

ARRAY OF CANDIDATES TO BE VOTED FOR AT THE ELECTION NEXT TUESDAY

Depended upon to act for the best interests of the people of Cass county in every locality. He is bound by no promises, and if elected next Tuesday he will see that every locality will get a square deal so far as he is able to act. Cam Seybert should be elected next Tuesday because he is one of the most competent and reliable men to serve on the board of commissioners in Cass county. Don't forget this, and vote for him next Tuesday.

FRED PATTERSON.
Candidate for Surveyor.

Two years ago Fred Patterson was elected county surveyor, and is a candidate for re-election on Tuesday next, November 7. Born in Illinois in 1854, but came to Nebraska with his parents when but a very small boy. Has lived in Cass county 56 years. His father, Thomas Patterson, was a government surveyor in 1857, and the present county surveyor learned the business under his father at the age of 14 years, and has done surveying at intervals ever since. It seems the Patterson family nearly all learned the profession of surveying. Mr. Patterson's brother, P. C. Patterson, has been county surveyor of Butler county for nineteen years, and a cousin of H. D. Patterson county surveyor of Sarpy county for nine years. Fred Patterson has been honored with the nomination of both republican and democratic parties, which is sufficient evidence that Mr. Patterson has performed the duties of the office to the entire satisfaction of the people of Cass county. He is a practical man for the position and has fully demonstrated in the past two years that he knows his calling from A to Z, and is always ready to accommodate the people. Fred is naturally a "hale fellow well met," and does his work in short order. While he has no opposition, Fred will feel grateful to all who vote for him next Tuesday, November 7.

E. RATNOUR.

The above gentleman is a candidate for coroner. Mr. Ratnour has lived in Weeping Water for many years and is one of that city's reliable business men, being a dealer in furniture, and is also an experienced undertaker. He is a good man for the position of coroner and should be elected.

Judge Archer is a candidate for police magistrate, and so efficiently has he been in the performance of the duties of the office that Plattsmouth people would hardly know how to get along without his services.

John Cory is a candidate for constable. You all know John, and, of course, intend to vote for him. He is a good fellow, and everybody likes him. Any business placed in his hands will receive prompt attention. And he has a way of making friends, instead of enemies, when he has a duty to perform. That's John Cory.

sure a large crowd in the city on that occasion.

University Luncheon.

Superintendent N. C. Abbott is in receipt of a letter from the secretary of the University Alumni association of Omaha extending an invitation to all of the university people of Plattsmouth to attend a big luncheon at the Rome hotel at noon on Thursday, November 9. Mr. Thomas says: "This luncheon will be open to all persons who have ever attended the university, and present indications point to the largest gathering ever had for a similar meeting." Mr. Abbott intends to be present and it is likely that a number of others from our community will also go, as our teachers will then be in attendance at the State Teachers' association.

Breaks Wrist Scooping Corn.

W. H. Wiles, a young farmer residing near Wabash, had the misfortune while scooping corn one day last week to fall and break his left wrist. The accident occurred in a very peculiar way, wholly unexpected to Mr. Wiles, who had his wagon about half unloaded. He was in the act of throwing a scoop full of corn into the crib when in some manner he slipped, falling backward and struck his wrist on the top sideboard of his wagon box, fracturing his wrist. Mr. Wiles has not been able to work since and will be off duty for some weeks.

Does Good Job of Painting.

M. W. Thomas this morning completed the painting and papering of the interior of the Dwyer building, preparatory to its occupancy by Mr. Schiappacasse. The room presents a beautiful appearance and will, when occupied by the new proprietor, be one of the popular resorts of the city. The front is being painted to correspond with the interior.

Charles Haffke and Mrs. Haffke, his mother, arrived from Omaha this morning to attend the wedding of William Haffke and Miss Anna Parkening at the Parkening home, five miles west of town, this morning.

Mrs. Nancy Rhoden and son, G. W. Rhoden, left for O'Neill this afternoon, where Mrs. Rhoden will spend the winter with her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Connolly. Mr. Rhoden will return Saturday.

SEVEN GIRLS PERISH IN FIRE

Powder Factory at Chehalis, Wash., is Destroyed.

MEN MAKE ESCAPE UNHURT.

Young Women Hurled Down Together and Unable to Escape From Counter at Which They Were Working. Cause of Accident Uncertain.

Chehalis, Wash., Nov. 2.—Fire which destroyed the powder factory of the Imperial Powder company here caused seven young women employed in the factory to lose their lives and an eighth probably will die. Only two girls escaped, although a dozen men were unhurt.

The dead: Vera Mulford, Tillie Raschback, Sadie Westfall, Eva Gilmore, Bertha Hagle, Ethel Sharp, Mrs. Ethel Henry.

Bertha Crown was so severely burned that she will die.

