his seasons of adversity, as well as prosperity, and well recalls the panic and hard times of 1837, when a farmer could get but $7 for a cow and calf and a good 4-year-old "work steer" sold for $10 and $12. His mind is bright and his intellect unimpaired, and to the suggestion of his son that he would return five years later to celebrate his birthday again, Mr. Cook remarked that "maybe" he would be there.

You are not experimenting on yourself when you take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for a cold, as that preparation has won its great reputation and extensive sale by its remarkable cures of colds, and can always be depended upon. It is equally valuable for adults and children and may be given to young children with implicit confidence as it contains no harmful drug. Sold by F. G. Fricke & Co.

Wolf-West.

From Wednesday's Daily.

Marriage license was issued this morning to Adam Wolf and Mrs. Josephine West, both of this city. The ceremony will occur this evening at 7 o'clock at the county judge's office, Judge Beeson officiating. Mr. Wolf has been a resident of this city and a property owner for a number of years and holds a good position at the Burlington shops. Mrs. West has also been a resident of Plattsmouth.

Big Halloween Dance.

The Dancing Trio will give a grand Halloween ball on Saturday evening, October 28, at Coates' hall. Do not fail to attend the "Moonlight Waltz." Music by the M. W. A. orchestra. Everybody cordially invited to attend. Admission: Gents, 50c; Ladies, free.

NOBODY SPARED

Kidney Troubles Attack Plattsmouth Men and Women, Old and Young.

Kidney ills seize young and old. Come quickly, with little warning.

Children suffer in their early years— Can't control the kidney secretions.

Girls are languid, nervous, suffer pain. Women worry, can't do daily work.

Men have lame and aching backs. The cure for man, woman or child is to cure the cause—the kidneys. Doan's Kidney Pills will reach the cause.

Plattsmouth testimony proves it. J. L. McKinney, Lincoln Ave., Plattsmouth, Neb., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at Rynott & Co.'s Drug Store, have been used in my family and have brought prompt relief from kidney disorders, after other remedies have failed. In 1906 I publicly recommended Doan's Kidney Pills for the benefit of other kidney sufferers, and at this time I have no reason whatever to withdraw one word from that statement."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Injures Ankle.

From Wednesday's Daily.

William Hansen, Tom Moyer and Roy Hansen, all of Dubuque, Iowa, who have just completed the billing out of forty-five cars of apples from Myard, Murray and Union, motored to the city this afternoon and boarded the fast mail for Omaha. Roy Hansen met with an accident while breaking a colt for R. L. Propst last Sunday, which has put him on the "bum" and caused him to resort to crutches in order to go about at all. The colt was slightly raw under the saddle and in maneuvering got upon the scale platform and fell on Roy, crushing his ankle. The men have been boarding with R. L. Propst while in that neighborhood buying apples.

Earl Hyde returned from Glenwood this morning, where he has been employed for some time.

October Special Rates!
