Mrs. Levi Rusterholtz has been on the sick list for the past few days.

Frank Slagle came in from Dakota Sunday for a visit with his mother.

Hast is reducing his stock on account of invoicing and will give you some big bargains.

A. L. Baker was looking after some business matters in Plattsmouth Monday evening.

The children of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Creamer have been on the sick list for the past week.

The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Meisinger has been on the sick list for the past few days.

Bert Glasgow of Union was here Tuesday helping load a car of apples from the Frank Moore orchards.

With the thermometer down to 20 degrees and thousands of bushels of apples in the orchards does not sound well.

Mrs. Joseph Burton has returned home from Wood River, Neb., where she has been visiting her sister for the past three weeks.

Elmer Boedeker, who was operated on for appendicitis last week in Omaha, is recovering nicely and will be able to return home next Saturday.

Miss Maude Rusterholtz has resumed her duties in the Murray schools this week, taking charge of her room Monday, after a few weeks' illness, during which time Mrs. Margaret Brendel was in charge of the school.

C. M. Robinson, the hustling solicitor for the Bankers' Life Insurance company of Lincoln, has been doing business here for that company for the past few days. We find Mr. Robinson to be a mighty fine gentleman.

W. H. Puls was a county seat visitor last Saturday.

William Puls, sr., was a county seat visitor last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Holmes were in Omaha last Sunday.

Mrs. Charles Carroll and Mrs. J. W. Berger were in Plattsmouth Monday.

William Hamilton attended the committee meeting in Plattsmouth last Saturday.

Take dinner and supper on election day with the Ladies' Aid society at the home of Mrs. Brendel.

The wedding trousseau for the Tom Thumb wedding will be designed and made by Miss Grace Chambers.

Mrs. B. F. Brendel and sister, Mrs. Shelby, went down to Avoca Wednesday for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Dr. J. W. Brendel.

Walter Sans was out hunting a few hours Wednesday and succeeded in landing 21 ducks, which we would consider a pretty good first day's hunting.

Mr. and Mrs. John Campbell were Plattsmouth visitors last Monday. Mrs. Campbell called at the Journal office to renew her subscription. John came up to see the dentist and have an aching tooth removed.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Christian church will serve dinner and supper on election day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dr. B. F. Brendel. Take dinner with the ladies and we venture you will go back for supper. 25 cents.

Cam Seybert, the hustling candidate for county commissioner on the democratic ticket, stopped in Murray a short time Friday night. Mr. Seybert is a fine fellow, and if elected will no doubt make a good commissioner.

R. R. Nickels was looking after some business matters in the county seat last Saturday. This is the first time we have seen Mr. Nickels in Plattsmouth for several weeks, since his recent sick spell. We are pleased to see him up and around again.

Mrs. Dave Lloyd was taken to the hospital in Omaha last week, where she was operated upon Saturday morning for necrosis of the limb. The operation proved successful and she is getting along nicely. She was accompanied to the hospital by Dr. B. F. Brendel.

J. E. Gilmore of Hay Springs, Neb., spent Saturday and Sunday in Murray with his brother, Dr. Gilmore. Mr. Gilmore was cashier of the Murray State bank for several years and was well known in this part of the county. His visit, while short, was enjoyed by all his old friends.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Baker, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Long and daughter, Miss Gertrude, were entertained at dinner last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Torrence Fleming. They report a most excellent time and one of the finest dinners of their lives.

Mrs. Mark Furlong was taken to Omaha Monday, where she was placed in the hospital for an operation for appendicitis. Dr. Gilmore, the attending physician, accompanied her to the hospital, and on returning home reported her getting along nicely, with every prospect for a speedy recovery.

We are informed that our good friend, Joe Cook, will install a new meat market in Murray in the very near future. He has rented the store room of William McDaniell, which is already fitted up with a portion of the fixtures needed for this line of business. A good market in Murray will no doubt receive a good patronage, and we believe that Joe Cook is about the right man for the place.

Mrs. Charles Stone and mother, Mrs. James Allison, arrived in Murray Wednesday evening from Nehawka, where they have been visiting friends and relatives for the past few days. They just recently arrived from the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stone in Yampa, Colo., where Mrs. Allison has been spending the summer. We did not learn just how long they will remain.

R. A. Young was an Omaha visitor Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Brendel Sundayed with Harmon Beck and wife.

Mrs. Robert Fitch is visiting her parents in Plattsmouth this week.

Take a trip to Sunnyland Saturday evening, November 11, and hear the little Pickannies.