The cause of the fire is a mystery. One report is that a pot of paraffin in the mixing room was allowed to boil over by a careless workman, and that part of it ran into some powder. A flash followed and soon the whole structure was ablaze.

The girls were hurled down together, and owing to the rapid spread of the flames could not escape from behind a counter on which they were working.

Four of the company's buildings were destroyed, together with equipment and many tons of manufactured powder, entailing a financial loss of $20,000 or more.

SOCIALISTS MAKE BIG GAINS

Indications Job Harriman May Be Next Mayor of Los Angeles.

Los Angeles, Nov. 2.—With the probable exception of City Attorney John W. Sheik, good government candidate for re-election, the primary resulted in no election. Although the record total of more than 45,000 votes were cast, the primary proved only an elimination contest to reduce the ticket from ninety-nine candidates to twenty for the final struggle over the question of whether Los Angeles shall have a Socialist city administration during the next two years.

The final election is set for Dec. 5, when Job Harriman, one of the lawyers in the defense of the McNamara brothers and Socialist candidate for mayor, again will contest with George Alexander, the present incumbent.

But a few unimportant precincts yet remaining to be totaled, the vote on majority candidates stood: Harriman, 17,674; Alexander, 15,493, a plurality in favor of the Socialist candidate of 2,181.

MISTAKEN FOR DEER

Two Men Killed and One Wounded by Hunter in New Jersey.

Mays Landing, N. J., Nov. 2.—Eager to have a shot at a deer which he supposed was coming down an unused road in the gloom of the early dawn, Charles Norcross of Iona fired into a party of four other hunters, killing two and seriously wounding a third. The dead are: Conrad Steelman and John Yost of Pleasantville. Norcross is in jail here awaiting the action of the coroner.

EXPERT IN AVIATION KILLED

California Professor Falls in Experimenting With Glider.

San Jose, Cal., Nov. 2.—Professor John J. Montgomery of Santa Clara college died from the effects of a fall from an aeroplane glider he was experimenting with in the foothills near Dyergreen. Apparently he lost control of the machine and fell, sustaining injuries to the back and base of the brain.

Hook Refuses to Issue Injunction.

Kansas City, Nov. 2.—An injunction demanded by thirteen railway lines operating in Missouri against a recent state order reducing freight rates on steel and iron was denied by Judge William C. Hook in the federal court here. He said such an injunction would be illegal unless two other United States judges concurred in granting it.

Fowler and Rodgers Meet.

Tucson, Ariz., Nov. 2.—Swooping down from the air at 1 p. m., Aviator C. P. Rodgers, now on the last stages of his coast-to-coast flight, was greeted here by his rival, Robert G. Fowler, who is attempting to make the transcontinental flight from west to east, and who has been held here since Monday by the necessity for repairs to his machine.

Thirty Veniremen Excused.

Los Angeles, Nov. 2.—Ten veniremen out of a panel of forty summoned in the McNamara murder trial were all that remained when Judge Walter Bordwell finished their preliminary examination. The others presented excuses which the court considered valid.

HUNTS McNAMARA WITNESS

Prosecution Can't Find John Lofthouse Important to Its Case.

Los Angeles, Nov. 2.—John Lofthouse, one of the state's more important witnesses against James B. McNamara, is missing.

Sam Browne, chief detective of the district attorney's office, has been searching for him many days, but he will not discuss the matter.

Lofthouse was a friend of "Cocky" Schmidt and "J. B. Brice," who is declared to have been James B. McNamara.

INTERIOR TOWNS WANT LOWER RATES

Discrimination Shown in Interest of River Cities.

Des Moines, Nov. 2.—Business houses located in Iowa cities along the Mississippi river can ship goods into the territory of interior Iowa cities on better freight rates than shippers located in interior Iowa, according to the testimony submitted in the Iowa and Des Moines freight rate hearings before Interstate Commerce Commissioner Harlan.

M. N. Jones, traffic manager for the William Galloway company at Waterloo, testified that Dubuque can ship into Waterloo territory cheaper than Waterloo can, and that the Mississippi river cities ship to Waterloo's back door, competing strongly with Waterloo firms because of the advantage of better freight rates. Mr. Jones said that the rate from Waterloo to Pierre, S. D., on certain classes of freight is $22 per hundred pounds, the same rate quoted from Chicago to Pierre. He declared that Chicago and the Mississippi river crossings have the advantage of lower rates into Kansas. He quoted several other instances to prove that the interior Iowa towns are subject to unjust discrimination.

"Every Iowa town pays 122 per cent of the Chicago rate from New York," said Commissioner Thorne. "Missouri towns pay only 117 per cent of the Chicago rate from New York. In addition, every Iowa town pays 5 cents per each 100 pounds as bridge toll across the Mississippi river. This is not required of the Missouri towns."

