

OUR BIG CHALLENGE SALE IS NOW ON

OUR BIG SPECIAL SALE OF MILLINERY

held last Saturday, proved a grand success in every particular, except a profitable one to us. This we did not expect, for every price made was a losing one to us, but we are determined to sell every hat in the house during this sale. Many choice hats were sold last Saturday, but we still have a very large line left, and owing to the fact that many of our patrons were unable to attend on such short notice, we have decided to continue this slaughter price sale until every hat in the house is sold. We positively will not carry a single hat over, and in order not to do so there will be no consideration given to the first cost of the material.

This will positively be one of the Greatest Millinery Sales Plattsmouth has ever seen, for the lion's share of the Millinery business is in this store. Bigger stocks mean bigger lines, bigger lines mean bigger selling, and bigger selling means bigger lots to close out at season's end.

We are Going to Make the Prices That Will be the Talk of the Town for Months

DON'T MISS THIS SALE IF YOU CAN POSSIBLY USE ANOTHER HAT

Everything must go. It is no longer a question of prices or how much the goods are worth—it's a question of giving up the space to holiday goods now waiting for a place on our floors. Here's an example of the way we will pass them out:

$10 Fine Trimmed Hats for $3.75 $8 Trimmed Hats for $2.75 $6 Trimmed Hats for $1.98

We have a large line of Fur Overcoats and Sheep Lined Working Coats that are being sold at a very low price during this sale. Our line of Shoes and Rubber Goods, Leggings, etc., is the largest to be found in the city, and are being sold at Challenge Sale prices.

Bear in mind that Our Great Challenge Sale is still going on, and you will find this the Bargain Store of the town for Men's and Boys' Wearing Apparel, Suits, Overcoats, Etc., Ladies', Misses' and Children's Cloaks, Suits and Dresses. We guarantee every article sold during this sale to be absolutely satisfactory, and worth the money. We will gladly exchange goods, or refund money where patrons are dissatisfied with their purchases. We want to make our store the "Home of Guaranteed Values."

V. ZUCKER
MANAGER

FANGER'S DEPARTMENT STORE

THE HOME OF
GUARANTEED VALUES

ELMWOOD.

W. S. Waters went to Greenwood yesterday to attend the funeral of a Mr. Pierson, an old-time friend.

W. C. Bartlett returned home Monday after a brief visit in Iowa, where he was called to see his sick father.

Mrs. Pearl Mapes and little Mont., have been visiting relatives daughter, Vivian, of Lodge Grass, near here for the past few weeks.

Mrs. Johnson was taken to Lincoln Friday for osteopathic treatment. She was accompanied in her car by F. J. Fitch, Anna McFall and Sarah Emmerson.

Jack Russell has resigned his position at the mill and moved to Weeping Water. Lee Coon has been employed to run the big engine, for a time at least.

Attorney Deles Dernier left Monday for Omaha to try a divorce suit. From there he goes to Portland, Ore., on matters pertaining to the settlement of the White estate, being accompanied by County Commissioner James White of Otoe county. The gentlemen will be absent about fifteen days.

One of the items crowded out last week was that concerning the illness of Mrs. Jim Jacobs, who came here with her husband from Colorado some time ago in the hope of benefitting her health. It seems that Mrs. Jacobs is gradually failing despite the efforts being put forth in her behalf. She is still at the home of her mother, Mrs. M. J. Irons.

The First National bank of Elmwood was twenty-five years old yesterday, the 16th of November. The present president of the bank, W. S. Waters, was cashier when the bank started, and Edwin Jeary was its president. The bank has steadily grown in the volume of business transacted and is today one of Cass county's leading banking concerns.

Simon Clark left for Glenwood Saturday afternoon, where he went to assist Robert Stivers to pack his household goods, preparatory to moving to Plattsmouth.

UNION.

James Niday departed Wednesday morning for Coleridge to visit a few days with his brother, Will, and his sister, Mrs. DeLozier.

Tom and Ralph Sherwood, the artistic painters, went to Plattsmouth last Saturday evening for a Sunday visit with their families.

Mrs. Minerva McQuin went to Omaha on the Tuesday morning train to visit her daughter, Lillie, who attends school in that city.

W. H. Mark arrived home Wednesday from his visit with relatives and friends in Ohio and Indiana, and says he had a grand good time and is feeling fine.

Mrs. Bert Carter and children, Vernie and Bobbie, who had been visiting here a few weeks, departed last Saturday morning for their home at Walthill.

Dr. A. E. Walker departed Wednesday for Minko, Okla., to spend several days looking after some land interests in that country owned by his father.

Miss Agnes Kennedy, a teacher in the schools at Eagle, and her brother, Charley, who is attending school there, were here Sunday evening, returning from a visit with their parents at Murray.

Miss June McQuin returned on Tuesday from Omaha, where she spent several weeks in a hospital, having her foot treated by one of the specialists. The young lady is now able to walk with the aid of crutches, and in due time her limb will be in perfect condition.

D. Ray Frans arrived home last Friday morning from Burlington Junction, Mo., where he had been fighting his rheumatic troubles at the Mineral Springs Sanitarium, with excellent results. He informs us that under the new management the institution is better equipped than ever to treat patients and give them care and comfort, many improvements having been made.

Roy A. Flanagan, whom we mentioned recently as having resigned his position in the Bank of Union, bade us adieu Tuesday and departed that evening. He intends investigating a proposition for the purchase of a bank in Kansas, and if that does not suit him he will go to the Pacific coast. Mr. Flanagan made many friends during the two years he was connected with the bank here, and none will hesitate to vouch for him as a gentleman of integrity and business ability.

