

Murray Department.

PREPARED IN THE INTERESTS OF THE PEOPLE OF MURRAY AND VICINITY ESPECIALLY FOR THE JOURNAL READERS.

[If any of the readers of the Journal know of a social event or an item of interest in this vicinity and will mail same to this office it will appear under this heading. We want all items of interest.—Editor Journal.]

Murray State Bank

Capital and Surplus $15000.00

We Solicit Your Banking Business

Interest Paid on Time Deposits

MURRAY, NEBRASKA

See how the tide turns at the Jenkins.

O. V. Virgin was a county seat visitor Tuesday.

Joseph Cook was in Plattsburgh Wednesday.

Help the Ocean Waif to find her parents, November 18.

Herman Clyde will show his colors Saturday night.

Automobile and carriage painting. Frank Gobelman.

Dr. J. T. Brendel was a county seat visitor Wednesday.

Frank Moore was a county seat visitor Tuesday of this week.

It takes Pepper to spin a yarn. His whaling story can't be beat.

Hear Aunt Becky express her opinion at "The Turn of the Tide."

C. W. Beveridge shipped a car of hogs to South Omaha Monday evening.

William Puls and wife were in Plattsburgh Wednesday to attend the bridge opening.

Louie Puls autoed to Plattsburgh Wednesday to attend the opening of the bridge.

James Hatchett was a county seat visitor Wednesday, autoing up to attend the celebration.

Do you believe variety is the spice of life? Then see "Pepper" at Jenkins' hall Saturday, November 18.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Walker were Plattsburgh visitors Wednesday, going up to attend the bridge opening.

Can Jonah support himself? You can find out at the "Turn of the Tide," Saturday night, November 18.

L. G. Todd and family autoed to Plattsburgh Wednesday to attend the celebration of the Pollock-Duff day.

William Puls, sr., and daughter, Miss Laura, were in Plattsburgh Wednesday to attend the opening of the bridge.

William Sporer was looking after some business matters in the county seat Wednesday and attending the celebration.

C. R. Wilkins of the Bankers' Life Insurance company of Lincoln was in Murray this week looking after business in his line.

Alfred Gansemeyer and father were in South Omaha Tuesday. Alfred bought a car of feeding cattle that were shipped to his place for fattening.

Mrs. O. V. Virgin and little son departed Wednesday morning for Topeka, Kansas, where they will make a visit with Mrs. Virgin's parents for a few days.

Dr. and Mrs. Gilmore autoed to Omaha Wednesday morning, returning via Plattsburgh, crossing the new bridge and attending the celebration in Plattsburgh.

Mrs. Enoch Moreland met with a very painful accident Thursday morning. She caught her finger in between the slamming door and the casing, cutting the end of the finger entirely off. The accident was very painful, but no serious results are anticipated.

G. M. Minford shipped a car of hogs to South Omaha Wednesday evening.

The carpenters have finished the barn of Colonel Seybolt.

Charles Land has been numbered with the sick for the past few days.

Mrs. S. O. Pitman and Mrs. O. S. Davis were shopping in Omaha Monday.

Miss Margie Walekr spent a few days in Plattsburgh this week a guest at the Dovey home.

Albert Young and Pauline Oldham attended the minstrel at Plattsburgh Wednesday eve.

Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Minford and son, William, attended the minstrel at Plattsburgh Wednesday evening.

Mrs. J. M. Berger, Mrs. Charles Garrel and Miss Gunther were in attendance at the minstrel show Wednesday evening.

Miss Lucille Bates and Miss Jessie Fox drove down from Plattsburgh Friday afternoon and called on a few friends.

Misses Lena Young, Mary Moore, Clara Young and Agnes Kennedy came in Saturday to attend the Tom Thumb wedding.

Henry Shoemaker passed through here Wednesday in his auto en route to Plattsburgh to attend the opening of the Platte river bridge.

Some have not taken up their tickets for the Lyceum course. Help the management by calling at the bank and getting them before the 25th.

The first number of the Lyceum course will be Saturday night, November 25th. The severe storm of the 11th caused the entertainment to be postponed.

Mrs. V. E. Perry, who has been in the hospital at Omaha for several weeks, returned home Monday night. She will soon be restored to her former health.

The many friends of Mrs. Joe Rankins will regret to learn that she is in the St. Joseph's hospital for medical treatment and that her condition is very serious.

Dr. and Mrs. Gilmore went to Plattsburgh Thursday afternoon where they attended a reception given at the home of Mrs. Dora Moore, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. James Newell.

Dr. J. T. Brendel accompanied C. H. Harris and little thirteen months old baby to Omaha this weekend where the little one will be placed in the hospital for treatment for hip joint disease.

Mrs. D. C. Rhoden, Mrs. H. C. Long, Gertrude Long and Mrs. A. L. Baker were shopping in Omaha Wednesday, coming down on the afternoon train to Plattsburgh to take in the minstrel show at the Parmelee.

The suits for the Tom Thumb wedding are very stunning. The little boys dressed in evening suits and the girls with grown-up dresses and huge willow plumes, presents a very fascinating picture. Be sure to bring your children, as they will surely enjoy the dress-up.

Harry Todd was a Plattsburgh visitor Wednesday of this week.

Charles L. Creamer has been on the sick list for the past few days.

Mrs. F. M. Young has been numbered with the sick for the past week.

Mrs. John Eaton, near Union, has been on the sick list for the past few days.

Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Minford attended the play in Plattsburgh Wednesday evening.

