Guests of Ed Thimgan and wife Sunday were: Mr. Kuehn and Emma, Mr. and Mrs. Emil Kuehn, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Williams and daughters of Elmwood.

Merle McDonald was taken to an Omaha hospital last Saturday, where he underwent an operation on Tuesday morning, and at the present writing is very low.

Herman Gakemier and Miss Selma Thimgan, two of our popular young people, went to Omaha last Wednesday, where they were quietly married. May the best luck they've had be the worst that is coming to them.

William Rush and wife entertained at dinner, when their guests were: James Foreman and family of Alvo, Mr. and Mrs. James Brittan of Lincoln and Mr.

and Mrs. Raymond Westlake and daughter, Mary Florence.

Lacey McDonald had quite an accident last Wednesday evening in a runaway. In trying to hold bundles of shingles on a wagon when going down town he fell between the front wheel and the singletree, which scared the team, causing them to run, the wagon passing over Lacey's shoulder and one leg. He was picked up and taken home, where, after being examined by Dr. Neely of Elmwood, it was found he had several pretty bad bruises, but no broken bones. He was confined to his room the remainder of the week.

Try a sack of Forest Rose Flour the next time you need flour. Ask your dealer what he thinks of it.

A MAIL CARRIER'S LOAD

Seems heavier where he has a weak back and kidney trouble. Fred Duehren, Mail Carrier at Atchison, Kas., says: "I have been bothered with kidney and bladder trouble and had a severe pain across my back. Whenever I carried a heavy load of mail, my kidney trouble increased. Some time ago, I started taking Foley Kidney Pills and since taking them I have gotten entirely rid of all my kidney trouble and am as sound now as ever. For sale by F. G. Fricke & Co.

Dyspepsia is America's curse. Burdock Blood Bitters conquers dyspepsia every time. It drives out impurities, tones the stomach, restores perfect digestion, normal weight and good health.