NEHAWKA.

Chris Steffens, the Lorton merchant, came in on the 10 o'clock train yesterday morning for a brief visit with his brother, Dick and wife.

E. M. Pollard motored to Omaha Saturday through the gale. He expects shortly to leave for the Panama canal zone, where he was employed prior to last spring.

The new bridge at Plattsmouth puts Omaha a little under forty miles from here, nearer than Lincoln, and if they make the road as good as they plan, the trip will be a delightful one for the whizz carts.

Charles Heebner was in Monday receiving the congratulations of his friends over his election, and admits that he is feeling first-rate. He says his boy doesn't bother him now and that he sleeps well at night.

Cornhuskers are out these frosty mornings and the regular bump of the golden ears can be heard as early as anyone wishes to rise. Fortunately, none of the fields are close enough to town to bother those who prefer the other thing than early rising.

Contractors are beginning the erection this week of a dwelling house for Miss Fronia Kime on the lots just south and across the street from H. F. Kropp. The building will be a cottage 26x28 and substantially built. It is intended to hurry the job to completion and Miss Kime expects to occupy it by January 1.

About forty good road boosters and enthusiastic devotees of the gentle art of automobiling were over to Plattsmouth from this town Wednesday to help celebrate the opening of the new bridge. Some of them came home before night, after crossing the bridge and inspecting it, but the majority of them stayed for the big show in the evening and came stringing home for the next twenty-four hours.

LOUISVILLE.

Miss Hulda Ragos returned to her school at Nelson after an over-Sunday visit with the home folks.

Miss Georgie Deleze left Wednesday for Denver, where she will visit her aunt, Mrs. Philip Kahler.

Claude Rand went to Omaha Wednesday to visit his wife at the hospital, who underwent an operation last week for appendicitis.

We are glad to report that Mrs. Frank Pettit is recovering from a severe attack of rheumatism, which has kept her bedfast for several weeks.

T. W. Fountain died at his home at South Bend Wednesday night, after lingering illness with cancer. He was one of the pioneers of Cass county.

Mrs. Julius Raoss, Jr., and four children left Monday for their home in Garber, Okla., after a several weeks' visit with relatives in this vicinity.

Mrs. J. D. Ferguson and daughter, Miss Fern, of Lincoln, visited at the home of William Stander last week on their way home from Nehawka.

Frank Heim returned to his home in Vienna, S. D., last Saturday, after a short visit with relatives in and near Louisville. He was accompanied as far as Omaha by his mother and sister, Mrs. Theodore Heim and Mrs. John Group.

Adam Rentschler has had the George Duerr property at the lower end of Main street fitted up for a meat market and with Chas. Schliafi, the old-time butcher, behind the block, has opened up a neat market. He will kill his own meat where it is possible to do so. He invites a share of your patronage.

Mrs. John Loberg died at her home near Nehawka at 6 p. m. Tuesday night of consumption. The funeral occurred Thursday at Nehawka. She leaves a husband and five children, the youngest being 9 years of age. Swan Loberg and wife, Richard Loberg and wife, Hans Loberg and wife all of this vicinity, attended the funeral.

WEeping WATER.

Miss Caroline Hosford, who has been attending the academy, was compelled to return home on account of suffering from asthma.

Word comes from Ansley that to Mr. and Mrs. Troy Jewell a son was born on November 10. There are Jewels valued higher than diamonds.

George Corley came down from Omaha Monday for a short visit. He expects to work for the Cudahy Packing Co. in the book-keeping department on his return.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Russell, who have been living in Elmwood the past two years, returned to Weeping Water last Friday to reside. He will take the job of engineer at the city mill.

Miss Margaret Giberson, teacher in Beatrice, and Miss Mildred Butler, teacher at Newman Grove, after attending the State Teachers' association in Omaha came down to visit relatives here.

Frank Barnes has been in Lincoln the past week taking treatment at the sanitarium. Frank has been in poor health the past summer and complained of severe pains in the back of his head, and his hearing was affected.

Miss Connelly and mother of Murray moved to town Monday and are living in the McNurlin house. The ladies sold off their property, expecting to go to California to reside, but on account of poor health the mother was advised not to make the trip.

R. E. Contryman departed a week ago for Schneectady, N. Y., to visit his daughter, Elizabeth Turner, and accompany his wife home, who has been visiting there for a few months. He expected to remain away two or three weeks.

Engineer Hoover of the Lincoln train was taken suddenly ill Wednesday at 11:30 just before entering town, and fell down in the cab, striking his face. He suffered intensely with heart trouble and was removed to the baggage car and another engineer placed in charge.

Rev. Alfred Sturgeon, the noted evangelist, arrived last week and is conducting a series of meetings at the M. E. church. So far the meetings have been very successful and no doubt a great deal of good will be accomplished.

George Oberle, George Reitter, Jr., Will Hudson, Lester Welsh, Welsey Welsh and Misses Welsh and Bischof started for Omaha Monday to be present as witnesses in the Welsh-Welsh divorce case, but they were notified at Elmwood that the hearing had been postponed.

Earl R. Blish departed for his home in Montana Sunday afternoon. He was accompanied to Omaha by Misses Ida and Frances Weidman and Nelson Jean.

B. L. Philpot of Weeping Water was a county seat visitor today.