A. L. Baker and Mark Seybert autoed to Omaha Thursday to attend to some business matters.

Born—November 9, to Mr. and Mrs. Gus Split, a boy. Both the mother and little one are getting along nicely. Gus is much happier than usual.

J. Maxim, gas fitter, from Cedar Rapids, Iowa, has been in Murray for the past few days assisting Pitman & Davis in the installation of lighting plants.

Born—On Thursday morning, November 16, to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lilley, a boy. All are doing nicely and Frank says that the little fellow was a mighty welcome visitor.

Elmer Boedeker, who has been in the hospital at Omaha for the past few weeks where he underwent an operation for appendicitis, returned home last Friday evening. He is recovering rapidly and will soon be restored to his former health, which will prove good news to his many friends.

Torrence Fleming returned home from the hospital in Omaha Tuesday night, where he has been confined for the past few weeks, after an operation for appendicitis. He has been feeling pretty well since returning home, and the operation was successful, but up to the present time he has experienced considerable kidney trouble.

(Too Late for Last Week.)

Miss Annabel Moore is listed with the sick this week.

Mrs. Steve Copenhagen was an Omaha shopper Friday.

Mrs. G. W. Shrader was shopping in Omaha Monday.

Lloyd Lewis made a trip to Plattsburgh Sunday morning.

Mrs. E. G. Lewis was numbered with the sick the past few days.

The infant son of Creed Harris and wife is very low at this writing.

Miss Elizabeth Campbell spent Sunday with her parents at Kenosha.

R. R. Nickels and family were Sunday visitors with A. F. Nickels and family.

Mrs. R. H. Fitch, sr., is slowly improving from a severe attack of rheumatism.

Ella M. Nickels was looking after the Sprilla corset business in Union Tuesday.

Mrs. Frank Rhoden was an Omaha visitor on the early train Monday morning.

Lee and George Nickels were transacting business in Plattsburgh Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. J. D. Wurdean and son of Lehigh, Neb., arrived for a visit with relatives at Murray Tuesday.

Mrs. Alf. Nickels is suffering with a badly cut finger, the accident happening while sealing fruit.

Miss Marie Lewis, Miss Lillian Kersey, Joe Cramer and Lloyd Lewis were guests of Ed Lewis and family Sunday.

Miss Vena Tracy, who has been visiting W. F. Moore and family, returned to her home in Omaha Friday.

Robert Fitch, jr., received a telephone message from Plattsburgh stating the serious illness of his infant son at the home of Jacob Mason.

Charles Nickels came down from Omaha Sunday, where he has been under the doctor's care. This is the first number of the Lyceum course.

Box Social at Mynard.

There will be a Box Social given at the M. W. A. hall at Mynard Saturday evening, November 25th, by the members of School Districts Nos. 3 and 45, better known as the Jean and Snyder schools.

Everybody cordially invited. So come, bring your baskets and have a good time.

Elizabeth Oliver,

Marguerite McSweeney,

Teachers.

Postponed.

The entertainment composed of the Tom Thumb's wedding solos, chorus and a one-act play, "How the Story Grew," is postponed until Saturday night, November 25, on account of the severe storm on the night of the 11th. This is the first number of the Lyceum course.

For Rent or Sale.

The frame business house just west of the postoffice in Murray. Size, 16x24, and in good condition. Apply to Holmes or Smith.

For Sale.

A cider press—good as new.

Daily capacity 3 to 6 barrels. Cost $25.00. Will sell for $10.00.

J. C. Petersen.

SWEATERS?

Yes ma'am. We have the celebrated Bradley line for ladies and children. The children's sweaters come in combinations of oxford, cardinal and navy. Sweaters for yourself come in combinations of white, navy, cardinal and black. These sweaters are form fitting and the yarn used is the very best. Don't cost so much either. Children's $1 to $2.50 and ladies $1.50 to $3 and $5.

E.A.WURL
CORNER SIXTH AND MAIN ST. Phones IND-5483 BELL-6243

Returns From Dawson County.

MAPLE GROVE.

(Special Correspondence.)

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Gansemeyer,

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Puls and

Laura Puls spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Lutz.

Election is over and Mt. Pleasant precinct was placed in the democratic column.

Corn husking is nearly over in this section and the average yield was about 30 bushels per acre.

R. A. Young made a trip to Omaha last week to look at the cattle market.

A surprise party was given at the home of August Engelkemier, sr., last Saturday night in honor of Miss Laura's birthday.

Miss Birdie Johnson attended the teachers' meeting at Omaha

last week.

Quite a number from this locality were county seat visitors

Wednesday to attend the grand opening of the Platte river auto and wagon bridge.

Alfred Gansemeyer made a trip to Omaha Tuesday and purchased a load of feeders.

Thanksgiving Celebration.

The ladies of the K. N. K. are making preparation for a grand

Thanksgiving celebration at the Kenosha church. There will be services at 11 a. m. by the Rev.

W. A. Taylor of Union, which will be followed by a delicious Thanksgiving dinner. The afternoon will be spent in the sale of plain and fancy needle work, also two fine bed quilts made by the K. N.

K. will be offered for sale. We wish to invite you, one and all,

through the columns of this paper to come and bring something to eat and to sell. Anyone wishing to donate please call the president, Mrs. Bertha Klauren, or

Mrs. John Hendricks, secretary.

Come; you will be welcome. The following is the menu:

Dessert—Pie, cake, cranberries.

Meats—Goose, chicken, beef