Although the interior Iowa cities are asking for rates that will allow them to compete more strongly with the Mississippi river cities, there is a remarkable lack of conflict between the representatives of the two sections of the state. In fact the Mississippi river complaints ask a readjustment of rates that will assist the interior Iowa cities in securing better rates.

STEPHENSON ON STAND

Wisconsin Senator Says Evidence Against Him Proves Nothing.

Milwaukee, Nov. 2.—The United States senate committee which for a month has been investigating charges of bribery in the election of Senator Isaac Stephenson adjourned its hearings in Milwaukee, to meet later in Washington.

Edward Hines, the lumberman, again denied before the committee that he had anything to do wrongfully with the election of Senator Isaac Stephenson.

Senator Stephenson, the last witness, repeated his former testimony that while he expended $107,793 in the primary campaign of 1908 for the nomination, he had given little attention as to how the money was spent.

The senator declared he never knew Robert J. Shields and that he never had had any political dealings with Edward Hines.

Senator Stephenson said after adjournment: "I am confident there has not been presented any evidence on which to sustain any of the charges."

W. R. HEINMAN GETS CHECKS CASHED ON MURRAY BANK, WHERE HE HAD NO FUNDS

Several Business Men In Plattsmouth Caught for Ten Dollars Each and He Attempts the Same Thing in Omaha Only for A Large Amount and When Suspicion Was Aroused He Ships Out.

W. R. Heinman, who came up from Murray last Saturday evening to spend Sunday in Plattsmouth, evidently became a little short of finance, and has taken rather desperate chances to replenish his supply of the filthy lucre. Sometime during the day Sunday he called at the store of a local merchant and asked if he could get a check cashed for $10, informing the merchant that he was working in the vicinity of Murray. The merchant had seen Heinman many times during his stay in Cass county, about one year or a little more, and supposed that his check was all right, and readily gave him the money. Later a second check for $10 was cashed, and when they appeared at the Murray State bank, on which they were drawn, Cashier Boedecker turned them down for the want of funds.

Heinman has worked in and near Murray for the past year or more, a portion of the time for Charles Herren, and seemed to bear a pretty good reputation, but he never had a bank account with the Murray State bank, which makes his crime a pretty serious one.

After leaving Plattsmouth

Heinman went to Omaha, where he appeared at the Nebraska Clothing company's store and tried the same game. Here the proprietor of the store telephoned Cashier Boedecker as to the condition of Heinman's account, as he wanted them to cash a check for $20. Mr. Boedecker informed the Nebraska Clothing company that the check would not be honored, and if Heinman was still in their store to turn him over to the police. While the telephone was in use Heinman made his "get-away," as he evidently came to the conclusion that he might be taken in.

There may be a number of other bogus checks in this city that have not yet turned up at the Murray bank, as the young man seems to have been in the wholesale business and issued the falsely pretending checks wherever the opportunity presented, or rather looked good to him. He called at the Journal office Sunday afternoon, thinking that a newspaper man might have $10 to exchange for one of his bogus checks, but we were too wise for him, simply because we didn't have the money.

CHIEF ENGINEER CALVERT MARRIED LAST EVENING

Is Remembered by the General Offices at Chicago on Wedding Day.

General offices of the Burlington railroad at Chicago sent a wedding present to Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Calvert, whose marriage took place in this city last night. A chest of silver, 104 pieces enclosed in a mahogany box, was accompanied by a large consignment of American Beauty roses.

Mr. Calvert is chief engineer of the Burlington system. He was formerly general superintendent of the lines west of Lincoln, and before he held that office was chief engineer of the lines west. Under his immediate direction much of the mileage west of the river has been built, and the northwestern Nebraska and Wyoming lines especially, have been built under his supervision. While no official announcement has been made it is understood that Mr. and Mrs. Calvert will make their home here after their return from a wedding trip in South America.—Lincoln Journal.

Mrs. C. Tyler and daughter, Mrs. T. B. Line and children, were passengers to Omaha on the morning train today, where Mrs. Tyler will visit her daughter for two days.

Wolgast-Moran Fight.

At the Majestic next Friday night Manager Schlaes will show the stirring motion pictures of the Wolgast-Moran battle, the greatest lightweight championship fight ever pulled off, the fight occurring at San Francisco last July. The usual price charged for admission to see these pictures is 15 and 25 cents, but owing to Mr. Schlaes procuring the pictures for his South Omaha show for three evenings he will put them on here for the usual price of 10 cents for everybody.

Rosenorans & Son, the real estate dealers, have just received some fine samples of products from the San Louis valley in Colorado, which were on exhibition at the land show, and the same are to be displayed in the window of this enterprising real estate firm. Call and look it over.

O. H. Parkening of Omaha and Miss Ethel Peterson of Arlington returned to their homes this afternoon, having attended the wedding of Miss Anna Parkening and Mr. Haffke yesterday. Mrs. Banko of Omaha also attended the wedding, returning on the afternoon train today.