L. M. McVey was in Plattsmouth Monday, having another round with the Thacker garnishment cases.

See the little farce, "How the Story Grew," at the church Saturday evening, November 11, and see if there isn't a god deal of truth in it. The male quartet is well worth the price of admission.

There will be five numbers of the Lyceum Course this year. One of the numbers will be given by home talent under the direction of Mrs. J. F. Brendel and Pauline Oldham and will take place in the Christian church Saturday evening, November 11, at 8:30 o'clock.

Alva Lawton, who has made his home in Okaton, Dakota, for the past few years, arrived in Murray Tuesday for a visit at the home of Mrs. Lawton's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Young. Mr. Lawton thinks some of establishing an auto garage in Murray in the near future.

Terrence Fleming was taken with a severe attack of appendicitis last Saturday and his doctor, coming to the conclusion that an operation was necessary, he was taken to Omaha Sunday, where he was operated upon. He was accompanied by Dr. Brendel, Mrs. Fleming and C. E. Heebner, who were present at the time of the operation. It was very successful and it is expected that Mr. Fleming will soon be able to return home. Charles Heebner was in Omaha Tuesday, returning home Wednesday morning, and pronounces him getting along nicely.

A. Hast Sells Out.

The deal was completed this week whereby A. Hast disposes of his stock of goods in Murray to Mr. John Conner of Hamburg, Iowa, who will take possession of the same some time the latter part of the present month. Mr. Hast has only been in Murray a short time, but he has made a world of friends, who will sure regret to learn of his selling out and going to leave Murray. He is sure a live business man, one who thoroughly understands every branch of the mercantile business. Mr. Hast has been well satisfied with the increase in his business, but it does not look as though it could be made a great deal larger, and he cannot see his way to reach the volume of business that he would like to do each year. He does not believe that it is here. This is about his only reason for selling. The Journal certainly regrets to see Mr. Hast leave Murray.

From his large ad in another column of this issue it will be seen that Mr. Hast will make his remaining days in Murray live ones in the merchandise line. He is making some bargains that will move the goods for the next two weeks. He is compelled to reduce the stock before the new owner takes charge of it.

Entertains for Guest.

Mrs. D. C. West of Nehawka entertained Mesdames James Holmes, J. W. Edmunds, William Loughridge, William Brown, A. L. Baker, O. A. Davis, S. O. Pitman, Harry Todd, James Walker, G. H. Gilmore, Glenn Perry, Jas. Allison, W. T. Smith, J. D. Pitman, W. E. Dull, Miss Pauline Oldham, all of Murray, and Mesdames J. Palmer, Bruce Stone, H. Carper, Carl Stone, Misses Mildred Kuhn and Mattie Martin of Nehawka in honor of Mrs. Charles Stone of Yampa, Colo. The guests from Murray were met at the depot with autos and conveyed to the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. West. The house was decorated with Halloween ornaments, the rooms were darkened and lighted with candles at the luncheon hour. The day with Mrs. West and her guest, Mrs. Stone, will long be remembered, and the delightful manner in which they were entertained was very much appreciated by those present.

Thimble Guild Entertains.

Mesdames Gus Minnear, James McCulloch, John Lloyd and H. L. Oldham entertained the Thimble Guild at the home of Mrs. H. L. Oldham Friday afternoon. Fifty ladies were present and spent the afternoon peicing quilts and working embroidery. The rooms were decorated with fall flowers and the Halloween menu was served, consisting of sandwiches, doughnuts, apple and pumpkin pie and coffee. Those present besides the members were: Mrs. Ross Williams and her mother, Mrs. Larnard of Council Bluffs, Mrs. Parr and her daughter, Mrs. Shelby of Sheridan, Ind.; Mrs. B. F. Brendel, Mrs. Myra McDonald, Mrs. D. A. Young and her daughter Mrs. Lawton of Beach, N. D.; Mrs. Torrence Fleming, Mrs. Charles Marbler, Mrs. F. M. Young and her daughter, Isabella; Mrs. Walt Minnear and Mrs. Lee Farris.

Tickets for Lyceum Course.

Those buying or those still wishing to buy tickets for the Lyceum Course will please get them at the bank between now and November 11, as Saturday, November 11, will be the first number and it will make it much easier for the treasurer and more satisfactory for the ticket-holder than waiting until the evening of the entertainment. All season ticket-holders are admitted free to the entertainment Saturday evening, November 11.

Over half of the program will be given by children and will be worth your while to see them in their efforts.
